

Im Fine.

Im Fine.

By : JiDonnelly

my workers have it planted in there head that my anger issues have something to do with mental health and that i need counseling, i really do beg to differ!

Im Fine.

Im Fine.

Don't insult me

I wont lay down staring at a ceiling

and listen and agree to some stranger telling me how i am feeling

I don't have issues as such

to hear this mouthful

sometimes things just get too much so i snap and lose my cool

I am the same as everyone

I am a honest human being too

It is all easy said than done but i understand your point of view counseling is the last thing i need

so please try and respect and understand that for me

I know you all mean well and are trying to do a good deed

but i will be fine you will see.

Im Fine.

Im Fine.
