I'm Still Fighting

Girl, just look

Look at me

Look into my eyes

Look into my soul

Please don't go

Wait a little bit longer

Trust the words,

Slipping from my lips

It might seem impossible

But you have to trust me

I'm trying hard

To be by your side

Don't give up on me

Wait a little bit longer

My heart beats only for you

Because you're the one

It sounds kind of crazy, you know?

We're from two different worlds

But you can't deny

You and me, we're in love

It's kind of foolish,

You and me hiding

Like if what we feel is a crime

I'm Still Fighting

But itâs notât its love
Thereâs hope for love out there
Hope for you and me
We just have to find it
We canât give up now
Youâre that one special person,
Iâve been searching for
So believe me when I say
Iâm not giving up on us
I know you have your doubts
But donât doubt me,
When I say I love you
Have faith in my words
Just listen to me one last time
Because Iâm still here
Fighting for your love
Fighting for usât

I'm Still Fighting

I'm Still Fighting
