Hair Product Blues

I got the hair product blues
Though I know it ain't news I dyed my hair this mornin and I used a new hair dye when I looked into the mirror well, it really made me cry My lovely golden locks are now a gingery brown Nothin like the colour on the box
Oh man, it really gets me down.
Yes, I got the blues
I got those light brown with a touch of ginger blues.

I used Vanilla blonde which should have been light gold but my hair is now much darker man, it really leaves me cold.
Oh, I got the blues
I got those light brown with a touch of ginger blues.

I woke up this mornin didn't know what lay ahead if I'd known how it would turn out I woulda stayed right in my bed.
cos now I got the blues
Yes, I got the blues
I got those light brown with a touch of ginger
