end of darkness

I am running through the Milky Way, with love and hope perches into the soul, dancing cloud flash the glee, the peacock biding, rain could be-

me for love love for mine-

Souls are jocund company while triumph of birds twilight on face antecedents shine of love, vitreous of luster on a crystal as diamond, the dark of the darkness beget the diamond

Dark defuses and alchemize the black-grinned, caliginous to illumine as a small table lamp glimmer glee with the end of darkness.

I could hear babies cackling in the next room.
