A sad christmas

it's christmas

the time of year

the one day which is filled with happiness and cheer but the only thing i can think of,

is the fact that your not here all day i've been thinking wondering what you're doing wanting to see you

but knowing

i'll never get my christmas kiss causes the tears to flow i wish i could escape this sadness for just one day everyone's full of smiles and i can't stop wishing i was okay i wish i could smile for real just once

and forget all about you, you stupid cunt you're on my mind all the time you bully me all the time, it should be a crime i wish they could lock you up and throw away the key so i can forget all about you, because, you see

it's christmas

where for that one day, everything is filled with happiness and cheer

but the only thing i can think of,

without you, this is a sad christmas it's another full of heartbreak where all my smiles are fake please, for goodness sake!

burn me at the fucking stake so i don't have to carry on anymore

and put up with this bored which i call my life so i don't have to put up with this stupid, sad christmas
