HUNGARIANS WERE HUNGRY

with no food there to be found and so they looked within a map to take a look around they zeroed in on turkey for that really sounded good and then invaded turkey like a hungry person would alas, you can't eat turkey lest you fry it up so fine for raw meat will destroy you when you belly up to dine but they were very anxious that their hunger soon would cease they looked inside the map again and they discovered greece for greece will cook the turkey every gourmet understands but it is so barbaric to just eat it with bare hands and so they checked the map again and china they did find on china, greasy turkey sat hungarians then dined
