Such A Habit

Such A Habit

Itâs no longer a hobby

Nah itâs become a habit

Between habit and addiction

The connection to it, I want to smash it

Sever it, if I could

Make it seem like it never happened

Bury it, if I could

All it provides for me is lament

Itâs like Iâm a cigarette smoker

And youâre my nicotine

I know how bad you are for me

But that doesnât deter me

But I found myself a patch

I found myself a cure

Gotta quit you, cold turkey

Never have I ever been more sure

Youâve become my bad habit

And youâre getting close to being my addiction

I canât regress with you anymore

This is my way of fixing it

Such A Habit
