If Your Heart Ever Roams

What you keep coming around for if you don't want me for your own If you love somebody else more Then you don't want to ever come home
Never come home
if your heart ever roams
Don't you ever come home
if your heart ever roams
Really wish that you would stay
No I don't want you to go away Know that I may die alone
Cause you don't want to ever come home
Never come home
if your heart ever roams
Don't you ever come home
if your heart ever roams
Just can't believe that it's true
That you left me standing here all alone
You know that it's making me blue
Cause you don't want to ever come home
Never come home
if your heart ever roams
Don't you ever come home
if your heart ever roams
