

I am not one of you

I am not one of you

By : Psychosis The Tormented

I have no description for this, its just pain .

I am not one of you

I am not one of you

I am a demon

And you can clearly see by my face the hell where I come from is and awful ,wretched place

I've seen things that would sicken you

I've been tortured beyond pain and not allowed to sob or cry though it wouldn't it just be life force wasted in vain

I am some sort of creature who truly does despise you

I hate the fact that you can be happy , feel love, and be free while the evils of this world cling to me

I really don't hate you

Its just this torture in my life never ends

no matter what I do

I am a vile animal on the verge of death people are anticipating my last breath

won't they be disappointed when they find no money I have left

I am in eternity

and yes, hell is just as bad as they say

I am not one of you

I am not one of you

its so hot and miserable you wanna fall to you knees and scream

"God why when I had the chance, why didn't I pray !"

I don't because to me this is nothing new this hell is just a might hotter than i am used too and while demons slide around and try to do their best to make my experience more miserable the all the rest

I laugh at their efforts their failing the test

There is no punishment more,degrading, painful , and torturous they can do than putting an entity on this Earth who is not like you

I am not one of you

I am not one of you
