Chapter 1: Falling in Love with an Angel

i½

Chapter 1

It was the first day of school. The summer had just ended and Elizabeth was starting sophomore year of high school. She lived in a small town outside of New York City. The town was so small that it wasn't on the map, and most people didn't even know it was there, unless they drove through it. The town was called: Brownsville.

Elizabeth had lived in Brownsville all of her life with her parents. Her parents were married till the age of five, when they had gotten a divorce. She now lives with her mom in a two bedroom house, since her father was a drunk, and wasn't capable of watching her. She would see her father on weekends, with supervised visits. Which reminds her that this weekend was her time to see her dad.

Elizabeth always hated going to see her dad. Not because he was a drunk and she hated him, in fact, she loved her father in spite of the addiction. She hated to and see her father, because she never had enough time, and she wasn't allowed to spend a weekend with him. 'Don't forget what this weekend is,' said Elizabeth's mom as she pulled up in front of the school and parked.

'I know...I get to see dad this weekend,' said Elizabeth, as she opened the door of her mother's black Escalade.

'Yes, so don't make any plans, and I want to talk about your birthday that's coming up soon,' smiled her mother. Elizabeth's mom had the prettiest smile and white teeth. She also had long brown hair to her shoulders, blue eyes, and was skinny.

'Ok mom, but it's not for a while yet,' said Elizabeth. The kids were getting out of their cars and buses, and walking into the school.

'I know, but I have a big party planned since your turning sixteen this year,' explained her mother.

'Yeah, ok,' said Elizabeth before telling her mom goodbye, and getting out of the car, and walking into the school.

The school was two stories high, and brown and white. The school was called Peace. Yeah, Elizabeth thought that it was kind of a weird name for a school, but that's what it was called. As she walked up the stairs to the second floor, because she is a sophomore and tenth through twelfth are on the top floor, while seventh through ninth are on the bottom.

As Elizabeth walked up the stairs to find her locker; she thought about what her mother had said about her birthday. She would be sixteen this year, but she wasn't as excited as most girls were. Maybe it was because she always felt alone all of her life, and didn't have everything that she was hoping she had, like a boyfriend.

All summer as she heard her friends talk about their boyfriends, and what they were going to do, she felt alone. She didn't have a boyfriend that she could go on dates with or hold hands or cuddle. She finally reached her locker, which was at the end of hall, and was number sixteen, how ironic. She thought as Michelle approached her locker. Elizabeth flung her purple book bag over her shoulder, as she leaned up against her locker. 'Did you hear the news?' asked Michelle with a smile and perkiness in her voice. Elizabeth hated how perky she was in the mornings.

'No, what?' asked Elizabeth tiredly.

'We got a new kid today, and I heard that he was gorgeous,' said Michelle happily as she twirled her curly blond hair.

'Oh year; where's he from?' asked Elizabeth not caring, because she was too tired. She did not want to get used to getting up early.

'From the states, but I heard that he was a bad boy,' said Michelle quietly, so Elizabeth could just hear. Great...a new kid who's going to cause trouble, she thought to herself. 'Anyway, what's your schedule? I have reading first period,' she said as she was looking down at her schedule as she held it with both hands. Elizabeth pulled her schedule that she had folded up, out of her jeans shorts. She heard that it was going to be hot today, so she decided to wear shorts, a white tank top, and sandals. She unfolded the paper to read her schedule.

'Yes, I have reading to,' said Elizabeth. She smiled, because she knew that one of her friends were in her class.

'Oh goody,' said Michelle excitedly as she smiled. 'Oooh, maybe the new kid will be in our first class.' Elizabeth didn't get a chance to talk, because of the bell ringing and they didn't want to be late on the first day.

2

As they entered the first period class; all the kids had already picked their seats all but three, which were in the back. Before sitting down, the teacher handed them their books that they were starting with. As Elizabeth took her book, she noticed that her teacher was a little old with grey hair, wore glasses, and had on tan pants, and a nice dress shirt with black dress shoes. 'Hi, I'm Mr. Knight, and I'm going to be your teacher for this year,' he explained to the both of them. 'This is the book that we are reading first.' Elizabeth and Michelle looked down at the book which was called 'Angels.' Elizabeth smiled as she looked at the title, because she was very interested in angels, and she thought this would be an easy read. In fact, all her life she had been fascinated by angels and where they came from, and what they were meant to do.

Mr. Knight showed them to the back of the room to their seats, and they sat down. Elizabeth looked to her right, and noticed the empty seat. She then felt Michelle poke her on the shoulder and she turned to her. 'Maybe it's the new kid,' she whispered hopefully.

'Maybe,' said Elizabeth on turning as she turned to face the front, as Mr. Knight wrote on the chalk board. As she waited for the teacher to begin; her mind went back to the new kid. If in fact he was in her class and where a bad boy; she would get nothing done, with the distractions. Mr. Knight finally began with the lecture.

'So, the first month or so, we are going to be learning about angels...' he pointed to the board '...and where they come from,' he began as there was a knock on the door.

He walked over and answered the door. Everyone watched as he nodded his head and mumbled. After five minutes; Mr. Knight ushered in the new guy. Just Elizabeth's luck! 'Everyone, I want you to meet Isaac,' said Mr. Knight. Everyone just stared at this strange new kid. All except for Elizabeth. She was leering at the new kid. For some reason, as she looked at him, she didn't feel alone. She felt whole, and she felt home. As Elizabeth looked at him; she noticed his gorgeous short brown hair, blue eyes, and he also had muscles that she could see through his shirt. She also seen that he was wearing blue jeans, and tennis shoes. He also had a heavenly glow about him, and Elizabeth couldn't take her eyes off of him. 'Isaac, here's your book that we're starting, and your seats back in the corner,' explained Mr. Knight as he pointed to the back corner.

'Okay,' said Isaac as he took the book and walked to his seat and sat down. Elizabeth followed his every move, and Mr. Knight had to call her name for her attention. She quickly turned to face the front, and Isaac smiled at her.

'Sorry,' said Elizabeth.

'Now, back to the story, where were we? Aww..yes, where do Angels come from?' asked Mr. Knight. No one raised their hands, so Elizabeth raised hers. 'Yes, Elizabeth.'

'They come from heaven, and they do God's work,' explained Elizabeth.

'Yes, something like that,' said Mr. Knight, as he sat down and opened his book. 'Alright, with that question in mind; let's open to chapter one to begin to read.'

Everyone opened their books as Elizabeth stared at Isaac. Why couldn't she keep her mind off of him? And why when he looked at him, that she felt safe and whole, and at home. She would definitely have to talk to him and get to know him. Michelle nudged Elizabeth, and she turned towards her.

'What?' asked Elizabeth.

'Stop staring,' replied Michelle as she smiled and whispered.

'I'm not staring,' replied Elizabeth as Mr. Knight called on a chubby looking kid that sat in front to read.

'Yes you are,' whispered Michelle, before she turned back to her book to follow along. Elizabeth looked at her book, but she just couldn't keep her eye's off of the new kid, and before she knew it, the bell had rung and everyone got up to leave.

Michelle walked over and nudged Elizabeth. 'Are you done staring now..because he left,' chuckled Michelle.

'Shut up,' said Elizabeth as she gathered her things and stood up.

'You want the new kid,' said Michelle as they walked out into the hall.

'I do not,' said Elizabeth thinking about Isaac.

'Yes you are...you kept staring at him all through class,' said Michelle as they reached Elizabeth's locker, so she could put her book in.

'I'm telling you...I do not like him, and I don't care about him,' said Elizabeth as she slammed her locker and leaned against it.

'Fine...look 'as Michelle pointed' there's Isaac,' said Michelle.

'Where?' asked Elizabeth as she quickly turned her head to see if he was there.

'Ha! Gotcha!' smiled and laughed Michelle.

'Shut up!' said Elizabeth. Just then the bell rang, and they rushed to their math class, which they had together.

Elizabeth could not keep her mind off of Isaac. She wanted to know more about him, and where he was from. She also wanted to be where he was all the time. Woah, she had never felt this way about anyone before. All she wanted was Isaac and to be with him. Before Elizabeth knew it; the bell had rung and everyone rushed out. Elizabeth was day dreaming when she bumped into someone. She looked up, and seen that it was Isaac. She was speechless, and didn't know what to say. 'Hi,' Isaac smiled at her. He had the nicest smile that Elizabeth loved.

'Umm..h..hi,' she finally gotten out.

'Elizabeth right?' asked Isaac.

'Y..yes,' she replied.

'Well, hopefully we get to see much of each other,' smiled Isaac before walking to his next door.

Elizabeth just stood there as he walked away. She didn't move or anything; she just stood there and thought about Isaac. The bell rang to go to next class, so she snapped out of it, and rushed to tell Michelle what just happened.½

Chapter 2

Chapter 2

'All you said to him was hi?' asked Michael as he checked his hair in the mirror that Michelle let him borrow. Michelle sat down next to him with her lunch. Ugh! It was sloppy joes today and Elizabeth hated sloppy joes. She didn't like any kind of messy foods, and sloppy joes were the worst for her.

'What are we talking about?' asked Michelle as she bit into her sloppy joe, and pieces fell on to her plate.

'She ran in to Isaac, the new kid, and all she said was hi,' explained Michael in his famine voice. If you didn't get it by now, Michael likes boys, and he had been friends with Elizabeth and Michelle since kindergarten.

'What? You ran into Isaac? How'd this happen?' asked Michelle quickly and excitedly.

'It was when I was walking to second period and I was day dreaming, and I bumped into him,' explained Elizabeth as she ate her salad.

'And all you said was hi?' asked Michelle.

'That's what I asked,' said Michael quickly. He was also eating a sloppy joe.

'I was caught off guard. ...and he knew my name which was really weird,' said Elizabeth as she played with her food.

'I would be happy if a guy like that would know my name,' said Michael as he was staring at something.

'What are you staring at?' asked Elizabeth.

'At the new kid that just walked in,' replied Michael as he had to fan himself to get cooled down. Elizabeth quickly turned around to see Isaac getting his lunch. She also noticed that the other girls were looking at him as he walked by.

'Isaac reached Elizabeth's table as they stared at him and had their mouths opened. 'Is this seat taken?' asked Isaac as he smiled his gorgeous smile and had the prettiest green eyes.

'Ummâ 'no, you can sit down,' Elizabeth managed to say. When Isaac sat down everything seemed to go back to normal. Everyone was eating their lunch and talking like nothing happened.

'So, Isaac is it?' asked Michael.

'Yup,' replied Isaac. 'I got the hamburger, because I don't like sloppy joes,' he explained before taking a bite and the three of them gasped. 'What?'

'Well, Elizabeth doesn't like sloppy joes either,' replied Michelle.

'Really?' Isaac smiled at her.

'Ummâ 'yes, there too messy,' replied Elizabeth.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Well; that's something we have in common,' said Isaac as he scarfed down the rest of the hamburger.

'Wowâ you must be really hungry, because you ate that in like five minutes,' explained Michael.

'Yeah, flying always makes me hungry,' Isaac said as he wiped his mouth.

'Hey guys,' said John when he sat down beside Michelle. John was Michelle's boyfriend. They started dating when school was almost over last year. John was a year older than Michelle, had short blond hair and blue eyes. He was also on the football team, so he had muscles, but he was a nice kid for a jock. As Elizabeth played with her salad and looked at the both of them, she thought to herself that they would have very blond haired children, and she gave a little chuckle, followed by Isaac.

'What's funny?' Elizabeth asked Isaac confusedly. Had he heard what she was thinking?

'Nothing,' replied Isaac.

'So, are we still on for Friday?' asked John to Michelle.

'Oh yeah,' replied Michelle.

'What's Friday?' asked Elizabeth suspiciously.

'Oh, we're going on a date, and John has a friend for you,' replied Michelle. Elizabeth looked up from her plate and stepped playing with her salad. Isaac looked up as well.

'A friend?' asked Elizabeth.

'Yeah, he's on the football team,' replied John.

'Oh, I can't this weekend. It's my weekend to see my dad,' said Elizabeth.

'Well, may be some other time,' said Michelle a little disappointed.

'Yeah,' said Elizabeth. Every time she thought about her parents, it made her sad. It made her sad because she wanted them to be back together, so that way she would have a family again, and wouldn't have to save dates to see her dad. Elizabeth couldn't hold in the tears anymore, so she got up and rushed to the bathroom.

'What's the matter with her?' asked John.

'Her parents are divorced, so now she has to make plans to see her dad on the weekends, and they have to be supervised visits,' explained Michelle.

'Oh, I didn't know,' said John.

'It's alright,' said Michelle feeling good about Elizabeth.

2

Elizabeth had spent the whole lunch period in the bathroom crying. She was looking in the mirror with wet eyes, when the bell rang. She hurried, wiped her eyes with her hands, and rushed out. As she rushed out; she bumped into Isaac again. 'Hey, could you be more courteous next time,' smiled Isaac.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Oh, sorry,' said Elizabeth as she still wiped her eyes off. Isaac noticed that she had been crying.

'Are you alright?' asked Isaac.

'Yeah, I'm fine, but late for gym,' replied Elizabeth.

'Yeah, me to,' said Isaac. 'Why don't we walk there together?' he asked. Elizabeth looked at him before speaking. She can't believe that this new kid was being so nice to her. But she wanted to be near him; she felt a connection with him and she wanted to know if he felt one with her to.

'Sure,' she smiled back.

'Okay,' said Isaac as they began to walk slowly.

'So, where are you from?' asked Elizabeth after five minutes of quiet.

'Ohâ 'Nevaeh,' replied Isaac.

'Ne..Nevaeh,' Elizabeth tried to say, but couldn't. Isaac laughed at her trying to pronounce the name.

'Yeah, it's hard for some people to pronounce,' he smiled.

'Where is that, anyway?' asked Elizabeth.

'I'll show you when the time is right,' replied Isaac when they reached the gymnasium, and Michelle seen them. She ran over and drug Elizabeth by the arm.

'Come on; the gym teacher is already upset with you,' said Michelle as she drug Elizabeth into the gymnasium.

Elizabeth didn't care about nothing else, but just thought about what Isaac just told her. 'I'll show you when the time is right,' what is that suppose to mean she thought. And Nevaeh, where was that anyways? She never heard of that before; she would have to Google it after school.

'Ms. Elizabeth Porterâ 'may I ask why you where late?' the gym teacher asked. As Elizabeth looked up at the gym teacher, she noticed that he was bald, had some muscle and must have been in his early forties. She didn't think he was that cute.

'Umm..Iâ 'I got lost,' Elizabeth managed to say. Michelle let out a little chuckle before Elizabeth gave her a slap on the shoulder to get her to stop.

'Okay, this is going to be a lazy day, since it's the first day of school. And Ms. Elizabeth and Isaac; I'll let you slide today being late, but tomorrow it counts against you,' explained the gym teacher. Both Isaac and Elizabeth shook their head, showing that they understood him. Isaac was sitting next to Elizabeth.

After the gym teacher did his role call, he left everyone talk. 'So, you and Isaac are getting pretty close,' whispered Michelle.

'No; we were just talking,' said Elizabeth.

'Elizabeth, that's how it starts,' smiled Michelle.

As Elizabeth looked over at Isaac, she had seen him writing something. She couldn't see what he was writing, and Michelle nudged her in the arm. 'Ouch! Would you quit it,' said Elizabeth as she held her arm.

'Your staring again,' whispered Michelle.

'So, what if I was staring; Michelle, I'm going to be sixteen soon, and I have yet to have a boyfriend,' explained Elizabeth.

'But, what about that kid that you were hanging out with this summer? What's his name?' Michelle asked.

'Whoâ Ryan? He was just a friend, nothing serious,' said Elizabeth. Ryan and Elizabeth had been friends since he moved here in the middle of summer. And she was telling nothing serious, just friends, because it seemed like every time she turned around, he had a new girl on his arm.

'Well; I just hope it works out for you and Isaac, because he seems like a nice guy,' said Michelle as she sat Indian style on the floor.

'So, where is John taking you Friday?' asked Elizabeth trying to change the subject.

'Oh, no where special, just a movie and probably dinner afterwards,' replied Michelle.

'I see that it's getting kind of serious,' said Elizabeth.

'Serious, come on Elizabeth, we're only in tenth grade. I think I'm a little too young for serious,' chuckled Michelle.

'Yeah, I guess so,' said Elizabeth.

Just then, the bell rang for them to go to their last period classes. Everyone filed out, leaving Isaac and Elizabeth to be the last ones. 'So, what's your last class?' asked Isaac.

'Oh..um, writing,' replied Elizabeth.

