We'll Never Remember / The Last Goodbye

I sure have loved the time I've spent with you
You tell me that you feel the same way too
Now we have to part, for where we do not know
This may be the last time we see each other when we go
Goodbyes are so hard to say
The words are there but it's just finding the way
Can you feel them as I do, by the tears that we cry
Knowing that it's so hard to say goodbye
It seemed like yesterday when we first met
Why should tomorrow even be here yet
Time has a way of passing by when having fun
And our day is nearly over, see the setting of the sun
One of these mornings we shall meet at the gate
If your there before me, I hope you stop to wait
We can share heaven together with Christ Jesus at our side
And we'll never remember when we ever said goodbye
