If Jesus shined through me and you

If Jesus shined through me and you

Can you imagine a world so different. Where Jesus shines through me and you? A world with Kindness instead of heartbreak, Where everyone's dreams come true? Hope would come alive instead of fading, Danger wouldn't come from a sky of blue, Choices would be clear, wisdom always heeded, Angels would appear, warnings never needed, No one would believe that a lie is true, Patience would never be tried, heroes would never die, If Jesus shined through me and you.