'Aww,' said Isaac sounding a little disappointed. 'I was hoping to have all classes with you, but I have Chemistry this period.'

'Oh well; I'll see you tomorrow then?' Elizabeth asked with a little bit of hope in her voice.

'Most definitely,' smiled Isaac.

After saying their goodbyes, they went their separate ways. Elizabeth couldn't wait until tomorrow so she could see Isaac again. So she just walked to her writing class, and thought about Isaac the whole time there.

3

When Elizabeth's mom picked her up from school, all she could think about was Isaac. All she could think about was his nice smile, nice body, nice hair, and the fact that he was being nice to her. 'How was school?' Elizabeth's mom as she drove down the road.

'It was good,' smiled Elizabeth.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'That's good,' said her mom. The rest of the car ride was quiet.

'Hey mom, I'm going to go for a walk before doing homework,' said Elizabeth as she climbed out of the car.

'That's fine, just be home in time to do your homework,' said Elizabeth's mother when she got out of the car, and locked it.

'Okay,' said Elizabeth. She handed her purpled book bag to her mom, but not before pulling her notebook and a pen from it. Elizabeth had to think about Isaac and more importantly, think about the place where he said that he was from.

About ten minutes from her house, there was a little river that she found to sit at. It was back in the woods, and away from everyone, so she could have some quiet to write. Elizabeth loved to write stories. Whenever she had to think or calm down from a fight, she would write and it would calm her down. When she found her big flat rock that she sat at; Elizabeth sat down, opened her notebook and began to write. She would write whenever came to her mind, so she started to write about Isaac. She wrote about how great he was and how cute he looked. Then, she wrote down the place that he was from. 'Nevaeh' she wrote down.

After writing the word down, she tapped her notebook with her pen, as she looked out towards the river. 'Naveah,' she said out loud to the river. 'It has to mean something, but what?' she asked herself as she looked back down at the word.

As she sat there staring at the word and what it could mean, suddenly, everything went black and she passed out. When Elizabeth awoke after passing out, she remembered opening her eyes and seeing Isaac's face as he helped her up. 'Isaac,' she said before she passed out again.

Chapter 3

Chapter 3

As Elizabeth woke up; everything was blurry at first. When she could finally see, she had seen that she was lying in her bed, with her mom and Isaac standing beside her. 'Ugh! What happened?' asked Elizabeth as she held her head and sat up.

'You had one of your dizzy spells again,' replied her mother looking concerned.

'Whatâ 'dizzy spell?' asked Elizabeth a little confused. Elizabeth's mom took the wet cloth from Elizabeth's forehead, and dipped it in a bowl of warm water, that was sitting on the nightstand beside Elizabeth's bed. She then rang the towel out, and put it back on Elizabeth's forehead and made her hold it on.

'Yes, remember when you were little and you always had dizzy spells for no apparent reason; I thought you grew out of them, but I guess I was wrong,' explained her mother.

'Oh,' Elizabeth said as she turned to look at Isaac. As Elizabeth looked at Isaac; she began to remember where she was before anything happened. She remembered being on her favorite rock, and thinking about Isaac and where he came from, but she was alone. She knew that she was alone, because Isaac didn't know where her favorite spot was. 'How did you find me?' she asked Isaac as she held the rag on her head.

'What do you mean?' asked Isaac.

'I mean; how did you find me? Before passing out; I remember being at the river and writing, but I know that I was alone, so how'd you find me?' Elizabeth asked again.

'Elizabeth, you must of hit your head pretty hard, because I met you at the rock,' smiled Isaac.

'No, you didn't!' Elizabeth replied.

'Honey, you must have really hit your head. Why don't you lie down and rest. And I'll call the school tomorrow and tell them what happened,' explained her mother as she laid Elizabeth down.

Isaac and her mom walked out and closed the door, leaving Elizabeth by herself. Why does Isaac not believe her? He knows that he wasn't at the rock when she was there. And dizzy spells? She only remembered having that one when she was little, but not anymore. Elizabeth stared at the ceiling till her thoughts stopped and she fell asleep, again.

2

'This is happening all too soon,' said the young kid as he paced around looking angry. As Elizabeth came to, she noticed that the young kid as Isaac. Isaac? Why does he seem to be everywhere that she was, lately? She thought to herself. Isaac seemed to be talking to another kid sitting on a bench. When Elizabeth looked at him; she noticed exactly who it was. Ryan? How does he know who Isaac is? As Elizabeth looked harder at Ryan, she noticed that something was sticking out of his back, but it was too bright to see what.

'Isaac, just calm down,' said Ryan as he motioned with his hands.

'Calm down! How can I calm down in a situation like this?' asked Isaac angrily.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Isaac, what are you talking about?' asked Elizabeth, but Isaac didn't answer her. In fact, they didn't even here her or notice that she was standing there.

'Don't worry; we will stop them, before they can hurt her,' said Ryan.

'I don't know; I already had to lie to her mother and tell her that she had a dizzy spell, but what if it happens again? And how can I tell her that it wasn't a dizzy spell, that it was my brother and he shot her with a fire arrow,' Isaac explained angrily.

'Dude, calm down, you see that everything will work out, and you two will be together,' said Ryan.

Just then, everything went blurry, and Elizabeth woke up. When she woke up, she sat up, and just thought about the dream that she had. How does Isaac know Ryan? Ryan moved here before Isaac did. And what does Isaac's brother have to do with my dizzy spells? And what the heck is a fire arrow? She had to ask Isaac these questions when she sees him again. She has to have answers.

Elizabeth heard pots and pans clanging together in the kitchen, so she quickly flung her purple cover off and walked out. When she entered the kitchen, she saw the blue round clock on the wall, and it read five-thirty p.m. Wow! She almost slept the whole day away. It would be getting dark soon. 'Where'd Isaac go?' asked Elizabeth still a little tired as she sat down at the table.

'Oh, he went home for the night. He wanted to stay until you woke up again, but I told him you would be fine,' explained her mom as she was making dinner.

'Alright, I'll just have to tell him thank you when I see him tomorrow,' said Elizabeth as she watched her mother.

'So, he seems like a really nice guy, and he's really into you,' smiled her mother when she sat down. She was letting the noodles cook for her spaghetti.

'Yeah, he's really nice,' replied Elizabeth without an expression. All she could think about was the dream that she had. Elizabeth's mom was going to say something, but the noodles were starting to boil over, and she had to stop them.

Then Elizabeth thought she would ask him tomorrow about the dream she had and the questions that she wanted answered. The truth is, she really liked Isaac, but there was just too much that she knew he wasn't telling, and she didn't want to tell him. Elizabeth's mother served the dinner and they ate in silence.

As Elizabeth was lying in bed thinking about everything that happened that day, her phone went off. She picked it up from the night stand and saw a text message from Ryan. 'Are you okay? I heard about your dizzy spell today,' Ryan wrote to her.

'Wait! How'd you hear about it already?' Elizabeth wrote back to him. It took a couple of minutes for Ryan to write back.

'Isaac told me about it,' Ryan replied back.

'And how do you know Isaac?' she asked him.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'We are friends, because he moved into my neighborhood beside me,' Ryan replied back.

'Oh, okay, yeah I guess I had a dizzy spell, but the thing is that I was by myself, and no one knew where I was, so how did he find me?' Elizabeth wrote him back.

'Hmmâ 'don't know, maybe he was walking by,' said Ryan.

'Idk..it seems weird, I'll ask him tomorrow, because I have a couple of questions to ask him anyways,' replied Elizabeth.

'Okay, but Elizabeth, I have a very important question to ask you tomorrow to. Could you meet me after school, at the rock?' asked Ryan.

Elizabeth got very nervous when he asked her this question. And why would he have an important question to ask her? 'Sure,' she replied back, not knowing why she cared.

'Okay, goodâ 'meet me about four o'clock? On the rock?' asked Ryan.

'Okay, sounds good,' replied Elizabeth.

'Alright, sweet dreams, and see you tomorrow J,' said Ryan.

'Alright,' said Elizabeth. She laid her cell phone back down, and turned on her side. What was the important question that he wanted to ask her? She thought as her eyes blinked a couple of times, before she fell asleep.

The next morning when she woke up, and turned her alarm off, she had all the questions that she wanted to ask Isaac floating around in her head. So she flung her covers off and rushed to get dressed.

Elizabeth's mom was going to call in sick for her, but Elizabeth didn't want to stay home. Not with what was going on with Isaac. It was going to be another hot day, so she put on a pair of jean shorts, sandals, and a tank top. She put her hair up in a ponytail today, and did her make-up, before getting her things, and rushing down stairs. 'Are you sure that you are feeling alright? I can still call the school,' said her mom as she opened the door.

'Don't worry, I'll be fine,' said Elizabeth.

'Okay,' said her mother as they both walked out, so her mom could take Elizabeth to school.

As they arrived at the school; Elizabeth noticed Ryan standing by the school door talking to some of his friends. Ryan wasn't on the football team, but he looked like he should be. 'Okay, I'll pick you up later,' smiled her mom as Elizabeth crawled out of the car. When Elizabeth closed the door, she had seen Ryan walking towards her.

'Hey,' said Elizabeth.

'Are we still on for tonight?' asked Ryan with a little smile. Elizabeth remembered the conversation that they had last night.

'Yeah, but what's it about?' asked Elizabeth curiously and sounding a little nervous.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Oh, you'll have to wait and see,' smiled Ryan. Just then, the bell rang, and they had to hurry to get their things for first period.

When Elizabeth sat down in her seat, she waited to see if Isaac would come in, but the last warning bell rang, and no Isaac. Elizabeth then began to get worried; since she didn't see Isaac show up. Michelle nudged Elizabeth on the shoulder before the teacher began. 'No Isaac,' said Michelle. Elizabeth just shook her head no. Why wouldn't he be in school today, since she seen him yesterday, and he was fine.

'Okay, let's continue with our Angels book. We're half way through the first chapter called 'Where Do Angels Come From.' What have we learned so far?' asked the teacher as he scanned the room for volunteers. Elizabeth was too busy to pay attention, because she was staring at Isaacs's desk, and wondering why he wasn't there. 'Elizabeth? Elizabeth?' asked Mr. Knight.

'Ohâ 'yes,' said Elizabeth jumping to pay attention.

'Can you tell us what we have learned so far?' asked Mr. Knight.

'Awww,' began Elizabeth as she looked around the room at everyone staring at her. 'Well, we've learned so far, that Angels do God's work, and they are around us all the time to guide us and protect us from harm,' she explained.

'Excellentâ 'good to know that you are paying attention,' the teacher smiled. He then picked on someone to read, as Elizabeth began to think about Isaac again.

The whole day while at school, Elizabeth was distracted. She wondered the whole day, why Isaac didn't show up for school. Then she started blaming herself. Did she have something that caused him to stay home from school? Maybe he got hurt trying to save her yesterday, but didn't show t till he left.

Before Elizabeth knew it; she was waiting for Ryan at her rock, as she wrote. She was writing about Isaac and the first day they met at school. Elizabeth went to turn the page, when she heard someone walk up behind her. She turned around startled, till she seen that it was Ryan. 'Oh just you,' said Elizabeth relieved as she caught her breath.

'Yeah, sorry to startle you,' said Ryan as Elizabeth closed her notebook and stood up.

'No, you didn't startle me, just caught me off guard,' said Elizabeth. There was silence for a few minutes. 'So, what was so important?' she asked him.

'Oh, I've been thinking a lot lately, and we had so much fun over the summer, and I've missed hanging out with you, and I just missed being with you,' Ryan explained. Elizabeth knew where this was going, so she swallowed nervously. 'So, I was wondering, if you would be my girlfriend?' he asked her nervously.

There you have it chapter 3: What do you think that Elizabeth is going to say?

Chapter 4

Chapter 4

'Ummâ 'Ryan, I like someone else,' replied Elizabeth gently. Ryan looked at Elizabeth, and she could tell that he was a little disappointed and angry with her.

'Is it Isaac?' Ryan asked angrily. Elizabeth put her head down before answering.

'Yes, I'm afraid it is,' replied Elizabeth.

'Ugh! I should have known! Why do you like him anyways?' asked Ryan curiously.

'Because, he's sweet and he's nice and I don't see him with a different girl all the time,' Elizabeth explained.

'Elizabeth, those girls where nothing compared to you; when we quit hanging out, I was very alone and felt very disappointed because I couldn't see you no more,' Ryan explained.

'Ryan, I didn't want to stop hanging out with you, but it seemed that you never wanted to hang with me, because you were always going on dates,' she explained to him.

'I'm sorry about that,' said Ryan. There was a short pause.

'Why don't we just be friends?' asked Elizabeth hopefully.

'Yeah, sureâ 'friends,' replied Ryan as he sat down on the rock. Elizabeth rolled her eyes as she sat down beside him. 'So, you like Isaac, huh?' he smiled at her. Elizabeth gave a little chuckle and a smile.

'Yes, the first time that I ran into him at school, it was like love at first sight,' said Elizabeth. She looked out towards the river before continuing. 'But there's something weird about him, but it's a good kind of weird.'

'What do you mean?' Ryan asked.

'Well, when I asked him where he was from, he told me that he was from Nevaeh, I never heard of that place before,' replied Elizabeth.

'Did you search the name?' asked Ryan.

'No, I haven't had the time,' replied Elizabeth. There was another short pause, as Elizabeth thought about Isaac and what he was doing right now. Just then, Ryan's phone went off, and he got it out from his jean's pocket and seen that it was a text from Isaac.

'Oh, it's Isaac,' said Ryan as he read the text.

'Huh?' asked Elizabeth taken aback. She thought that it was really weird, because she was just thinking about him.

'He wants to know if I want to hang out with him,' replied Ryan.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Sure, tell him to meet us at the rock,' said Elizabeth quickly. Ryan texted him the answer; his phone went off a few seconds later.

'He'll be here in ten minutes,' said Ryan as he put his phone away after reading the text.

Elizabeth was writing in her journal about the things that had been happening to her, and Ryan was playing with his phone when Isaac snuck up behind them. 'Hey guys,' said Isaac. They both jumped, but Ryan was the only one to yell. The other two just looked at him and laughed.

'Shut up! It just took me off guard,' said Ryan as he playfully pushed Elizabeth. Elizabeth turned to Isaac.

'Hey,' she smiled. He also returned the favor. As Ryan watched the two of them, he decided to leave them alone so they could talk.

'Well, I'm going to go. It's too lovey dovey here for me,' said Ryan as he jumped up from the rock.

'You don't have to go,' said Elizabeth.

'No, I do, and I have some studying to do anyways,' explained Ryan as he put his hands in his pockets.

'Alright, I'll see you later, I guess,' said Isaac.

'Yeah sure,' said Ryan before saying goodbye and leaving.

When Ryan was out of sight; Isaac sat down beside Elizabeth. 'So, this is your favorite spot?' asked Isaac as he leaned back on his hands and took in the beautiful surroundings.

'Yup,' replied Elizabeth as she looked out onto the river.

'Well, I'll have to come here more often, because it's so quiet here and very secluded,' explained Isaac. It was quiet for a few moments as Elizabeth thought about when she had her dizzy spell, and passed out, but not before seeing Isaac's face. She wanted to know how he knew she was there, because she didn't tell him about her secret place yet.

'Isaac, I was wonderingâ how'd you know that I was here, when I had my dizzy spell?' Elizabeth asked as she played with her notebook, and looked at it. There was silence for a few minutes. Elizabeth thought he must be trying to find a way to explain, when she heard some low mumbling. She looked, but couldn't understand where the mumbling was coming from. She also couldn't make it out, because it was too low. She finally turned and looked at Isaac, but he wasn't saying a word. But where was it coming from? Isaac must of seen the scared look on her face, because his face got worried to.

'What's the matter?' Isaac asked as he quickly sat up. Elizabeth didn't want to tell him that she was hearing voices, because she didn't want him to think she was crazy. Anyways, the voices stopped, and she didn't hear them anymore, which made her feel relieved.

'Nothing,' replied Elizabeth as she shook it off. 'So, are you going to answer my question?' she asked him.

'Okâ um,' began Isaac, but stopped. As the silence began again, Elizabeth could hear the mumbling.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Where is that coming from?' asked Elizabeth as she frankly looked around. Isaac looked at her confusedly.

'What?' he asked.

'The voices,' replied Elizabeth. 'You don't hear that mumbling?' Isaac shook his head and just looked at her. 'Well, I did, but now it's gone.'

'Hmm.. don't know what it could have been,' said Isaac.

'Don't know either, but it's the first time I've ever heard it before,' said Elizabeth.

