Thinkin of You

Thinking of you

My days were bright

You were my light

You were my vision

I am thinking of you

You were my goal

You made me whole

Now you are

Nowhere in sight

I prayed for you during the day

And wished for you still at night

They have all fallen on deaf ears

You are somebody else's right

I may be strong

My smile is tight

Just thinking of you

My heart melts inside

I want to make you mine

I want to make you stay

Thinkin of You

Thinkin of You

I know I let you go to be with her

Far far away

May be I should be buried

So that finally I can breathe

It feels like ages

Since my last heartbeat

Thinkin of You

Thinkin of You
