

As Your Friend

As Your Friend

By : Stormbird Throneshaker

Written 04/17/1996

Published on Booksie

booksie.com/Stormbird Throneshaker

Copyright © Stormbird Throneshaker, 2015
Publish your writing on Booksie.com.

As Your Friend

I wish that you thought, a little more about yourself

Just like I do, to save your soul from hell

And as your friend, I think you should know

That life's so short, near the end of the road

Oh you live your life, and you get your kicks

But getting older, you may regret things you did

But as your friend, I try to help you out

Oh there's times I wonder, what we're all about

There are things I would share with you

To lift you up, when your feeling blue

And as your friend, I want you to succeed

To be somebody better, with or without me

I'm telling you now, that I'm not perfect

I'm more like a puzzle, all the pieces won't fit

But as your friend, this much is true

If I wasn't, I wouldn't care about you

I wish that you thought, a little more about yourself

Just like I do, to save your soul from hell

And as your friend, I think you should know

That life's so short, at the end of the road

As Your Friend

As Your Friend

Created from Booksie.com

Generated: 2015-01-27 11:59:17