I Left Without A Goodbye

Sometimes I wonder if I did wrong

Leaving your side without a goodbye

But it was hard to be by your side

Knowing that you could never be mine

Through endless nights I cried for you

You went on with life not knowing the truth

At times I wonder if I should

Have told you

But how could I

When I knew you wouldn't love me back

So I left your side

Without a single goodbye

I may have been wrong

But I could not endure the pain for long

And now Iâm confused

Youâre back in my life

So I begin to wonder if I had been wrong

Again you are here

Playing with my thoughts

Youâve come to confront me

Of what, I know not

Could it be that you heard the truth

From the lips of someone else

I Left Without A Goodbye

Have you come to confront the love I have for you

Iâve been afraid of this moment for so long

Which is why I fled at once

But now you are here again

Stopping me from escaping this time

I now not what I will do

But I hope I have the strength this time

To tell you I love you

Without the fear controlling me

Keeping me silent after so long

I hope I have the courage

To tell why I left without a goodbyeâ
