

Ephemeral Rule

By : Atton Brown

This is me like coming off of two weeks of writers block so it may not be as good as my others. Tellm me what you think.

Ephemeral Rule

"Cry â havocâ and let slip the dogs of war"

Sheer panic

Itâ s tragic

We couldnâ t see it before

This world is crumblin

Bumblin

Fools, everywhere I go

Cuz Iâ m fumblin

Tumblin

Through pools of hate, sorrow

Thoughts locked in place

The world speeding in pace

Blowing by the slow

Flowing, donâ t you know?

Lucid, no restraints

Useless, abstract weights

Go to any lengths

To break free

And see

The truth and whatâ s real

Whatâ s seen or what we feel

"It hurts but weâ ll never know

This pain youâ ll never know"

Drop the world cuz itâ s already falling

Ephemeral Rule

Appalling

This downward spiral

Itâs viral

Infecting us all

With ignorance

Degenerates

And we just fall apart

Start

The end

Begin

To rise against

To find the sense

In the world's bullshit

My mind, it wanders

While the world, it plunders

Killing

Willing

To massacre the good

So could

We really be the saviors

When the world prides itself on its destructive labors

So do they deserve saving

With the way theyâre behaving

Cuz this hellhole, this cesspool

Is justâ

An ephemeral rule

Ephemeral Rule