'I still like you, even know you hear voices,' chuckled Isaac as he gently patted Elizabeth on the shoulder.

'Shut up!' smiled Elizabeth.

'So, what were you and Ryan talking about?' asked Isaac being all serious now.

'Oh, I don't know if I should tell you, since you two are friends,' replied Elizabeth.

'Why? What happened?' asked Isaac concernedly.

'Oh, nothing badâ he just asked me if I would be his girlfriend, and I said no,' replied Elizabeth as she chuckled when she told Isaac.

'Oh really?' asked Isaac. Isaac was thinking about what Ryan was up to, because he knows that Isaac is supposed to be with Elizabeth, not the other way around.

'Yeah, I told him that I liked someone else,' said Elizabeth as she played with her shoes. She likes someone else? Hopefully it was him, Isaac thought to himself.

'So, who do you like?' asked Isaac. Elizabeth dropped what she was doing and looked at Isaac. She cleared her throat nervously.

'Oh, this one kid who is really nice to me, and treats me like a person,' Elizabeth said as she couldn't stop smiling, because she was talking about Isaac. She stared deep into Isaac's green eyes. Without noticing a few minutes went by, and they were leaning closer to each other. Before they knew it, they were locked in a deep passionate kiss.

When Elizabeth kissed Isaac, she could of sworn that she heard angels sing. It was also her first kiss, and it was a good, no, awesome kiss, with a very awesome guy. 'Wow,' whispered Elizabeth after the kiss was over.

'Yeah,' said Isaac a loss for words.

'That was my first kiss,' said Elizabeth, not knowing why she told him that. A smile spread on Isaac's face.

'Well, I like it that you liked it then,' he smiled. Elizabeth chuckled at this.

'I think Ryan might be a little upset when he finds out,' said Elizabeth a little worried.

'Nah, he'll be fine,' said Isaac. He took Elizabeth's hands gently in his and looked her in the eyes. 'Did you hear the angels singing when we kissed?'

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Yes, I thought I was just hearing things again,' said Elizabeth excitedly.

'Nope,' said Isaac.

'So, where does this leave us?' asked Elizabeth. She couldn't quit smiling, because she knew by that kiss, that they would spend the rest of their lives with each other. Isaac smiled at her before talking.

'Well, I guess there's only one question left to ask,' he began. 'Elizabeth, will you be my girlfriend?'

Elizabeth smiled even bigger at this question. She couldn't believe this would happen. 'Yeess,' shrieked Elizabeth as she excitedly hugged Isaac and he hugged her back. They kissed again.

'Are you sure your ready for this?' asked Isaac. She looked Isaac right in the eyes before talking.

'Yes, Isaac I will go to the ends of the earth for you. I will even fight demons for you,' said Elizabeth.

'Okay, Okay,' smiled Isaac as he leaned in to kiss her again, but her cell phone from her pocket, and answered the ring. 'Hello?' she asked.

'DO YOU KNOW WHAT TIME IT IS?!' yelled Elizabeth's mother. Elizabeth had to hold the phone away from her ear. Isaac could hear every word her mom was saying.

'Calm down, mom. I'm at the rock, I'll be home in a few minutes,' said Elizabeth calmly.

'YOU BETTER AND WHEN YOU GET HOME, WE NEED TO TALK!' yelled Elizabeth's mom before hanging up the phone.

'I think she's mad,' said Isaac.

'Ey, she'll calm down,' said Elizabeth as she got up.

'Well, I'll walk you home,' said Isaac as he took Elizabeth's hand, and they walked toward her house.

There you have it chapter 4: Let me know what you guys think.

Chapter 5

Chapter 5

When they reached Elizabeth's house; her mom was furious and Elizabeth could tell by her facial expression. 'Where have you been?!' yelled Elizabeth's mom as she flung the door opened.

'I've been at the rock, with Isaac,' replied Elizabeth as she had her head down.

'I don't care where you where or who you where with! The problem is I was worried about you and didn't know what happened! Isaac, please go home, Elizabeth and I need to have a talk,' said her mom angrily as she crossed her arms. Elizabeth and Isaac turned to each other.

'I'll see you tomorrow,' smiled Isaac.

'Okay,' said Elizabeth. She smiled at him as they gave each other a quick peck on the lips. They said their goodbye's, before Elizabeth walked into the house, and her mom closed the door.

'Elizabeth, don't you know what time it is? It is almost nine p.m. and you have school tomorrow and probably homework to do. If this keeps continuing, then you won't be allowed to see Isaac again,' said her mom angrily. Elizabeth was sitting on the couch as her mom was standing up from her.

'Mom, you can't do that. I love him,' said Elizabeth disappointed at the fact that she might not be able to see Isaac anymore.

'You're too young to know what love is,' said her mother.

'You don't understandâ 'we love each other, and no one can keep us apart,' said Elizabeth. Elizabeth's mom sat down beside Elizabeth, and looked at her.

'No one is trying to keep you from him. I just need to know where you are, and when you are coming home. Anyways, you know what time you are suppose to be home on a school night, don't let this happen again,' threatened her mother.

'I won't mom, and I know that you're trying to protect me. I will make sure that I let you know next time,' said Elizabeth. Her mom smiled at her and gave her a hug.

'Do you have any homework?' asked her mom.

'Nope,' said Elizabeth. There was a moment of silence. 'Well, I'm going to shower, then head to bed.'

'Okay, I'll see you tomorrow,' said her mom.

'Okay,' said Elizabeth. She told her mom goodnight, then took a shower, and then crawled into bed. As she laid there; she thought about her amazing first kiss with Isaac, and how she heard Angels singing. She wanted to kiss him again, and she wanted to be wrapped in his warmth.

As Elizabeth laid there thinking about Isaac, her phone went off. She reached over and picked it up, and seen the number. She didn't recognize the number, but opened the next message anyways. The text message read: Hey, this is Isaac, I hope I didn't get you into too much trouble,' he wrote.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Nope not really! I just have to let my mom know where I am and be home by nine,' Elizabeth wrote back.

'Okay, coolâ I got your number from Ryan, I hope that's okay?' wrote Isaac.

'Yeah, that's fine,' began Elizabeth. As she sat there thinking about what to write back, she went back to her dream of Isaac and Ryan and the place where Isaac said he was from. She still had to ask him questions; because she still feels like there is a lot that he wasn't telling her. So, she began to write back. 'Isaac, I have a few questions I want to ask you, but it's going to have to wait till tomorrow. Can you meet me at the rock again, after school?' she asked.

'Yeah sure,' replied Isaac quickly.

'Okay, I'm going to bed, and I'll see you tomorrow,' said Elizabeth.

'Alright, sweet dreams,' said Isaac. Elizabeth closed her phone, and laid it back on the nightstand. She then curled up under the covers, and went to sleep, thinking of Isaac.

2

The next morning was the usual routine for Elizabeth. She got up, turned off the alarm, got dressed, and put on her make-up, and her mom drove her to school. 'So, see you after school?' asked her mom as she stopped by the sidewalk.

'Naw, Isaac and I are going to the rock after school,' replied Elizabeth.

'Okay, just be home before nine,' said her mom.

'Alright,' said Elizabeth before jumping out of the car. She noticed Isaac talking to Ryan right away. Elizabeth walked over and hugged him.

'So your mom is cool?' asked Isaac as he put his arm around Elizabeth's waist.

'Yes,' smiled Elizabeth. Elizabeth's friends quickly rushed over to see the new couple. 'Hey,' she said to Michael and Michelle.

'Hey,' they both smiled in unison.

'So, it's official..you two are dating?' asked Michelle as she smiled.

'Yes,' smiled Isaac. Elizabeth leaned her head on his shoulder.

'Awwe, its about time Elizabeth gets a boyfriend,' chuckled Michael as he nudged her on the shoulder.

'Yeah, now me and John have someone to go out with,' smiled Michelle excitedly.

As Elizabeth talked with her friends, they didn't notice that everyone was stopped and staring at something. Isaac grabbed Elizabeth's hand and pulled her beside him quickly. 'What?' asked Elizabeth as her friends stared at Isaac wondering what he was doing that for.

'I just don't trust the new guy,' replied Isaac.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'What new guy? I didn't know we were getting a new guy,' said Elizabeth as she searched around for him.

'Do you think?' asked Ryan silently to Isaac.

'I'm not sure yet, but we'll have to keep a close eye on him,' replied Isaac.

Elizabeth was too awestruck to even pay attention to what Ryan and Isaac were talking about. She was too busy staring at the new kid, and so were her friends. Elizabeth thought this new kid was gorgeous. He had to be at least six feet tall, short black hair, green eyes, had muscles, which Elizabeth could see coming out of his tight black shirt; he was wearing jeans and tennis shoes. He also had a nice tan to. Elizabeth couldn't keep her eyes off of him, and she had the same connection with him as she did Isaac. Isaac and Ryan noticed that all the girls were practically drooling over him, as their boyfriends tried to get their attention. 'It's him,' whispered Isaac.

'What do we do?' asked Ryan worriedly. Even though Elizabeth turned down his proposal, he still had a soft spot for her, and he wanted to protect her always.

'Nothing yet, we'll see if he does anything first. I don't want to start anything,' whispered Isaac as the new guy approached Elizabeth.

'Hey, I'm Raven, could you show me where the principal's office is,' he said to Elizabeth. She could barely talk because she was too awestruck. Instead of her talking, Isaac took her by the hand.

'Sorryâ this one is already taken,' said Isaac as he stood tall. Raven had to look down at Isaac.

'I'm sorry, but I don't see your name on her,' said Raven.

'Well, she's taken. Go find someone else, you devil,' said Ryan angrily. Raven just gave Ryan an evil smile, like he liked being called devil.

'Isaac it's fineâ I could show him around,' said Elizabeth finally.

'Elizabethâ I do-,' began Isaac.

'The lady has spoken, and I think she's allowed to whatever she wants,' said Raven. Raven ushered Elizabeth to walk in front of him, as he followed behind.

'I think we need a plan,' said Ryan as him and Isaac watched them walk into the school, followed by the other students.

3

'So where are you from?' asked Elizabeth as they walked the hallway.

'Oh, far away from here,' replied Raven. The second bell rang for everyone to be in their classroom, but Elizabeth didn't seem to notice; the hallways were suddenly all clear, and Raven and Elizabeth were alone. Raven stopped in the middle of the hallway, followed by Elizabeth. 'Can I just say, that you are the prettiest girl in the world,' smiled Raven. Elizabeth couldn't help but smile when he said this. She was never told this before.

'Please,' said Elizabeth like she didn't believe him.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'No, it's true. That other guy doesn't deserve you,' said Raven.

'And you do?' asked Elizabeth.

'Yes, I can treat you better than him. I will give you anything you want, and I will take you anywhere you want to go,' said Raven.

'I just met you,' said Elizabeth.

'But I was instantly drawn to you. Like we had a connection, didn't you feel it to?' asked Raven. Elizabeth did feel the instant connection with Raven.

'Yes, but I can't,' said Elizabeth.

'Why, because of that other boy? Elizabeth, he can't give you what you want. I can only give you what you want,' said Raven. He was trying really hard for Elizabeth to believe him. 'Just one kissâone kiss, and you'll forget all about that other guy,' said Raven as he leaned in closer to her lips. Elizabeth didn't think, she couldn't think. At that moment, all she was thinking about was Raven and how much she wanted him. Nothing matter to her in that moment. In that moment, she felt wanted and she didn't feel alone. She began to lean in to Raven, as he leaned in to her.

When they were about inches away from kissing, she heard a voice making her stop. 'Elizabeth, don't kiss don't kiss him!' yelled Isaac.

'Isaac..what are you doing here?' asked Elizabeth feeling a little confused.

'I'm here to save you,' said Isaac.

'Save me..From what?' asked Elizabeth. She was really confused now.

'From Ravenâmy brother,' said Isaac. Just then, Raven began to laugh evilly, and grab Elizabeth by the arm. Elizabeth looked at him and grew scared.

'You're stupid Isaac! All I need is for her to kiss me, and she'll forget all about you and fall in love with me!' yelled Raven.

'No, I will not let that happen,' said Isaac angrily. As Raven tried to make Elizabeth kiss him, Ryan flew right into him, knocking him to the floor, giving Isaac a chance to get Elizabeth. Before Isaac grabbed her, she seen Ryan's wings, and how strong he really was. She seen Ryan picking up Raven, slamming him into the lockers, making one fall down, and making a loud banging noise echoing down the hall.

Isaac drug Elizabeth quickly out of the school, as he let his wings out. 'I have to get you away from here,' yelled Isaac as he held Elizabeth close and flew her up towards the sky

Chapter 6

Chapter 6

As Elizabeth came to; she seen that she was lying in a bed, but what bed? It wasn't hers, because she had a purple comforter, and this one was red. When she wiped her eyes, and began to look around; she noticed that the house she was in, was a log cabin. It looked like it had been there for ages, but the cabin had plumbing and electricity.

Elizabeth slowly got up, and flung the cover over her. When she looked down; she had seen that she still had her clothes on. Well, that was a good thing, she thought to herself, as she stood up, and walked out into the living room. She looked around, and didn't see Isaac anywhere. As she looked through the whole cabin, which was only one floor; she figured out that she was alone. She also could tell that it was a new day, because the time on her cell phone read ten a.m. Wow! She slept the whole day and night last night. She heard the birds chirping outside, and decided to go on the deck.

When she reached the deck, there was a most beautiful view that she had ever seen. When she leaned on the railing, and looked outward, she had seen nothing but blue ocean and blue skies. Then she heard nothing. Nothing but the birds chirping as she took in the beautiful air and the smell of the fresh air.

Elizabeth then remembered what happened at school with Raven, and wondered if everyone was okay, especially her friends. She also thought about Isaac, and how he flew her away, so she was safe. What was Isaac and why could he fly? She wanted to ask him the questions that she had before, but he was nowhere to be seen. Where was he anyways? She thought to herself. Then she heard some wrestling going on in the kitchen. So, she hurried to see who it was.

As she arrived in the kitchen; she had seen her friends eating at the table. A big smile crossed her face. 'Hey guys,' Elizabeth smiled. Michelle dropped her piece of bread as she turned and seen Elizabeth. Michelle then got up, and ran over to hug her.

'I'm so glad you're alright,' said Michelle when she let go of her.

'Of course I'm alright,' said Elizabeth.

'They told us what happened to you yesterday,' said Michael from the table.

'I'm alrightâ Isaac was there,' said Elizabeth.

'Well, next time we'll be ready to take Isaac's brother on,' said John as he stuffed his face with some food.

'I hope there's not a next time,' said Elizabeth to her friends.

'There will be a next time,' said Isaac as him and Ryan stepped out of the shadows. Everyone looked towards them.

'What?' asked Elizabeth confusedly.

'Come with meâ we have a lot of talking to do,' smiled Isaac as he held out his hand. Elizabeth took his hand, and they walked out on deck, as the others waited. 'I know you must have a lot of questions.'

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Yes, how do you know Ryan?' asked Elizabeth right away.

'Ryan and I go way back,' replied Isaac.

'How'd you find me that day on the rock? I know that I was alone,' said Elizabeth.

'Alright, Elizabeth, you and I have a connection. Whenever you get hurt, I feel your pain, and I can tap into your mind and I instantly know where you are and the same goes for you to. Whenever I get hurt, you feel my pain and you can tap into my mind, and instantly know where I am,' explained Isaac.

'But what about the dizzy spell?' she asked him. Isaac sighed before telling Elizabeth. He sighed because he knew this day was coming and he had to tell her about his brother.

'Elizabeth, that wasn't no dizzy spell. You passed out, because my brother shot you with a fire arrow,' explained Isaac.

'Fire arrowâ what's that?' asked Elizabeth curiously.

'Okay, I will give you arrows 101. There are four different kinds of arrows. The first arrow is the fire arrow which my brother shot you with. The fire arrow kills only angels, but not people. The fire arrows have fire inside of them and that makes it glow red. The fire arrows are made from demons, so you can see why it would kill angels. The second arrow is the water arrow. The arrow glows blue, because of the water inside, and is the only arrow that can kill the demons since their souls are made of fire. The water arrow is also blessed by God. They also can't kill people. The third arrows can kill people, but they are very rare and only a few remain. This arrow glows green, because it's made from the Earth. The fourth and last arrow is the air arrow. When this arrow is shot into the sky, it releases poisonous gas, and kills people little by little. This arrow is just black,' explained Isaac. Elizabeth had to take everything in; there was so much to remember.

'And your brother? How does your brother play in this?' asked Elizabeth.

