So Sad that Sorry doesn't Cut It

Every day I wake I feel more alone
My right hand holds a death grip
Upon my telephone
And the final thought you left was bye bye
Bye, bye, bye
I've got a few shots
That says you won't be on my mind
For very long

Every single song can hold a truth
Barely three minutes long
And they've got more spine than you do
See, I would've been more than happy to reside
Here inside
These four walls
The chambers of my mind
Where you don't lie

Where you don't lie
I just wanted time
Maybe a second chance to somehow turn this
Farce into a life
And it's all a joke
It's all for nothing
When every single word you spoke
Is a lie it's just insulting
