Lifes Plan

Life is all around you and where do you start

Itâs all mapped out you say, as I stare at the chart.

Where is the fun you promised along the way?

The fun of living I should have every day

You lied to me as I believed every single word

I did my best but you never let me be heard

So now I am in the twilight of my years

And all I have are these dried up tears

Nothing to show for my struggles and toil

But hate and frustration that makes my blood boil

And now all I have in this wrinkled shell is hate

Pent up frustration because itâs all too late

I wish I had never listened to you from day one

But itâs too late now my life is all but done

What I can do is enjoy my time and have fun

To see you suffer as I run with my face to the sun

No be gone with you and retreat back inside

And let me enjoy the freedom of my mind