'Raven; he had a thing for you. You guys hung out, but never was official, and then I came along, and stole you from him, well, it was more like you chose me. Then he started a fight, and our dad kicked him out,' explained Isaac.

'Your dadâ kicked him out?' asked Elizabeth. Isaac let out another sigh.

'Raven and I are from Heaven. That's where I live and that's where Raven used to live,' explained Isaac. 'And our father is God, so that makes us angels.' Elizabeth's mouth dropped open; she couldn't believe what she was hearing.

'Is that why you can fly?' she asked.

'Yes, I have wings,' said Isaac. He stepped a couple inches from Elizabeth, took off his black tank top, exposing his white feathered wings. Elizabeth was in awe of this, because they were so beautiful.

'Can I touch them?' asked Elizabeth still in awe.

'Sure,' smiled Isaac. Elizabeth slowly walked over to the wings and gently touched one; the feathers were soft to the touch.

'There so soft,' said Elizabeth. Isaac let out a little laugh.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Yeah, you always liked touching them,' he said. 'Elizabeth there's more to explain.' Isaac had to put his wings away so Elizabeth couldn't get distracted again. 'This war that we're in, won't stop unless my brother is dead.'

'How do we kill him?' asked Elizabeth.

'Angels can't kill people, they are forbidden to since they are holy,' replied Isaac.

'But how is he suppose to die then?' asked Elizabeth confusedly.

'The four arrows that I explained, they have to be fused together. When they are fused together, they make one arrow called Elizabeth's Arrow,' explained Isaac. Elizabeth just looked at him and thought: Why would an arrow be named after her?

'Why is it named after me?' asked Elizabeth.

'Because, it's your arrowâ you're the only one who can fuse the four arrows together, and kill my brother,' replied Isaac.

'Why me?' asked Elizabeth.

'Because, you are the only one that both of us love, so in order for you and I to live happy, you have to end it between you and Raven,' explained Isaac. Elizabeth was confused now. How could she love someone that she never knew? She didn't remember anything about Raven and their love, so how did she know that Isaac was telling the truth? That he wasn't just jealous of Raven liking her.

'I don't know Isaac; I don't remember anything about Raven or what happened,' explained Elizabeth. Isaac walked over to Elizabeth and grabbed her hands gently.

'In time you will,' said Isaac.

'So, if this is trueâ how do we come about finding the four arrows, so I can fuse them together?' asked Elizabeth.

'That is a good question. We need to do some researching, but I have some books in the study. But before we do some researching, I think we have time for our first date,' said Isaac happily.

'What? Are you sure?' asked Elizabeth. A first dateâ she'd never been on a date before. This would be her first one ever. What was she going to wear? She wanted to look good for their date. Her and Michelle would have to go shopping.

'Of course I'm sure. After the beating that Ryan gave to Raven; I'm sure he'll have to recover for awhile,' chuckled Isaac. Elizabeth also gave a little chuckle.

'But I don't have anything to wear,' said Elizabeth.

'Don't worry about that. Michelle will fly you in town,' said Isaac.

'What? Fly?' asked Elizabeth.

'Oh right, I didn't tell you, Michelle and Ryan are angels to,' replied Isaac.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'What? Michelle is an angel?' asked Elizabeth. She was confused, because she knew Michelle since kindergarten and Michelle would of told her that she was an angel.

'Yes, that's why she's been around you since kindergarten. We wanted you to have a normal life, and Michelle was there to protect you in case anything happened,' explained Isaac.

'Why didn't you come down with me?' asked Elizabeth.

'Elizabeth, I had to make sure that Raven wouldn't get a feel where you where at. But now somehow, he got wind of where you are, and that's why I'm here,' explained Isaac.

'So you're here just to protect me, and that's it. When there is no more need to protect me, then you'll leave?' asked Elizabeth angrily.

'No no, that's not it. I love you; that's why I came back here. To protect you and so that we could be together, forever,' said Isaac quickly.

'I don't know Isaacâ I have to think about what's going on and what you've explained to me,' said Elizabeth.

'Don't shut me out,' pleaded Isaac.

'Isaac, I'm not shutting you out. This is just a lot of stuff to take in all at once. I just need some quiet,' smiled Elizabeth. Isaac sighed and put his head down. Elizabeth gently lifted his head, so they could see eye to eye. 'I believe you, I just need to take all of this in, just let me do that.' There were a few minutes of silence.

'Alright, but please, don't wonder off,' said Isaac.

'Don't worry, I won't,' said Elizabeth. Before Isaac left her alone with her thoughts, he leaned in and kissed her passionately.

'Don't forget about our date,' smiled Isaac before leaving.

'I won't,' smiled Elizabeth. Isaac walked back into the cabin, and closed the door. Elizabeth leaned on the railing, and took in the air. She began to think about what Isaac explained to her. She was the only one that could kill Raven by fusing all four arrows together. Her and Raven use to have a fling, but she doesn't remember. Isaac and Raven our from Heaven and their father is God. 'Wait a minute,' said Elizabeth as she turned to a little round table sitting in the corner of the deck with a notebook on it. She rushed over to the table, sat down, opened the notebook and lifted the pen beside it. She had remembered the place where Isaac said that he was from, and jotted it down, Navaeh. After some time of looking at the word, and remembering what Isaac had said, she began to write the word backwards. After writing the word backwards, she seen that it spelled Heaven. Why didn't she think of that before? She thought to herself.

Chapter 7

Chapter 7

All day Elizabeth thought about what Isaac said; she believed that he was an angel because she had shown her his wings, and she felt them. But what about the thing with his brother, Raven? How can she believe him, and how does she know that Isaac's telling the truth? Yes, she felt a strong connection with Raven at school yesterday, but what if that was a coincidence? 'There has to be some way that I can believe Isaac,' said Elizabeth to herself as she tapped her pen on her notebook. Just then, Michelle busted through the door.

'Come on chicky! We have to go and pick out your dress for tonight,' Michelle smiled.

'I don't know,' said Elizabeth as she looked at Michelle standing beside her.

'What's the matter?' asked Michelle concernedly, as she sat down.

'Well, first of all, why didn't you tell me that you were an angel?' asked Elizabeth. The smile faded from Michelle's face, as she leaned back in her chair.

'So I guess that Isaac told you everything?' asked Michelle.

'Yes,' replied Elizabeth.

'Well, if I would of told you that I was an angel..would you have believed me?' asked Michelle.

'Probably not,' replied Elizabeth.

'Then that's why I didn't tell you,' said Michelle. Elizabeth didn't say anything, but just tapped on her notebook with her pen. She was thinking about what Isaac had explained to her. 'What's on your mind?'

'Well, I don't know if I can believe Isaac and what he explained to me,' replied Elizabeth.

'Believe me Elizabeth, everything is all true,' smiled Michelle.

'You'd think I'd remember something like loving Isaac or Raven, but I don't,' said Elizabeth.

'Didn't you feel the connection when you met Isaac?' asked Michelle.

'Yes, but I felt the same when I met Raven,' replied Elizabeth.

'That's because you use to love him to, before Isaac came along,' said Michelle.

'But Isaac said that they both where form Heaven, and I'm not an angel, so I know that I'm not from Heaven. So how'd I fall in love with them?' asked Elizabeth confusedly. Michelle leaned on the table before answering the question.

'Elizabeth, all humans souls' live in Heaven before entering a body and coming into this world, so at one time, all you humans have lived in Heaven. And that's how you met Isaac and Raven and fell in love with them,' explained Michelle.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'But why don't I remember any of it?' asked Elizabeth.

'I don't know; that's just how things work,' replied Michelle. Elizabeth turned to look at the ocean, so she can think a little. Maybe Michelle was right about her meeting Raven and Isaac in Heaven before she came down here. Elizabeth does feel the same affect when she meets Raven compared to when she met Isaac. And she did see Isaac's wings and felt them, so they have to be real. 'It's not my place to make you remember, but I know that we better get going, so we can make it back in time for your dateâ 'I hear that Isaac has something very special planned for you,' Michelle explained as she looked at her cell phone.

'Alright,' said Elizabeth. She was kind of excited about this date; because it will be the first time that she and Isaac would be officially alone. So she got up and went with Michelle to pick out her dress and get ready for the night.

As Elizabeth looked in the body sized mirror at her black cocktail dress and high heels that Michelle had picked out for her; she wished that her mom was there with her to have the talk, since they didn't have it yet, but her mom wasn't there. So, she put the last touches of her make up on, before walking out into the living room.

When she walked out into the living room, she seen Isaac dressed in his black tie suit, which she thought, made him look very handsome. 'You look beautiful,' smiled Isaac when Elizabeth approached. The others must of thought so to, because their mouths were hanging open, as Elizabeth laughed at them.

'Thank you,' smiled Elizabeth. Isaac held out his arm and she put hers around his, so they where intertwined. 'What are you guys going to do?' she asked the others.

'Well, John and I have a date tonight,' said Michelle as she nudged John playfully.

'And I have a date as well,' said Ryan.

'What about you Michael?' asked Elizabeth.

'I'm just going to hang out here and finish my book,' said Michael as he sat down on the couch. 'It's time that I had some peace and quiet.'

'Okay,' chuckled Elizabeth.

'Ready?' asked Isaac.

'Yes,' smiled Elizabeth. Isaac walked Elizabeth to the limousine that was parked out front of the cabin. 'Wow..I never rode in a limousine before.'

'Really?' asked Isaac surprised.

'Really,' replied Elizabeth. Isaac walked over and opened the car door for her.

'You don't know what you're missing,' said Isaac as Elizabeth climbed into the car. Isaac closed the door and got in on his side. 'Driver..can you take us to the park!' yelled Isaac to the driver.

'Will do,' said the old driver as he began to drive off.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'The park?' asked Elizabeth confusedly.

'Yeah, I want to be alone with you for our first date,' smiled Isaac. Elizabeth smiled back, but didn't say anything. She just wanted to take in this ride, because she never rode in a limousine before and she just wanted to be with Isaac.

3

The whole ride to the park was quiet pretty much. Elizabeth thought about what Michelle explained to her about how human souls live in Heaven before coming down to earth in human form. Before Elizabeth knew it, Isaac was opening the door for her to get out. 'Thank you,' she said as he helped her out.

'No problem,' said Isaac. He closed the door as the driver drove off.

'Wait! Where's he going?' asked Elizabeth as she watched him drive off.

'He's leaving, don't worry, I have his number so I can call him when we're ready to go,' said Isaac as he took her hand. As Elizabeth looked at the park, she noticed that it was secluded, and that they were the only one's there. She also seen that it was dark, but lights lit up the walk way, so they could see.

'So, what do you have planned?' asked Elizabeth as they began to walk down the lit up pathway.

'You'll see,' said Isaac.

'What do you think Raven's going to do next?' asked Elizabeth as they walked.

'It's hard to tell, but we'll be ready for whatever he does,' said Isaac. After a couple of minutes of walking, they finally reached their destination. As Elizabeth looked, she seen that there was a table that had a couple of candles and a single red rose. She also seen a waiter waiting for us to sit down and serve us. Along with this, it was a perfect night, because the moon was out and the stars. 'So what do you think?' asked Isaac as he pulled out the chair so Elizabeth could sit down.

'Very romantic,' smiled Elizabeth as she sat down. Isaac sat down on the other chair in front of her.

'Thank you,' said Isaac. He then grabbed the rose, and handed the flower to Elizabeth. She took it with a smile.

'Thank you,' she said again as she smelled the flower and laid the rose down on the table.

'You're welcomeâ I didn't know what your favorite flower was so I got you the rose,' said Isaac.

'It's fineâ I love it,' smiled Elizabeth. The waiter walked over at their table to hand them their appetizers. 'Oh thank you, I'm starving,' she said as she ate when the waiter laid down their plates.

'Have you thought about everything I explained to you today?' asked Isaac as he took a drink of water and Elizabeth ate her cheese sticks.

'Yes, and Michelle and I had a talk to, and I think that I believe you and I'm going to help you with your brother,' replied Elizabeth. When she looked up at Isaac, she had seen that he had the biggest smile on his face.

'Elizabeth, I'm so glad that you believe me, and going to help us,' smiled Isaac.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Well, I know that I love you and that you love me, and I seen your wings, and I know that you can't be faking that,' smiled Elizabeth.

'Nopeâ 'definitely not,' smiled Isaac. After they finished their appetizers, the waiter served them their chicken alfredo.

4

After they had their ice cream; Isaac and Elizabeth walked further into the park. 'So, I know that you believe me now and love me, but your friends and I put together a little video so maybe you won't have any more doubts,' said Isaac.

'A video?' asked Elizabeth.

'Yes, while we were in Heaven, we decided to video tape everything, just in case this day would come,' replied Isaac. He showed Elizabeth to her seat and he sat down beside her. When Elizabeth looked up, she seen a screen standing in front of them. 'Are you ready?' he asked before sitting down beside her.

'Yes,' replied Elizabeth. She wanted to see her life, especially the life she had in Heaven before she came down here. Isaac didn't have remote to turn on the movie, but he snapped his fingers and the movie came on. Elizabeth got excited whenever the movie started.

After the movie was over, Elizabeth understood somewhat of her love for Isaac. She had seen how they first met, when she was walking with Michelle in the garden and bumped into him. She also seen what happened between her and Raven and that he cheated on her, and that's when she ran into Isaac. She also had seen that Isaac had to send her down here so she would be away from Raven, and that he wouldn't find her, but somehow he did. She also seen that Raven was kicked out of heaven for starting this war between Isaac and them.

When Elizabeth was going to say something, Isaac's phone went off. As he pulled his phone from the front of his suit pocket, he had seen that it was Ryan. He hurried and answered the call. 'Yes?' he asked. Elizabeth couldn't hear what was being said, but when Isaac hung up the phone, his face just said it all.

'What happened?' asked Elizabeth worriedly.

Chapter 8

Chapter 8

'Raven,' began Isaac as his eyes filled with tears.

'Yeah?' asked Elizabeth getting really nervous now.

'Somehow, he found your mother, and he shot her with one of the four arrows, and Elizabethâ I'm afraid she didn't make it,' explained Isaac sadly on the verge of tears. It took a minute before Elizabeth could process this information. What? Her mother is deadâ this couldn't be possible, she thought to herself. As Elizabeth sat and thought about her mother, she began to cry hysterically. Isaac took her in his arms and just held her as she cried.

'I'm so sorry,' said Isaac as Elizabeth cried. Elizabeth couldn't speak, all she wanted was her mother back, so she can hug her and hear her voice. When Elizabeth didn't stop crying, Isaac decided to call it a night, and take her back to the house. Elizabeth crawled into bed and just cried herself to sleep that night when they arrived.

2

'How did he find her mother?' asked Isaac angrily as he paced the deck floor. It was still night, and everyone was feeling the pain of losing Elizabeth's mother.

'We don't know,' said Michelle as she sat on the railing of the deck.

'What we think is that when we came down here, he must have followed us, and seen where she lived,' explained Ryan.

'I can't believe I let this happen! How could I have let this happen?!' yelled Isaac angrily.

'Isaac, none of us could have known what Raven was up to,' said Ryan trying to calm him down.

'We have to find him! We have to find him, so Elizabeth can kill him and we can be together, and she doesn't have to worry about losing anyone else!' yelled Isaac.

'But where do we start looking for him?' asked Michelle as she jumped off the railing ready to go.

'Elizabeth's mom's house, he had to of left something behind there. Michelle, you take John and Michael with you, Ryan and I will stay and keep guard,' ordered Isaac.

'Alright,' said Michelle.

'But don't fly there; I don't want anyone using their wings in case he is watching. I want you guys to be discreet as possible,' ordered Isaac.

'But what should we use to get there?' asked Michelle a little disappointed that she couldn't fly.

'You can use the Mustang, but be careful with her,' said Ryan as he took the keys from his jeans pocket, and handed them to Michelle.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Okay, go now and don't come back till you have something,' ordered Isaac. Michelle didn't talk back, but just nodded. The other two followed as Michelle walked out. 'I'll be the first look out for the night. I just can't stand to look at her when I have failed to protect her,' said Isaac disappointed.

'Isaac, it's really going to be okay. She knows that you didn't do anything to hurt her mother,' said Ryan trying to calm Isaac down.

'Please Ryan, just go and look after her,' said Isaac as he leaned on the railing and didn't look at Ryan. Ryan didn't say anything, and just did what he was told.

3

When Ryan walked into Elizabeth's room, he had seen that she was sound asleep. So he gently closed the door, and lay down on the couch that was sitting in front of the window. As he lay there staring out the window, about to fall asleep, Elizabeth began to scream uncontrollably. So Ryan quickly got up, rushed over to her, and hugged her as he tried to wake her up. 'Elizabeth!' he finally yelled as he shook her awake.

