From Broken Glass To Crystal Rose

Your so pretty standing there but will it last

And the people only stare

why I'm Broken Glass

While so different than me that I don't know

Your what the people see

you're a Crystal Rose

No one seems to care

and the people only pass

It just isn't fair

said Broken Glass

They're sweeping you up

why I don't know

A man got cut

screamed Crystal Rose

I'm so hot it hurts

they're framing my a . .

They're taking me to church

screamed Broken Glass
