Something wrong Something right

Something wrong Something right

Something wrong, Something right

Nothing can always be right
Itâs a complete circle
With half negative, and half positively right

Its God gifted life
One half down their shoulder, where other half fight

Like, dislike
Negative, positive
Wrong, right
Merit, demerit
Up and down
Day and night
An average wrong, average right

Is this poetry always be right
Some like and some dislike
The simple thing isâ !
May some part wrong of it
And other half may right

Today, itâs Rain Shower here
My soul felt something heavy, something light
Half people say, itâs good for weather and agriculture
Other half say
By this, now mosquito will bite

So, now what should do?
Donât be worrying
Letâs enjoy it
Whereas our heart, pumping bright

Itâs a part of life, because.... always
Something wrong, Something right

Something wrong Something right

Something wrong Something right