'Oh Ryan, it was such a horrible dream. I dreamt that I seen Raven kill my mother,' cried Elizabeth.

'It's okay now, I'm here,' said Ryan as he hugged her and let her go.

'Ryan, I want to see my mom again. I want to hug her and tell her that I love her,' cried Elizabeth.

'I know you do, but you will see her again someday,' said Ryan.

'But I don't want to wait,' cried Elizabeth. Ryan hugged her again, not knowing what to say. 'Ryan please stay with me tonight. I don't want to be alone.'

'I'll be here tonight; Isaac and I are taking turns watching out,' said Ryan.

'No, I don't want to see him right now. Whenever I look at him, I remember Raven and the news that Isaac gave me, I just want you,' said Elizabeth.

'Alright, I'll sleep on the couch,' began Ryan.

'No, I want you to sleep in bed with me. I'll feel safer with you close to me,' said Elizabeth.

'Elizabeth, I don't know,' said Ryan.

'Ryan, we're just friends. Nothing's going to happen,' said Elizabeth. Ryan thought before answering.

'Alright,' said Ryan. He had never slept in the same bed with a girl that nothing happened, but he really cared for Elizabeth and didn't want to do anything that would hurt her or her relationship with Isaac.

Elizabeth lay down followed by Ryan; they both were underneath the covers. 'Ryan?' asked Elizabeth. She had turned the lights off when Ryan had lay down.

'Yes,' said Ryan; his eyes were closed.

'What would you have done if I would have said yes?' asked Elizabeth.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'What do you mean?' asked Ryan.

'That day on the rockâ when you asked me to be your girlfriendâ what would you have done if I said yes?' asked Elizabeth. There was silence as they both lay there in the dark.

'I would have been happy and I would have treated you right,' replied Ryan. 'Why do you ask?'

'Just wondering,' replied Elizabeth as she turned on her side facing away from Ryan. The truth was that Elizabeth was starting to feel something for Ryan, but she still loved Isaac. Despite everything that was happening between them, she still loved Isaac. Maybe this thing that she is starting to feel for Ryan is just a friend thing. They have been hanging out for half of the summer. She finally closed her eyes and fell asleep.

Isaac was pacing the woods, thinking about what he could have done to save Elizabeth's mother. 'Why didn't I see it coming?' he asked himself angrily. He continued to pace the woods as he thought. Then he decided to go to Elizabeth's house. He wanted to see how Raven got in and how he killed her mother. He took off his shirt to show his wings, and flew to Elizabeth's house.

When he arrived at the house, he seen everything, and everything was still intact, and it looked like nothing happened there at all. So, he quickly walked in, to check out the scene. As he walked in, he noticed all of Elizabeth's friends doing what he asked them to do. 'Isaac, what are you doing here?' asked Michelle surprised. She was looking at some shattered glass that was in the living room, which came from a window.

'I couldn't stand it anymore. I have to see the scene,' said Isaac as he walked up to Michelle.

'Well, I think he busted a window and came in through there,' said Michelle.

'What was she killed with?' asked Isaac.

'We don't know yet; we haven't found the weapon,' replied Michelle. Isaac looked around and nothing was moved. Nothing looked like anything had happened there. Isaac walked over to behind the couch, and seen a puddle of blood, and knelt down beside it. He knew that it was Elizabeth's mom's blood.

'Isaac, you couldn't have done anything. None of us knew Raven's next move,' said Michelle sadly.

'He's my brother; I should have known!' yelled Isaac as he smashed his fist into the carpet.

'Isaac, don't worry, we will get him,' said John as he walked out of her mom's room.

'Did you find anything?' asked Michelle.

'Nope; we searched everything, but Elizabeth's room. We figured we would leave that to you,' said Michael as he nodded towards Isaac. Isaac swallowed before walking slowly to her bedroom. He had never been in her bedroom before and this wasn't exactly how he pictured the first time to be. As he walked to Elizabeth's bedroom, he slowly opened the door, and slowly walked in.

When he walked in, he seen that nothing was misplaced. Maybe he didn't come in here. Isaac stopped in the middle of the room, and decided to get Elizabeth some clothes. Since Raven knew where she lived, he didn't want her staying there. So Isaac walked over to her closet and started grabbing some clothes.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

After packing a pink duffle bag that he had found in her closet, he quickly walked out into the living room. 'Okay, Raven has started the war again, so we have to keep Elizabeth on the move. She will be fine there for a couple of days till I find her a place to go,' explained Isaac as he handed the bag to Michelle.

'You find her a place?' asked John.

'Yes, I will go, and Elizabeth needs all of the friends that she has right now,' explained Isaac as he looked at the three of them. He then turned to Michelle, 'I will call you when I find a place, and you guys can bring her,' he told Michelle.

'Wait, we're going to?' asked Michelle excitedly.

'Yes, none of you are safe by yourselves with my brother on a murderous rampage,' replied Isaac. Both John and Michael whispered yes at the same time.

'How are you going to be safe?' asked a worried Michelle.

'Don't worry; I will only go out at night, and I'll make sure not to show my wings in the daylight,' replied Isaac.

'Okay,' said Michelle. Isaac walked closer to Michelle.

'Make sure and protect Elizabeth; I will try and find a place as fast as I can,' said Isaac. Michelle didn't say anything, but just nodded her head up and down to show Isaac that she agreed. Isaac said his goodbyes before walking out, and flying out into the night.

'Okay, we should get going. We can't do anything else here,' said Michelle as she ushered Michael and John out.

5

When Elizabeth woke up and looked over, she'd seen that Ryan wasn't there. So, she sat up, and got out of bed. She had on her purple silky pajamas. As she approached the door to open it, she heard some people talking. 'He left her now?' she heard Ryan ask.

'Yes, but only to find a safer place for her. He will send for us,' said Michelle calmly.

'How long?' asked Ryan.

'A couple days at least, but he got her some clothes,' replied Michelle. What..Isaac left her? She thought to herself. At the thought of this, tears began to roll down her eyes. Why wouldn't he of took her with him? She thought as she crawled into bed, hugged her pillow, and cried.

Chapter 9

Chapter 9

Ryan knocked on the door before walking in with her clothes. As he walked in and closed the door, he had seen Elizabeth crying and hugging the pillow. 'What's the matter?' asked Ryan as he sat down the duffle bag, and went to sit beside her.

'Isaac left me,' cried Elizabeth.

'How did you know about that?' asked Ryan.

'I overheard you and Michelle talking,' replied Elizabeth in between sobs.

'He didn't leave you. He went to go and find a new place for us, because you can't go back home,' explained Ryan.

'Why not?' asked Elizabeth.

'Because, Raven found your mother there, and possibly knows that you live there to,' replied Ryan.

'What about my father? We can't just leave him there for Raven to find him next,' said Ryan. He then closed his eyes, and a couple minutes later Michelle walked in.

'Yes?' asked Michelle.

'Could you go and look after Elizabeth's dad,' suggested Ryan.

'Sure,' said Michelle.

'And take the other two with you just in case,' said Ryan before Michelle walked out without saying anything. 'Before you ask, us angels can send other angels messages through our minds, and that's why Michelle came in here after I closed my eyes.'

'I wasn't going to say anything about that. I was going to say thank you for sending them to look after my father,' explained Elizabeth.

'Oh well, you're welcome,' said Ryan. There was a moment of silence, as Elizabeth quit crying.

'Ryan, I wish sometimes that I would of said yes on that rock, then maybe everything would have been different,' said Elizabeth.

'What? Don't say that; Isaac is trying to keep you safe, that's why he left you tonight, to get you a safe place, so we can figure out where the arrows are,' said Ryan angrily, because Elizabeth seemed like she didn't have no trust for Isaac.

'He should of sent you or Michelle to go and find something; instead he left me here alone and didn't even tell me goodbye,' said Elizabeth angrily.

'You are not here alone! You have me!' said Ryan.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Yes, but for how long? It seems like everyone is leaving me now a days,' said Elizabeth.

'Elizabeth I need you to look at me,' said Ryan. Elizabeth slowly looked up at him. 'No matter what happens I will never leave you. I am here to protect you, and this is where I'll stay,' said Ryan.

'Promise?' asked Elizabeth.

'Promise,' replied Ryan. She hugged him and he hugged her back. Elizabeth yawned after they hugged. 'I think you need your sleep now, and don't worry, everything is taking care of,' he smiled to her.

'Okay,' yawned Elizabeth as she turned out the light before lying down. Ryan lay down beside Elizabeth and stared at the ceiling till he fell asleep.

2

The next morning as Elizabeth slowly sat up and looked over to where Ryan was suppose to be, she had seen that he wasn't there. She then started to panic, as Ryan walked in with some breakfast. 'Good morning, I made you some pancakes,' said Ryan as he sat the tray across Elizabeth's lap.

'Oh thank you,' said Elizabeth as she dug in. She had never had breakfast before in bed; her mom and dad always made her eat at the table. 'Aren't you eating?' she asked with a mouthful of pancakes.

'I ate earlier,' replied Ryan. 'So, Isaac texted me this morning, and he said that he should have another place for us to go by the end of the week.'

'What? You said only a couple days,' said Elizabeth.

'I know, but that's what he said,' said Ryan.

'Oh no; this weekend I'm suppose to see my father. I've been waiting for this weekend all week,' said Elizabeth.

'Well, I can have him stay here for the weekend, and you two can have the house to yourselves,' suggested Ryan.

'No, you guys can stay and meet him,' said Elizabeth.

'Ooooh, meeting the parents,' smiled Ryan.

'Stop that, we're just friends,' said Elizabeth.

'Awe, the friend's stage,' joked Ryan. Elizabeth just laughed as she ate, and her and Ryan talked.

3

After breakfast, Elizabeth got a shower, and walked into the living room where Ryan was waiting. 'What do you think?' asked Elizabeth as she twirled in her purple dress and high heels; she also had a purple flower in her hair.

'You look good,' smiled Ryan.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Good, because I want you to take me to my house,' said Elizabeth.

'I can'tâ Raven might be there waiting for you and we can't risk that,' said Ryan quickly.

'I don't careâ I want to see what it looks like, and I want to say goodbye to my mother,' said Elizabeth with a little anger.

'I promised Isaac,' said Ryan.

'Well, Isaac isn't here! He left!' yelled Elizabeth. 'So, what he doesn't know won't hurt him.' Ryan let out a sigh before answering.

'Alright, but I warned you about going,' said Ryan. Elizabeth smiled because she was going. 'We have to take the Jeep though; I don't want to draw any attention to us.'

'Okay, that's fineâ as long as I get there,' said Elizabeth.

When Ryan and Elizabeth entered the garage, Elizabeth had seen Ryan's yellow Jeep. 'You first,' said Ryan. He opened the door for her and she got in. 'Alright, here we go,' he said when he got in, started the car and backed out of the garage.

The whole ride was quiet, because Elizabeth was thinking about her mom and what kind of scene she might walk into. As she thought about everything, tears began to roll down her face. She just couldn't believe she was gone, and what about her dad? She wondered if anyone told him yet. As they pulled into Elizabeth's driveway; she had seen that the house was still intact. 'Do you want me to go in with you?' asked Ryan as he turned off the jeep.

'Yes please,' said Elizabeth as she was already crying.

Elizabeth hopped out of the jeep, as Ryan met her and took her arm in his, and helped her inside. When they walked in, Elizabeth had seen the broken window where Raven could have gotten in. She walked a little further, and seen the puddle of blood, that Isaac had seen earlier. She just couldn't hold it in anymore, and began sobbing. Ryan immediately took her and held her. 'We can leave,' suggested Ryan.

'No! I have to do this,' said Elizabeth as she wiped her eyes and Ryan let go of her. When Elizabeth knelt down next to the puddle of blood, she heard a voice coming from behind her, and it wasn't Ryan's.

'Elizabeth?' the person asked. She quickly got up and turned to see who it was.

'Dad?' asked Elizabeth.

'Yes honey,' replied her father. As Elizabeth looked at her dad, she noticed that he had been crying, because his eye's were red. Her dad had still loved her mother after all of these years, Elizabeth thought to herself. Elizabeth quickly ran over to him and gave him a big hug.

'Oh dad, I'm sorry,' Elizabeth cried.

'Why are you apologizing? You didn't do anything wrong,' said her dad confusedly.

'Yes I didâ I wasn't here to protect her,' cried Elizabeth. Her dad hugged her again.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'No one knew this was going to happen,' said her father.

'I know that's what everyone keeps saying, but I don't know,' cried Elizabeth. 'So, how'd you find out?' she asked as she wiped her tears away with her hands.

'Well, when your friends came over they told me everything that's been happening with you, and they explained about your mother,' replied her father.

'So you know who done this?' asked Elizabeth.

'Yes, Raven, Isaac's brother and I guess your boyfriend,' smiled her father. Elizabeth smiled at this statement.

'Yes,' she smiled. Her dad looked over at Ryan.

'I guess I have to introduce myself then, to the man that loves my daughter,' said her father as he walked closer to Ryan. Elizabeth gave a little chuckle before stopping him. 'What?'

'That's not Isaacâ that's Ryan, a really good friend,' smiled Elizabeth.

'Oh, I'm sorry,' said her father to Ryan.

'That's okay, I did ask her to be my girlfriend, but she declined,' said Ryan.

'That's because I love Isaac,' said Elizabeth.

'Where is this Isaac? He should be with you instead of him,' said her dad.

'He's not here because he's trying to find somewhere for us to go, so we can be safe,' explained Ryan.

'Okay, I just asked,' said her father. 'So I'm having the funeral for your mother in a couple of days, and you better be there,' he said to Elizabeth.

'Yes, I promise I will be there,' said Elizabeth. Just then, Michelle, John, and Michael busted through the front door.

'Oh hey guys,' said Michelle to Ryan and Elizabeth.

'Hey,' said Elizabeth.

'I see that you found your father,' said Michelle as she walked over and stood beside him.

'Yes,' smiled Elizabeth.

'And did he tell you?' Michelle asked.

'Tell me what?' Elizabeth asked.

'That he quit drinking,' smiled Michelle. A big grin came over Elizabeth's face.

'Is that true?' asked Elizabeth.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Yes, I did it for you guys,' replied her father. As Elizabeth smiled; she ran over and hugged her father.

'I'm so proud of you,' said Elizabeth excitedly.

'I was going to wait and tell the both of you, but then this happened,' said her dad. Elizabeth was excited that her dad had quit drinking, and they could start being a family again.

'Alright, we'll leave you two alone to get caught up,' said Michelle as she ushered everyone out. Ryan walked up to Elizabeth.

'You going to be alright?' asked Ryan.

'Yes, my father is harmless,' replied Elizabeth.

'Yes, don't worry about her, she is safe with me,' smiled her father.

'Alright, we'll be right outside then,' said Ryan.

'Okay,' smiled Elizabeth. Ryan gave her dad a hand shake before leaving them alone.

'Geez, for not being your boyfriend, he sure is acting like one,' said her dad when they sat down on the couch.

'He's just doing his job till Isaac comes back,' said Elizabeth.

'Yes Isaac, tell me about him. Does he treat you good?' asked her father. Elizabeth gave a little chuckle, because she never had seen her dad this protective of her before.

'Yes, he treats me good,' smiled Elizabeth.

'And you're happy with him?' he asked. Elizabeth smiled when she nodded her head up and down. 'As long as you're happy that's all that matters,' smiled her father.

Just then, a tall skinny guy busted through the door, and ran over to Elizabeth, and captured her. 'Let me go!' Elizabeth yelled as she tried to get free, but couldn't. For this guy being skinny, Elizabeth thought that he was pretty strong. Her dad went to wrestle the guy down to the floor, but a couple more busted through the window and stopped him before they could do anything.

'What do you want?!' yelled her father trying to get free, but couldn't.

'We came for Elizabeth,' said the guy holding her. When Elizabeth looked up at him, she noticed that he had red glowing eyes.

'No! Leave her alone! Take me instead!' her father tried to bargain.

'Silly old man! Our master only wants the girl and that's what he's going to get,' said the guy angrily.

'Ryan!' yelled Elizabeth.

'Don't bother! The others are chasing our decoys they will never hear you,' said the guy.

'Please, leave us alone!' yelled Elizabeth.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'No, you are coming with me,' said the guy. And before Elizabeth knew it, she was having one of her dizzy spells again, and passed out, but not before she heard them speak again.

'What about the father?' asked one of them.

'Get rid of him,' said the other. After hearing these words, Elizabeth passed out.

