You are like...

You are like...

You are like...

The sunny sun to a blue sky,
Dripping with warmth,
And spreading light
Towards the far ends of the world,
Along with mine.

You are like...

That odd-one-out bunny,
Hopping around,
And making everyone smile
To every spot of place you can reach,
Along with my mind.

You are like,

That random spot of painted color on a white canvas,
Standing out, looking genius
And raising one's eyebrows in awe,
Along with the corner of lips,
Just as mine does when ever I hear from you.

You are like...

You are like...

You are like...

You are like...

You are like...
