

I wish Time would stop.

I wish Time would stop.

I wish Time would stop.

I wish time would stop. I wouldn't have to grow up. I'm scared. But time stops for no man. So wishing is pointless. So why don't I stop? Because until I'm gone, I'll keep wishing or what I believe in. Even If it is pointless.

I wish Time would stop.

I wish Time would stop.
