

A Statement of Myself

By : Mickel Mais

I wrote a poem about my most favorite way of describing myself, since it is more than just a redundant statement. It focuses on my past, present, and future as I grow and develop into myself. Hopefully, you'll be able to identify with it and recognize everything, good and bad, that makes you like no other.

Published on Booksie

booksie.com/Mickel Mais

Copyright © Mickel Mais, 2015
Publish your writing on Booksie.com.

A Statement of Myself

I am me,

And me is I.

I was born to be no other.

My life was all my own.

I grew,

I learned,

I survived,

To be only me.

I am no other.

Skin-deep and soul-deep, I am wonderfully unique.

I think,

I breathe,

I act,

In a way entirely my own.

I will be no other.

I aspire to be as great as I shall be.

I look to,

I want to,

I wish to,

Be like no other.

I am me,

And me is I.

A Statement of Myself

A Statement of Myself

Created from Booksie.com

Generated: 2015-01-26 20:16:47