MY FEET DON'T FIT THE FOOTPRINTS

Â

when young, we're taking baby steps an awkward little gait and as we get a grasp on things we start to escalate

our stride becomes more confident but still at times we fall and if we trip while running fast we may not rise at all

for life can be most painful when it steps upon your toe
that i fashioned long ago

it's great to be a dancer and to move around with flair i only end up foolish when i strive for fred astaire

for gliding is not easy when your shoes are filled with sand impossible, you find when on the sea you try to stand

and when the ice is thin the prudent people take it slow
