

WE PUSH

By : Dino

Trying and failing but not failing to try. I miss the way you used to slip through my fingers.

i dont know what to say so i open my mouth
and press breath from my lungs

and no matter how hard
i try to scream
i can only manage
a sigh

i know i did it bad
i always do i thought you knew that too

i guess i was wrong
when the winds
swept you up
with me

when i felt your sadness when i knew i knew it so well
i did

but it was wrong of me
to assume the same
could be said
for me

we dont see eye to eye you and me you see
are south and south on a magnet

were the same polarity
you you you
me me me
we push

no matter what we feel we push and push apart
till we no longer have the strength to try

then we wave our arms
and cry goodbye

and love love love
in the minutes it takes us to forget

we were ever here at all you and me
me and you
trying to be us
and failing

but the fact that we try at all
saves it for me i guess because the failure
is eminent

we cannot be and yet we waste our time
drawing eachother
pretty pictures
through the distance

because the trying is all we have
