Enough is Enough

When a tear stings the eye

When a heart starts to die

Enough is Enough

When a smile fades away

When the skies turn to gray

Enough is enough

When a step falters

When she's finds no answers

Enough is Enough

~~~~~

A dream disappears

Words betray her ears

Fails to her fears

Gives into the tears

~~~~~

Bring with you

Kind words to release the sting

Super glue to be her hearts string

Love to return that smile

Skies of blue, a better style

Catch her when she falls

Have the answers when she calls

~~~~~

A better person you can be

Enough is Enough

Enough is Enough

Now your able to see

That Enough is Enough

Enough is Enough