Chapter 10

Chapter 10

'I can't believe I fell for their trick!' yelled an angry Ryan as he paced the living room floor.

'We have to hurry and find her before Isaac comes back,' said Michelle panicky. Just then, the door busted open, and Isaac quickly walked in.

'Isaac?' asked Ryan.

'Yeah, what happened? Where is Elizabeth? I felt her pain and automatically came to see what was wrong,' said Isaac quickly.

'They took her,' said Ryan disappoint. Isaac's facial expression changed over to anger.

'You where suppose to protect her while I was gone! How could you let this happen?!' yelled Isaac angrily as he got in Ryan's face.

'Me?! You are the one who left her knowing that Raven was trying to get her!' yelled Ryan back.

'Boys! Boys!' yelled Michelle. 'You can kill each other later, but now we have to find Elizabeth and her father,' she told them. They both slowly backed up and calmed down.

'How are we suppose to find her? We don't even know where Raven is,' said Ryan angrily.

'We have to go up,' said Michelle.

'What?' asked John curiously.

'In order to fine Elizabeth and her father, we have to go up and ask our father,' said Michelle.

'But he won't help us,' said Ryan angrily.

'Ryan we have to try, what else do we have left?' Michelle asked him.

'Wait! You mean we're going to see what Heaven looks like?' asked John excitedly.

'No! You guys have to stay here; this war is between us and if you go to Heaven, you won't be allowed back here,' explained Michelle.

'Why?' asked Michael.

'Because you two are human, and you have to experience a full life before going to Heaven,' replied Michelle.

'Then what are we suppose to do in the mean time?' asked John.

'Search the house againâ there has to be something we missed,' ordered Michelle.

'Yes ma'am,' said John as he smiled at her. Before leaving, Michelle gave John a big long kiss.

'Be safe,' she whispered to him.

'Will do,' smiled John. They all let out their wings, walked outside, and flew up into the clouds.

'What did you do with the old man?' Elizabeth heard Raven ask.

'We took him back to his house,' said the one guy that had kidnapped Elizabeth.

'You where suppose to do away with him!' yelled Raven angrily.

'We did it a better way. Instead of us killing him, we erased his memory, and he doesn't remember anything that happened or Elizabeth,' explained the demon. Raven did not speak, but just tapped his fingers together, and thought about what the other had said.

'Hmmm, maybe that is better once she sees that her own dad doesn't want her, and she has no more family, she'll be one step closer to me,' explained Raven.

'But what about Isaac and them?' the other asked.

'You where suppose to do away with them!' yelled Raven.

'You didn't tell us to,' said the other.

'Ugh! Do I have to tell you to do everything!' yelled Raven.

'I'm sorry master,' said the other.

'Go and do your job and don't come back till it's done!' yelled Raven.

'Yes master,' said the other as he put his head down and walked away in shame.

When Elizabeth sat up and blinked her eyes a couple of times, she noticed that there was fire all around her. 'Where am I?' she asked herself as she came to and started to see all the clearer.

'This is what they call Hell,' said Raven as he was twirling something long in his hand.

'Hell?' asked Elizabeth when she started to get a little worried.

'Yes and your precious angels won't ever find you down here,' smiled Raven as he walked closer to Elizabeth, still holding the arrow. When Elizabeth looked around, she had noticed that she had been sitting on a rock platform. Ugh! No wonder her back hurt her. She also noticed that the others around her didn't look like her or Raven, but little bat creatures. They all had red eyes, long sharp nails, long wings, and sharp, straggly teeth. Elizabeth thought they looked really scary and she quickly looked away, but before looking away, she seen that they were pounding and making something. 'Scary little creature's aren't they?' Raven asked her as he watched them. Elizabeth shook her head in agreement.

'I didn't use to live down here. I use to have a good lifeâ we used to have a good life,' Raven said sadly as he looked at Elizabeth.

'We?' asked Elizabeth.

'Oh don't play dumb with me; I'm sure that Isaac already told you the story of us,' replied Raven.

'Yes he did,' said Elizabeth.

'So you know that we loved each other before he came alone,' said Raven angrily.

'I know that you cheated on me and that's why I was in the garden that day crying when your brother came along and saved me,' replied Elizabeth.

'Saved you? You didn't need any saving from me. I loved you and always will love you,' said Raven.

'Then why did you cheat on me? If you loved me that much, then why did you cheat on me?' asked Elizabeth.

'It wasn't what you thought it was. The woman kissed me and I was trying to push her away, but couldn't,' explained Raven quickly.

'Sure sure,' said Elizabeth as she shook her head in denial. Raven picked up the arrow that he laid beside him and began to twirl it in his hands again. What's that?' she asked as her eyes got huge because she didn't know what he was going to do with the thing.

'This...,' Raven began as he looked down at the arrow. 'This is a fire arrow. What I'm going to kill my brother with,' he replied as he looked up at Elizabeth.

'What?! No, you can't kill Isaac! I love him,' yelled Elizabeth. She quickly got off the platform and ran over to Raven, and began punching him as hard as she could in the chest, but it didn't seem to faze him. Raven began laughing as Elizabeth was punching him in the chest, yelling at him.

'You think your punches are going to stop me,' laughed Raven as he grabbed Elizabeth by the wrists. 'All you need to do is kiss me, and all of this will go away, and we will be back together at home!'

'You think I'm going to kiss you? I will never kiss you,' hissed Elizabeth through her teeth. Just then, some noise came from beside them, and one of the monsters was sliding a body closer to them.

'Master! Master, we got him,' hissed the little monster as he let go at the person's ankles as they fell to the rocky floor. When Elizabeth looked over, she seen that it wasn't Isaac, but it was Ryan. She ripped herself away from Raven and ran over to Ryan.

'Ryan?' asked Elizabeth as she shook him to get up. Ryan slowly opened his eyes and seen Elizabeth; her eyes began to tear up.

'I promised I wouldn't leave you,' Ryan said slowly. When Elizabeth looked at Ryan's body; she had seen that he was badly beaten and had blood running down his face.

'Yes you did,' smiled Elizabeth as she held Ryan's hand and tears rolled down her cheeks. Raven walked over to see who they had gotten.

'You fools! This is the wrong person!' yelled Raven angrily. As Raven yelled; the monsters cringed and backed up. Elizabeth even cringed a little as Raven yelled.

'You said to bring you Isaac..he said his name was Isaac,' said one of the monsters.

'He lied to all of you! This isn't my brother!' yelled Raven.

'Do you want us to go again?' asked one of the monsters.

'No! I will go myself this timeâ 'you stay down here until I figure out what your punishment is!' yelled Raven as the monsters slowly walked away. 'In the mean time..you two are going to the dungeon, until I get back with my brother,' he said angrily.

Raven rushed over to Elizabeth and Ryan picked them up with each hand, and drug them to a square hole in a separate room. 'Please, Ryan needs help,' said Elizabeth as Raven held the both of them.

'He's fine!' yelled Raven before throwing the both of them down the black tunnel, as he walked to the door, ripped off his shirt to show his wings, opened the door, and flew out into the sky.

3

'I'm so sorry this happened to you,' said Elizabeth with tears in her eyes.

'Elizabeth, I'm going to be fine. My wounds will heal soon,' said Ryan as he slowly sat up.

'But they could of killed you,' said Elizabeth.

'But they didn't,' said Ryan.

'Where is Isaacâ 'why didn't he come to protect me?' asked Elizabeth.

'He wanted to come, but I wouldn't let him. He needs to be on the outside when Raven reaches him,' explained Ryan.

'When? You mean you planned all of this?' asked Elizabeth.

'Well, we did. We had to get Raven out of his domain so he wouldn't be in control. At least on Earth, they can fight fair,' replied Ryan.

'But how did they find you guys?' asked Elizabeth.

'We were still at the house looking for clues to were you where,' replied Ryan.

'So, now what do we do?' asked Elizabeth.

'Well, it's going to be a while before Raven comes back, so you can sleep and when you wake up, I'll be as good as new,' replied Ryan. Elizabeth cuddled up close to Ryan before lying her head on his shoulder.

'Raven had one of the arrows in his hands. We need to find one before we try to get out of here,' said Elizabeth tiredly.

'Yes. We will find one when we wake up,' said Ryan.

'What will happen when this war is over?' asked Elizabeth.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Well, hopefully Raven will be dead, and you and Isaac can be with each other,' replied Ryan.

'But what about you?' asked Elizabeth.

'I will still be around; we're friends, I never leave my friends,' replied Ryan.

'I just don't want anything to happen to no one. I know that I love Isaac, but I love you guys as well,' explained Elizabeth.

'We love you to,' said Ryan. Elizabeth cuddled closer as she closed her eyes until she fell asleep.

4

Isaac was pacing the woods, getting angrier and angrier knowing Raven has Elizabeth. 'Come on Raven! You know where I am!' yelled Isaac up at the midnight sky. He began to pace again, until he ran right into his brother.

'Why did Ryan tell my demons that he was you?' asked Raven. Isaac backed up before answering.

'Because we had to get you out of hiding somehow, and now that you're up here, we can fight fairly,' said Isaac angrily.

'Fight? All I have to do is use one of my arrows and your dead!' yelled Raven.

'Raven, why do you want Elizabeth anyway? You even said that you didn't love her?' asked Isaac angrily.

'I loved her..I still love her!' She was the best thing that ever happened to me!' yelled Raven.

'Then why did you cheat on her?' asked Isaac.

'I didn't cheat on her! That girl kissed me first!' yelled Raven.

'But you could of stopped her,' said Isaac.

'I tried, but she wouldn't budge!' yelled Raven.

'Oh that's a load of bull!' yelled Isaac. Before Isaac knew it, Raven punched him, knocking him to the ground, making the ground shake. Raven then, pulled out a fire arrow that was on his back, and ran over to Isaac that was lying on the ground. He pointed the arrow inches away from Isaac's face.

'I could end this all right now,' hissed Raven through his teeth.

Chapter 11

Chapter 11

'But you won't,' said Isaac.

'How do you know that I won't?' asked Raven angrily.

'Because, you would of already killed me by now,' replied Isaac.

'Maybe I'm letting you say your last words, before I kill you,' said Raven.

'Raven; I know you, you would of killed me already, but I am your brother and you will never kill me,' said Isaac.

'Alright, since you know me. What would happen if I let you go?' asked Raven easing up a little.

'You will keep on chasing us; if I get Elizabeth back. Instead of killing me, you will keep on hunting me, so I can't have Elizabeth and be happy with her,' replied Isaac. Raven backed off of him, letting him stand up.

'You might have been right earlier, but now you're wrong. I want Elizabeth and I will not stop until she is mine. And in order for her to be mine, you have to die,' explained Raven angrily.

'So?' asked Isaac.

'So what?' asked Raven.

'So how are you going to kill me? I don't like surprises,' said Isaac.

'Well, since you are "so called family" I'll let you have a fair fight. We will use our fists,' replied Raven.

'Fine by me,' said Isaac as he got ready to fight.

2

'Elizabeth! Elizabeth, come on we have to get out of here,' said Ryan quickly as he shook her to wake her up.

'Huh?' asked Elizabeth as she got up from lying on the floor slowly.

'Come on, we have to go,' said Ryan quickly, helping her up. When Elizabeth came to, she noticed that Ryan was all better, and there was no sign of him being beaten earlier.

'Hey, you're all better,' said Elizabeth quietly. Ryan smiled before talking to her.

'See, I told you that I would be better when you woke up,' said Ryan.

'How are we going to get out?' asked Elizabeth.

'I think I can fly hard enough into the door to bust it open, but when I bust the door open, and we land, you're going to have to be ready to fight,' said Ryan scooping Elizabeth off the floor.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Alright, I will be,' said Elizabeth as she wrapped her arms around Ryan's neck.

'Okay, here we go,' said Ryan as he held Elizabeth tighter to him, before flying up and busting the door opened.

When Ryan and Elizabeth busted through the door, all the little monsters just stared and watched them as they landed. 'Okay, get ready,' whispered Ryan to Elizabeth. She nodded her head in agreement.

As the little monsters came to realize what had happened, they took up their weapons and began to charge at them. 'How are we suppose to kill them!' yelled Elizabeth quickly and nervously.

'Just stay behind me and I will get you out of here!' yelled Ryan as he quickly pushed Elizabeth behind him as one little monster slashed his arm with an axe, before Ryan took the axe from him and slashed the monster in half. 'Alright, follow me!' yelled Ryan as he sliced another monster in half. As Ryan was slicing and killing the little monsters, Elizabeth almost forgot the fire arrow that she had to have. So, as Ryan was fighting off the monsters, he didn't notice Elizabeth sneaking off to get the arrow.

When Elizabeth was out of sight from the monsters, she felt safe enough so she wouldn't have to sneak around. So, she began to walk normal again, and started to look around for the arrow. 'I just had seen a whole bunch of fire arrows. Where'd they all go?' she asked herself as she done a one-eighty, but did not see them anywhere.

Elizabeth wasn't paying attention when a little monster walked up behind her and stabbed her with the arrow making her fall on her stomach on the floor. As Elizabeth laid there, the little monster walked over to the wall, and grabbed a sword that was leaning against the wall. After grabbing the sword, he quickly walked over and stabbed Elizabeth in the back making her scream.

When Isaac went to punch Raven in the face, a sharp pain pierced his back, making him yell and fall onto his knees. 'What's the matter with you? Get up, we're not done yet,' said Raven as he was bleeding from his face.

'Something's wrong,' said Isaac as he held his back and tears began to fill his eyes, because it was hurting him so bad.

'What are you talking about?' asked Raven.

'I think Elizabeth's dyeing,' said Isaac sadly.

'What are you talking about? I locked her and Ryan in the dungeon before I left,' said Raven.

'But they got out and are fighting your monsters, and one of them stabbed her!' yelled Isaac as a tear slid down his face.

'What? They wouldn't do that; they know better!' yelled Raven.

'Raven, we have to get to her, and we have to hurry,' said Isaac angrily.

'Alright, I'll stop this war, but just to save Elizabeth, after that, you're mine, said Raven angrily. Raven and Isaac quickly took off, as Isaac followed Raven.

As Elizabeth screamed and Ryan killed the last little monster that was around him; he heard the blood shearing scream coming from Elizabeth. He hurried and ran towards the screaming. When he entered the torture chamber, he seen the little monster pushing the sword into Elizabeth's back. 'Ryan, please help me,' cried Elizabeth.

Ryan was so angry that he didn't remember running over and killing the monster. Before turning Elizabeth over, he slowly removed the sword and the arrow from her back and throwing them to the floor, before rolling Elizabeth over on her back. She held her wounds and seen the blood on her hands that was coming from the wounds. 'Why did you leave me?' asked Ryan as he held her head in his lap.

'Because I wanted to get the arrow before we left,' said Elizabeth slowly.

'You should of told me and we could of went together,' said Ryan sadly.

'I'm sorry,' said Elizabeth as he began to cry.

'It's alright; I'm not mad at you,' said Ryan as he held her wounds.

'Ryan, I don't want to die,' cried Elizabeth.

'Listen to me; you're not going to die, do you hear me? You're not going to leave us,' said Ryan quickly.

'Okay,' said Elizabeth slowly.

'Ryan, how is she!' Elizabeth heard Isaac's voice as her eyes slowly opened and closed.

'She's coming and going, but we have to get her out of here, and get her somewhere where Michelle can work on her,' said Ryan quickly.

'Alright, I'll take her,' said Isaac as he scooped her up.

'I'm going with you guys,' said Raven.

'What? You're on our side now?' asked Ryan angrily.

'No, but I care about her to,' said Raven.

'You are the reason why she is almost dying! So you don't get to see if she survives or not!' yelled Ryan.

'This wasn't my fault!' yelled Raven as he moved closer to Ryan.

'Isaac just go and take herâ I have Raven handled!' yelled Ryan as he was getting ready to fight.

'Are you sure?' asked Isaac.

'Yes, I'm sure,' replied Ryan angrily. Isaac took hold of Elizabeth a little tighter, before taking off.

When Elizabeth finally came to; she seen that she was all bandaged up, but still feels a little tired. 'Ugh!' moaned Elizabeth as she tried to sit up, but was just tired.

'Don't move,' said Isaac as he gently laid her back down and gave her some water.

'It's about time we get some alone time,' smiled Elizabeth as she talked slowly.

'Yeah, I know I haven't been around in a while, like I'm suppose to, but I just want to keep you safe, and what happened to your mother; I just couldn't forgive myself,' said Isaac as he put his head down in shame.

'Isaac, look at me,' ordered Elizabeth. Isaac slowly lifted his head. 'You did not do anything wrong. You couldn't of stopped Raven because you didn't know what he was going to do,' explained Elizabeth.

