Stream Song

Listen to the creeks and streams as the current plays a pretty melody.

Stream Song

Water running,
in a steady stream,
flowing over polished Arkansas stones.

The Ozark Mountain stream so old,
the waters are so cold,
and thy endless flow,
that's steady and unwavering.

A rock falls in,
its journey begins,

Stream Song

then calmly downstream it's washed.

As the rules do abide,

the ripples do collide,

and play a pretty attuned song.
