like a sister :(

like a sister :(

If I had your soul

If I had your heart,

Today id tell you I love you

Tomorrow would be the start

I would cup your skin in my hands,

Iâ d take you on a ride

Through a time where life begins

Than cross the other side.

Id share you only with my soul,

The rest would go away

But most important youâ d be in my arms

For ever more to stay

Id brush your hair along my lips,

I'd hold you close to heart.

But all you see in me right now

Is a sister?

Not a heart.
