

What Makes Us

What Makes Us

By : JBrewer

I wrote this on 9-9-12, it's more basic than some of my others, but I think it's just how it should be. I hope you all enjoy.

What Makes US

It's what makes us human,
you and I.
This pain,
this torture,
that we hold beneath.
Shadows that have faded,
only we can see.
Mere echoes of words once spoken,
only heard in memories.
We hide from these things,
we bury them deep.
Somehow,
someone,
always finds the right place to search.
To dig deep.
There's no healing, no fixing,
no making things right.
It's us. Who we are.
We hang on,
to everything,
and never let go.