'So, you're not mad at me?' asked Isaac.

'No of course not,' smiled Elizabeth. 'I love you.' Isaac smiled and leaned down and kissed her.

'When you get better, I promise that we will spend more time together,' said Isaac.

'I would love that,' smiled Elizabeth. Isaac smiled back at her.

'Oh, what about the arrow? Did you guys get it before you left?' asked Elizabeth.

'Yes, I believe Ryan got it after fighting with Raven again,' said Isaac.

'Good, now we only have three more left,' said Elizabeth.

'Yep, if only we knew where they are,' said Isaac.

'Don't worry, we'll find them,' said Elizabeth.

6

A couple of weeks went by, and Elizabeth was feeling a whole lot better and she could walk again on her own with no support. 'I think you're all better to go out with Isaac,' said Michelle as she checked Elizabeth's wounds.

'Good, I'm tired of being bed ridden,' said Elizabeth as she sat up. As Michelle left the room, Isaac walked in and closed the door.

'So?' asked Isaac.

'It's official; I'm allowed to go out,' said Elizabeth excitedly.

'Oh good,' said Isaac as he quickly walked over, stood Elizabeth up, and hugged her.

'I missed hugging you,' said Elizabeth.

'Same here,' said Isaac. 'Oh, and tonight is your sixteenth birthday, so whatever you want to do; I want it to be special for you,' he smiled.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'I just want to be with you and I just want to kiss you, since it's been a while,' smiled Elizabeth.

'I think we can do that,' smiled Isaac as he leaned down and kissed her passionately. 'Are you ready to go and see the others?'

'Yes,' smiled Elizabeth. Isaac took Elizabeth by the hand gently, and walked her out to see everyone.

Ryan was the first person that she hugged. 'Thank you for protecting me when Isaac wasn't here,' said Elizabeth as she let him go.

'You're welcome, and happy birthday,' said Ryan as he handed her the fire arrow. As Elizabeth took the arrow, and twirled it in her hands; she felt that it was warm to the touch.

'It's warm,' said Elizabeth.

'That's because of the fire inside of it,' said Isaac. She handed the arrow to Isaac, as she hugged the rest of her friends. 'So, what do you want to do?' he asked her.

'I just want to cuddle up next to you in bed,' replied Elizabeth.

'Okay,' smiled Isaac. He took her by the hand and walked her to the bedroom and closed the door, so they could be alone.

Chapter 12

'What are you doing?' asked Isaac as he watched Elizabeth dial a phone number on her phone and waited for someone to pick up.

'I'm calling my father. I want to see how he is doing after everything that happened,' replied Elizabeth as she laid on Isaac's chest.

'Hello?' asked Elizabeth's dad.

'Hey dad it's me; I just want to know how you're feeling from the other day,' said Elizabeth quickly.

'Who? I'm sorry, but I don't know anyone by the name of Elizabeth,' said her father. There was a short pause. How could he not remember his own daughter? Elizabeth thought to herself.

'Dad it's me Elizabeth, your daughter,' she said.

'I'm sorry, but I don't know you,' said her father before hanging up the phone. Elizabeth hung up the phone after hearing the dial tone and laid there confused and feeling alone.

'What's the matter?' asked Isaac.

'My father doesn't remember who I am,' said Elizabeth as tears ran down her face.

'What?' asked Isaac confusedly.

'He told me that he doesn't have a daughter named Elizabeth,' she said as she began to cry. 'How could this happen! How could I go from having a family to being alone!' she cried as she got up and ran to the bathroom and slammed the door. Isaac quickly got up, and knocked on the door.

'Elizabeth come out here; we will figure this out, and you're not alone,' said Isaac.

'How are we going to figure this out? My father doesn't know who I am,' cried Elizabeth from the bathroom.

'Elizabeth come on, and we will go and see your father,' said Isaac.

'No,' cried Elizabeth. Just then, Ryan was behind Isaac.

'What's the matter? I heard crying,' said Ryan concernedly.

'She called her father and he doesn't remember her...he doesn't remember anything,' explained Isaac.

'It has to be Raven,' said Ryan quickly. 'Because her father was fine a couple days ago.'

'I know, but she won't come out of the bathroom, so we can go and see what we can do,' said Isaac.

'Let me try,' said Ryan, as he moved in front of Isaac and knocked on the door. 'Elizabeth, it's me Ryan, can I come in,' he said. There was a short pause, before they heard her unlocking the door.

'What?' asked Elizabeth wiping her nose with a Kleenex.

'We can help you with your father if you come out,' said Ryan.

'How?' asked Elizabeth.

'First, we can go over there and see what's really going on,' said Ryan. There was another short pause before Elizabeth spoke.

'Alright, I'll go over,' said Elizabeth.

'Good, can you come out now?' Ryan asked.

'Yeah,' replied Elizabeth. She walked out and hugged Isaac. 'I'm sorry for running and crying.'

'That's okay; I just wish that you would talk to me, instead of Ryan all the time,' said Isaac.

'I'm sorry; I promise that I will start talking to you more,' said Elizabeth. Isaac smiled down at her.

'Alright, let's go and see your father,' he said.

2

Elizabeth's father was watching television when she knocked on the door. 'Now who is that?' he asked as he turned off the television with the remote, got up, and went to answer the door.

'Hey dad,' said Elizabeth when he opened the door. Elizabeth's father looked at her with a confused look.

'Who are you?' asked her father.

'Dad it's me, Elizabeth, I'm your daughter,' said Elizabeth quickly.

'No, I'm sorry, but I don't have a daughter, and I was never married,' explained her father. Elizabeth's eyes filled with tears.

'Dad, it's me...I'm your little girl,' said Elizabeth sadly. Her father looked at her for a few minutes.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'No, I'm sorry, but I don't have a daughter,' said her father. He went to slam the door, but Isaac stopped him.

'What is the last thing you remember doing yesterday?' asked Isaac.

'Well, I got up took a shower, and went to see my son,' replied her father.

'Your son?' they both said together.

'Yeah, my son Raven,' replied her father. Isaac and Elizabeth both looked at each other, then back at her father.

'You don't have a son named Raven,' said Elizabeth.

'Yes I do, and his mother died a couple of years ago,' said her father.

'No dad listen to me! My name is Elizabeth and you're my father and my mother died a couple days ago,' explained Elizabeth quickly.

'No, you are mistaken, and I'm going to have to ask you to leave,' said her father before slamming the door in their faces.

'How is this possible?' cried Elizabeth. Isaac gave her a hug.

'We'll figure this out, apparently Raven is behind this, so we have to find him,' said Isaac.

'But how? How do we find him?' asked Elizabeth as she wiped her eyes on her sleeves.

'I don't know; we need to go back to the house and regroup,' said Isaac. He took Elizabeth in his arms as he flew her into the sky.

3

'I don't know, we knew where he was, maybe Raven is still there,' said Ryan.

'Alright, we have to make a plan. Elizabeth, you are going to be our decoy,' began Isaac.

'Oh thanks,' said Elizabeth.

'Now listen, your part in this is the biggest one. You have to get Raven to get outside, and away from his "layer." Then when he is out, we will strike,' explained Isaac.

'But strike how? We can't kill him unless we have all four arrows,' said Michelle angrily.

'We'll just have to beat the crap out of him until he gives in and gets her father's mind back to normal,' said John angrily. There was silence while Isaac thought and took everything in.

'Wait...I got it!' he began as he snapped his fingers together. Everyone moved in closer so they could hear Isaac's plan.

4

'Elizabeth are you alright?' asked Isaac as he walked out on deck and closed the door. Elizabeth was leaning on the railing watching the waves.

'I just can't believe all this is happening. Just last week, I was this normal girl with no problems and a mother who was alive and a father who knew who I was. Now, I have no one,' said Elizabeth sadly.

'You have me,' said Isaac as he touched her hand and smiled at her.

'Isaac, I know I have you here in this world where everything is angels and demons, but what about the normal world that I use to have? Everyone I possibly know are vanishing,' explained Elizabeth.

'You don't like this life or me?' asked Isaac. Elizabeth let out a sigh and turned to Isaac.

'Isaac, I like you...in fact, I love you a lot. You are my best friend and my soul mate. It's just that, I haven't had time to myself since all of this has been happening. I need some me time to think about what is going on and what is happening to my parents,' explained Elizabeth. Isaac looked at her as he thought about what she said. Why would she need some time away from him?

'You can do some thinking here and we will leave you alone, and it'll just be me and you,' said Isaac.

'Isaac your not listening to me! I'm telling you that I need some time to think about what's going on and just be by myself, and I don't want you to come with me!' said Elizabeth. She didn't want to yell at him because she loved him, but she wanted him to understand. To understand what is going on in her life.

'So, when are you thinking about going?' asked Isaac.

'After we do this with Raven. After we do this thing with Raven, then I think I'm going to hang out with my dad for a couple of days,' replied Elizabeth.

'A couple days?' asked Isaac.

'Yes Isaac,' she began as she moved in closer to him. 'If you love me, you will understand that I have to do this,' said Elizabeth. They stared at each other for a few minutes, before Isaac hugged her tightly.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Okay, I'll let you go, but don't forget about me on your time off,' he said.

'I can never forget about you,' said Elizabeth as she smiled up at him and kissed him passionately.

'Alright, let's go get Raven,' said Isaac as he took her hand and they walked back into the house.

I'm curious: What did you guys think of that chapter? And did Elizabeth make the right choice to leave for a few days after everything is over?

Chapter 13

'Okay Elizabeth, remember what we talked about?' asked Isaac as he was holding both of her hands.

'Yes; I know what to do when we get there,' said Elizabeth.

'Alright guys, let's go,' Isaac ordered everyone before hugging Elizabeth and taking off into the sky, followed by everyone else.

When they arrived at Raven's "Layer", they seen that it wasn't being guarded, which was good for them because Elizabeth could walk right in. When Elizabeth finally got the chance to look around; she noticed that she was in the middle of some forest out in the middle of nowhere. She looked around some more and seen that the entrance to Raven's "Layer" was covered by a hillside so no one would recognize what the place was. As Elizabeth looked harder at the door, she had seen that it was made out of stone. 'Okay, that's the entrance way. When you walk in you will walk down a flight of stairs until you reach light and that's when you know that you're there,' explained Isaac quickly as he pointed to the door.

'Okay I got it,' said Elizabeth nervously. She was nervous because she had seen what was down there before, and she didn't really want to go back.

'The others are hiding amongst the trees, so whenever you and Raven walk out, they can capture him,' explained Isaac.

'Okay; Isaac I'm scared. I know what's down there with him and I know what happened the last time,' said Elizabeth as she remembered the last time when Raven's demon stuck both an arrow and a sword into her back, which made her cringe.

'Don't worry, if anything happen's to you, we'll be there in a flash,' said Isaac.

'Okay,' said Elizabeth still a little nervous. 'Well, if I don't see you again, tell everyone that I love them very much and ---,' began Elizabeth but Isaac put a finger to her mouth to keep her quiet.

'Don't think like that. You are going to make it through all of this and we will live happily ever after,' said Isaac.

'Promise?' asked Elizabeth.

'Promise,' replied Isaac. Before Elizabeth opened the door, she kissed Isaac passionately. 'Go and we'll be right here,' he whispered to her. She smiled back, turned to the door, pulled it open, and walked into the darkness as the door closed behind her. As the door slammed closed with an echo, it made Elizabeth jump, making her heart pound really fast.

'Oh, just the door,' she said as she put her hand on her chest, and calmed down a little. 'Great, I can't see anything,' she said to herself when she walked slowly and felt her way through the darkness. 'How am I supposed to see?' she asked herself, just as she remembered that she had her cellphone in her pocket that had a flash light on it.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

So, when she took the cellphone out of her pocket, and turned on the flashlight, she didn't see nothing, but stairs for miles, which looked like they slanted down. Ugh! Why so many steps?' she asked herself as she walked.

2

Isaac was sitting beside the door looking up at the starry sky. It was a nice night, no clouds in sight, the moon was bright, and full, and the sky was filled with stars. 'Dad, please look after Elizabeth as she gets Raven,' he said to the sky.

'I prayed to him to,' said Ryan as he walked out from around the corner.

'I know she'll be okay, but you can't be too sure,' said Isaac as Ryan sat down beside him.

'You really love her, huh?' asked Ryan.

'Yes of course I do; you should know that,' replied Isaac.

'Yeah I know,' sighed Ryan as he looked up at the stars and Isaac looked over at him.

'Do you love her?' asked Isaac to Ryan. There was a short pause as Ryan still looked at the sky, before speaking.

'I'm afraid....I do, but I have never made a move on her, because I know that she loves you and I didn't want to make her chose,' explained Ryan.

'You're good man for not making the move, so I wouldn't have to beat you up,' said Isaac as he patted Ryan on the shoulder and gave a little chuckle.

'So, what are your plans for whenever this is over?' asked Ryan.

'I don't know yet. I would like to marry Elizabeth, but I'm afraid we are too young yet to make that move,' replied Isaac.

'Yes, I would say,' laughed Ryan.

'I'm just hoping we find the rest of the arrows soon, so we can get rid of Raven and everything will be normal,' said Isaac.

'I agree with that,' said Ryan.

As Elizabeth was walking, which to her felt like ever, she started hearing foot steps behind her. She quickly turned around to see who it was, but she couldn't see anyone with her flash light. 'Wh...Whose there?' she asked scaredly as she began to shake. She stopped and heard the footsteps again. 'Wh...Whose there!' she yelled again. 'Sh...Show yourself!' she yelled as she shook. There was silence, and Elizabeth began to get really scared. 'Wh...Who are you?' she asked.

'Ravenss expecting you,' hissed one of the little monsters.

'How did he know I was coming?' asked Elizabeth scaredly.

'Raven knowsss all,' hissed the little monster. Knows all, she thought to herself. If he knows everything, then does he know why she's actually there? She thought to herself.

'Where is he?' asked Elizabeth.

'Why he'sss ssetting up dinner for you two,' he hissed.

'Dinner? I don't have time for any dinner,' said Elizabeth.

'Ah, but I think you'll have time for thiss one...lotsss of time,' said the little monster.

'Please, just take me to Raven,' ordered Elizabeth.

'Fine, I will follow me,' said the little monster as Elizabeth showed the light on his hideous face.

Elizabeth followed the little monster about a mile before she finally seen some light. 'Finally, some light,' said Elizabeth a little tiredly.

'Actually, itsss fire,' said the little monster.

'Fire?' asked Elizabeth nervously.

'Yesss, thiss isss Hell you know,' said the little monster.

'Yes, I guess it is,' said Elizabeth as they approached the entrance. When Elizabeth walked into the room; she seen fire coming out of the ground on the sides of the walls. She also seen all of Raven's monster's making something, but she didn't know what they where pounding.

'Raven awaitsss for you in there,' said the little monster as he ushered her in to another little room. The little monster closed the door without saying anything to Elizabeth. When she turned back around, she seen a table that was set for three people, with gold china. Three people she thought to herself. As she looked on, she seen that the room was made out of bones, but she didn't want to know what kind of bones. There was also a fireplace lit in the middle of the room.

'I hope you're hungry,' said Raven as he was leaning up agains a door way, with his arms crossed and his wings out.

'No, not really; I just need you to come outside with me so we can talk,' said Elizabeth.

'We can talk here and eat as we do,' said Raven.

'Raven, can we please just go outside,' said Elizabeth.

'I figured that you wouldn't want to stay, so i brought a guest,' said Raven.

'A guest?' asked Elizabeth curiously.

'Yes,' replied Raven as he motioned for someone to come forward. As the guest walked forward, Elizabeth couldn't believe her eyes.

'Dad?' asked Elizabeth confusedly.

'Hey hunny,' smiled her father as he walked over and hugged her.

'But you didn't remember who I was earlier,' said Elizabeth.

'Raven explained everything that happened to me and you,' said her father.

'But how did he fix you?' asked Elizabeth.

'Elizabeth, I am made from God..I can pretty much do what I want,' replied Raven.

'But you can't mess around with other people's lives!' yelled Elizabeth.

'Elizabeth, please, let's sit down and eat,' said her father.

'No dad! We have to get out of here!' yelled Elizabeth.

'Why don't you like it here? This is our new home,' said her father.

'What? Dad what has he told you?' asked Elizabeth.

'Well, he told me that you and him are boyfriend and girlfriend, and that we are going to stay here from now on,' replied her father.

'What? That's not who I love!' yelled Elizabeth.

'What do you see in him anyway?' Raven finally yelled.

