love psychotic

We all love the noise of the fair

A smell of cinnamon and hotdogs

Wafting thru the teen soaked air

The rides and food and fun

It makes us giddy with a surprise

And the thrill is second to none

There are coasters and lifts

For us to ride in or sit upon

Sideshowes and games with gifts

But none of these things compare

To the fun I can have together

With just the two of us to share

Our day to eat, have fun and frolic

Your presence alongside me

Makes me high like a love psychotic
