Death Within Words--Quin Marie

Tears combine
With the blood
That slowly rains
From above

Children's cries
Reign aloud
Screams arise
From the crowd

People Scream
People cry
People love
People die

Death calls
To us all
And we fight
An enormous brawl

Fire rains
From the sky
People love
And people die

No one knows
The pain we face
All we've hid
Not a trace

I stop and try
To catch my breath
But it's too late
I've caught my death

Either the fires will rise
From below
Or light will shine
From Heaven to show

No perfection
Fiery show
See the creatures
From the world I know
