

He's no longer in my heart....

He's no longer in my heart....

I don't think I got this one right.... It doesn't feel right to me. I don't think I like the last line but if you read this go ahead and leave comments if you have a better line:)

He's no longer in my heart....

He's no longer in my heart....

I scream

But no is there to hear.

I shiver

But I know there is nothing to fear

I cry

and agonize about how I got here

I breathe

Confused and surprised about my sudden cheer

I smile

because I remember him here

Then my heart breaks

because I no longer feel his presence near....

He's no longer in my heart....

He's no longer in my heart....
