metaphorically speaking hang your head upon my mantle even though you disgust and disarm i can vomit colors like a roman candle and you can sound off like a car alarm and into the bed we'll sink like the stink from decay and rot claims a corpse you were the ball holding my chain but you're dragging me under the earth i am the sun after a long day's work of turning and yearning to be the center of your universe or the only light you'd ever need
