The definition of Beauty

Beauty

True beauty is in the way she laughs
True beauty is in her eyes
True beauty is how she acts
True beauty is inside
True beauty is unseen
True beauty is only felt
True beauty is not mean
True beauty is herself
True beauty can't be cruel
True beauty is bare
True beauty within you
True beauty is always there
True Beauty can't be covered with makeup
True beauty means true love
True beauty is the flight of a dove
For True beauty is all that matters after all

'Pretty is only temporary, Beauty is Eternal'

There is no such thing as 'ugly' everybody is beautiful either inside or outside. Don't drag other people down just to make yourself feel better because in reality your just dragging yourself even more. You can still love yourself without being big headed or vain. Just being yourself is what makes you Beautiful.
