DISARMING

i got a tattoo with your name and then you left me crying it seemed you dumped me so darn quick the ink was hardly drying i have this wretched foul tattoo it's like a thing the devil drew i'm sad that i'm deprived of you it's like this artwork's lying i guess it could be lasered off but that could lead to scarring or find a woman with your name to be my partner, starring i could just stick to longer sleeves i see it and my heart just grieves i hate it when a woman leaves i find it truly jarring i guess it could be covered up by something much more charming the fact i had such faith in you is something quite alarming i thought you were the one for me to share my life eternally i find i cannot let it be and find myself disarming