'Isaac is genuine, he's nice to me, and he treats me good! And he loves me and I love him and I know that he will never cheat on me!' yelled Elizabeth.

'I never cheated on you,' said Raven as he moved closer to Elizabeth.

'I'm not falling for this,' said Elizabeth. She went to turn, but Raven gently grabbed her by the hand and turned her back towards him. They were inches closer to each other and Raven was looking at her dead in the eyes.

'Elizabeth, I honestly and truly love you,' he said to her. 'And I know that you love me to. Just one kiss and we can be together forever, and you can have your life back.' Elizabeth didn't know what she was doing, but she felt like she was in a daze, like she wasn't herself.

'Raven, I can't do this. I have Isaac and he loves me,' said Elizabeth.

'But what is love anyway?' asked Raven. 'It's when two people really like each other and can't live without them right?' he asked her.

'I guess so,' said Elizabeth.

'Well, that's what we are. We are two people who really like each other, and can't live without each other,' explained Raven.

'Raven, I can't,' said Elizabeth as she moved in closer to him.

'Yes you can...just one little kiss,' said Raven. They were a couple inches from each other, until Isaac came in.

'Stop Elizabeth!' yelled Isaac. Elizabeth quickly shook off Raven's spell and turned to look at Isaac.

'Isaac?' asked Elizabeth.

'Yes, come here!' he yelled over to her. Elizabeth went to run to him, but Raven grabbed her by the arm instead.

'No! She will be mine!' yelled Raven as he held her by the arms so she couldn't get freed.

'Let her go!' yelled both Ryan and Isaac.

'No! If you want her you're going to have to come and get her! And before you can get her, you have to fight off my monsters!' yelled Raven as a bunch of little monsters busted through the door when Isaac and Ryan got ready to fight. 'Kill them!' he ordered the little monsters, as Elizabeth cried out for help.

The little monsters swarmed Isaac and Ryan, and they began to fight as Raven flew away with Elizabeth, leaving everyone to fight for their lives.

Chapter 14

'Please, leave me go!' yelled Elizabeth when her and Raven finally landed at some old cabin in the woods.

'No! If I let you go; you will run back to him and I can't have that,' said Raven as he drug Elizabeth to the door of the old riggidy cabin.

'Raven, if you love me that much...you will let me go,' pleaded Elizabeth.

'Only if you kiss me,' said Raven.

'I can't,' said Elizabeth.

'Then you will stay in the cabin until you finally want to kiss me and forget all about Isaac! And don't try to get out, because I have a special lock, that only I know how to unlock,' said Raven as he opened the door and flung Elizabeth inside, making her fall to the floor. 'And Isaac will never find you here!!' she heard Raven yell before slamming and locking the door, leaving Elizabeth alone in the dark crying.

2

'We have to find Elizabeth!' said Isaac panicky.

'Yes, but where to look?' asked Ryan as he killed the last of Raven's little monsters, again.

'I think we might need dad's help again,' said Michelle.

'But he already heled us once. I don't think he'll help us again,' said Isaac.

'We can only try,' said Ryan.

'Okay, you guys go, John, Michael, and I will help clean up the mess,' said Michelle as she looked around at all the dead little monsters lying around.

'Alright, you sure you'll be fine?' asked Isaac.

'Yes, I have John and Michael here,' replied Michelle.

'Okay, let's get going. The faster we get there, the faster we can find Elizabeth,' said Ryan.

'Alright,' said Isaac. They rushed outside, and flew up into the sky.

3

Elizabeth was pounding on the door screaming for help, but no one would come. 'Isaac, please save me,' she whispered when she fell to the floor crying. 'Okay, I need to suck this up,' she tol herself as she took in a deep breath and let it out. 'First, I need to find a light.' Elizabeth got up and searched for a light switch, and found one by the door.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

When Elizabeth turned on the light; she turned around and seen that the cabin she was in, was a log cabin. It was one floor, and she was standing in the living room. When she looked around the living room, Elizabeth seen no television, just a couch, chair, and a fireplace. When she finished looking around the living room, she entered what must of been the bedroom because when she opened the door, all she seen was a bed big enough for her.

Elizabeth walked out and passed the bathroom, which was your original bathroom. The kitchen was also an original kitchen. When she walked out into the living room, to think about how she could get out, she heard a noise. She quickly looked around, but didn't see anything. When she turned back, she seen a fairy floating in front of her.

Elizabeth had to blink her eyes a couple times, and wiped her eyes a couple times, but the fairy was still there. As she looked at the fairy, she noticed that it had black wings and black hair, and was a girl. 'What are you here?' asked Elizabeth confusedly. She was a liitle shocked, because she didn't see a fairy before, and didn't believe in fairies neither. But lately with everything going on, she'd believe anything was possible.

'I am here to help you,' said the little fairy.

'Help me? Help me get out of here?' asked Elizabeth.

'No, help you figure out if you really love Isaac and if Isaac really loves you,' said the fairy.

'I already know that I love Isaac and he loves me,' said Elizabeth.

'Awe, but where is he? If he really loved you, you wouldn't be here alone, now would you?' asked the fairy.

'Isaac tried to save me, but Raven was too fast for him, and had his little monsters attack them,' replied Elizabeth.

'But why did he leave you go in alone to get Raven? He could of went with you,' said the fairy.

'I was the only one who could lead Raven out, because Raven loved me,' said Elizabeth.

'Yes and look where you are. Every time isaac gets near you, you end up captured by Raven. Maybe you two were meant to be apart,' said the fairy.

'No, why would you say that? It's Raven's fault that I'm in here! It's Raven's fault, because he wont let me and Isaac be!!!!' yelled Elizabeth.

'That's becuase Raven loves you, and Isaac doesn't,' said the fairy.

'Stop saying that! Isaac loves me!' Elizabeth yelled.

'Then why isn't he heere trying to save you!?! Why are you still stuck here trying to save yourself and talking to me!' yelled the fairy. Elizabeth didn't say anything, but thought to herself. What if the fairy was right? What if Isaac didn't love her, because he wasn't here trying to get out. 'Awe, I see that I have you thinking now.'

'If Isaac doesn't love me and we're not suppose to be together, then who am I suppose to be with?' asked Elizabeth confusedly.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Your suppose to be with Raven. Just think about it, Elizabeth. Raven has been trying to get to you for a while. Isaac always tries to leave you, because that week when you stayed in their cabin with Ryan. Isaac left you and didn't even bother coming to see how you where,' explained the fairy.

'That is true,' said Elizabeth.

'So, who do you think loves you more?' asked the fairy. Elizabeth didn't say anything. This was a question that she would like to discuss with her mother or bestfriend, but they wheren't here. Her mother wasn't here because she was killed and her bestfriends wasn't here because they where somewhere else. Maybe she was meant to be alone forever, since everyone in the end seems to leave anyway. 'Well?' asked the fairy.

'I'm going to need some time ti decide,' said Elizabeth. The fairy smiled at her before disappearing into thin air. Elizabeth walked over and sat down on the couch, wondering what the heck just happened. Was she really talking to a fairy? On another note, she didn't know who she loved, if she loved anyone. 'Ugh! Why does this have to be so hard!!!!' she asked herself angrily as she slammed her fist down on the red pillow next to her.

As she layed there thinking about everything, she seen a notebook and a pen laying on the coffee table. She quickly picked them up, opened the notebook and pen and wrote Isaac's name with a question mark beside it, and Raven's with a question mark beside his name. She sat there as she tapped the pen on the notebook as she thought.

4

'Dad, we need help!' yelled Isaac as Ryan and him paced back and forth. The room that they where in was all white.

'Yes,' said a voice from overhead. When the voice talked, it was very stron and echoed the room.

'Elizabeth is gone again, and Raven has taen her,' said Isaac.

'I'm sorry, but I can't help you this time,' said their dad.

'Why not?' asked Ryan. Both Ryan's and Isaac's wings where fluttering behind them. They shined the brightest when they where at home.

'Because she doesn't know who she loves and I can not make anyone love anyone,' said the voice.

'Well, she loves me,' said Isaac.

'No, she has ran into Raven's fairy and now the fairy has her thinking about who she loves,' explained the voice.

'What?' asked Ryan confusedly. There was silence for a little while, till a screen came down and showed Elizabeth thinking about who she loved.

'Why does she have to think? She loves me and I love her,' said Isaac angrily.

'But she has to figure that out on her own,' said the voice.

'What are we suppose to do in the mean time?' asked Ryan.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'You guys can search for the arrows,' replied the voice.

'Is it going to take her that long to decide?' asked Isaac concerningly as he watched Elizabeth.

'I don't know how long it's going to take,' said the voice.

'Isaac, don't worry, because Elizabeth knows that she loves you and only you, so it won't take her that long,' said Ryan reassuringly when he put his hand on Isaac's shoulder.

'I hope not, because I can't live without her,' said Isaac as he watched her.

'Well, why don't we start looking for the other three arrows, since Elizabeth already found the fire arrow,' said Ryan.

'Alright,' said Isaac. They said goodbye to their father, and flew back down.

5

'Why is this so hard? I should know that I love Isaac, but why can't I stop thinking about Raven?' Elizabeth asked herself as she stared at the paper with Raven's and Isaac's name on it. 'Ugh! I wish I could talk to someone about this.'

Elizabeth was frustrated after a few minutes, so she threw down the pen on the coffee table, and laid down on the couch. She was also feeling tired from the days events, so she wanted to go to sleep. Hopefully the answer would come to her. She laid there and stared at the ceiling, until she finally fell asleep.

'Elizabeth hunny,' said her mother excitedly with a big smile and her hands held out in front of her.

'Mom? But you died,' said Elizabeth confusedly.

'This is a dream; I am in your dream,' said her mom. Elizabeth didn't say anything, but ran into her mother's arms and hugged her tightly, she didn't want to let go.

'Mom, I have so much to talk to you about,' said Elizabeth as they sat down on a bench.

'You can tell me anything, sweetie,' said her mom. Elizabeth explained everything that happened with her dad and everything with Raven and Isaac. 'Wow, a lot has happened since I left.'

'Yes, and not I have to chose between Raven or Isaac,' said Elizabeth.

'Well, who do you love more?' asked her mother.

'That's the thing. I don't know who I love more...I thought I loved Isaac, but then I keep thinking about Raven. Why does this have to be so hard? I want to go back to normal, when you where here with me and I didn't have to worry about Raven getting me,' said Elizabeth as tears ran down her face. Her mom gave her a hug.

'Don't worry hunny, everything will be okay, and you will be happy again,' said her mom.

'I'm starting to think that won't ever happen,' said Elizabeth.

'Believe me, it will happen,' smiled her mother.

'Promise?' asked Elizabeth.

'Promise,' replied her mother. When Elizabeth looked up to her mother, she had seen that her mom was starting to fade away, along with everything else. Elizabeth screamed for her mother, but everything went black and Elizabeth woke up, in tears.

Chapter 15

Chapter 15

'I just want out! How do I get out!' cried Elizabeth as she looked around for a way out. She wiped her eyes when she got up and walked towards the door. She quickly tried the door knob, but no use, it wouldn't budge. She then, began to pound on the door. As she pounded on the door; she started to cry again, and gave up the pounding as she fell to the floor in tears.

As she sat there and cried; she thought about Isaac and Raven and who'd she loved more. But why couldn't she choose? All she knew, was that she wanted to get out of there, and go home. She wanted to be normal again, and she wanted her nother back. 'I can't do this no more! I can't choose and I'm not going to choose!' cried Elizabeth. If she wasn't going to choose, then what would she do? She had to get out, and wanted to get out, but how? She sat there and cried as she thought.

2

'This sucks!' yelled Michelle when Isaac and Ryan told her what went on. They where all standing on the deck, as they paced angrily back and forth.

'I know, but what are we going to do? We have no idea where Elizabeth is,' said Isaac as he leanded on the railing and watched the water.

'But she knows that she loves Isaac so what is taking her so long?' asked Michelle.

'She doesn't know who she loves,' said Isaac disappointly.

'She couldn't possibly love Raven?' asked Michelle angrily.

'We don't know,' said Ryan.

'But what would happen if she would pick Raven?' asked Michael.

'If Elizabeth would pick Raven and kiss him, then we would disappear. We would seize to exist,' said Ryan.

'Like, we wouldn't be on Earth anymore?' asked John.

'Yes,' replied Ryan.

'What if she doesn't choose anyone and wants a normal life?' asked Michael.

'Then, you two would be back in school, but John you would have never met Michelle, and you guys wouldn't be friends with Elizabeth, because her mind would be erased and she wouldn't remember anything about us or anything that has happened,' explained Ryan.

'Woah, this does suck,' said John.

'Yes it does,' said Isaac.

'So what? We wait and see if we disappear?' asked Michael as they all looked at him.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Well we can do that or we can help Elizabeth find the rest of the arrows,' replied Ryan.

'What's the sense in that if we are just going to disappear,' said John disappointly.

'We don't know that...that's why we can start looking for the arrows, just in case,' said Michelle as she put her arms around John's waist.

'But where do we start looking?' asked Michael. He was standing with his arms crossed.

'That's what we don't know,' said Isaac sadly. He didn't care about the arrows right now; he just wanted Elizabeth back so he could hold her and tell her that he loved her.

'There has to be a way to find the rest of the arrows,' said John.

'Yes, but we have the slightest clue,' said Michelle. Isaac didn't say a word, but just walked passed everyone and into the house.

'Where's he going?' asked Michael.

'He just needs sometime to think. He's pretty upset, because he let Raven get Elizabeth,' said Ryan.

'But we need his help,' said John.

'Believe us; Elizabeth's not going anywhere, because Raven likes her too much to hurt her,' said Michelle.

As Elizabeth got up; she seen the sun coming through the windows. 'It's morning already?' she asked herself, as she went to get up and her stomach growled. 'Ugh! I'm hungry,' she said as she held her stomach and walked into the kitchen, hoping to find food. When she reached the white refrigerator; she opened the door, and looked inside. To her surprise, the fridge was full. So, Elizabeth closed the door and looked into the freezer. The freezer was also packed full, which scared her a little bit. How long was she suppose to stay here? She thought to herself. As Elizabeth thought about this, her stomach growled again, and she pulled out a pack of sausage and eggs from the fridge, and began to cook breakfast.

After Elizabeth was done eating; she cleaned up, and wanted to shower, but no clothes. 'This sucks!' she yelled as she sat down on the couch. 'There has to be a way out of here,' she said to herself as she looked around. When she sat up on the couch; she noticed the notebook with Raven and Isaac's name on it with question marks. Elizabeth then thought about Isaac and what he was doing and if he was thinking about her, like she was thinking about him. She had missed him, since they haven't been able to really spend time with each other that much. 'I have to find a way out of here,' said Elizabeth as she stood up quickly. She ran to the front of the wooden door, hoping that the door was unlocked, but there was nothing. She tried the doorknob till she was red in the face, but nothing. She tried pushing the door as she turned the doorknob, but nothing. it was like she was never going to get out of there.

After trying to open the door for half hour, she finally gave up. 'There's no use, it's like he barricaded me in,' she said to herself as she caught her breath. When she turned to face the living room, and leaned against the door; she decided to check the whole house. There had to be another way out of there, other than the front door. So, after Elizabeth caught her breath, she began to walk to the back of the house. She decided to work from the back and make her way to the front. When she finished checking the bedroom, she went into the library. It wasn't a very big library, but it had just enough books to keep Elizabeth occupied. The room had three bookshelves along the back of the room, and a desk sitting in front of them, with no computer.

Elizabeth also noticed some pictures hanging on the walls. The pictures were of her and Raven, as they were holding hands and walking in the park, and Elizabeth was smiling and it looked like Raven was too. When Elizabeth looked at these pictures, she just laughed to herself, thinking that this couldn't be true. She then turned around and seen a window and peered out. She didn't see nothing but woods for miles. 'Of course...out in the middle of nowhere,' said Elizabeth as she walked over to the nice shiny brown chair, and sat behind the desk. She sat there and tapped her fingers on the desk, thinking about what to do next.

When she couldn't think of what to do next, Elizabeth turned around to check out the books, maybe there was an idea there. As she lifted the books out to read the titles, nothing really interested her until she went to pull the last book from the shelf, but it only tilted. 'This one must be stuck,' said Elizabeth when she tugged on the book some more and heard a click, and all a sudden the bookshelves opened up, and showed a dark passage way. Elizabeth's mouth dropped open in surprise, as she stood up to peek through, but couldn't see nothing, because the tunnel was too dark. So Elizabeth grabbed her cellphone. turned on the flash light, and began to slowly walk down the steps.

Isaac was in his study pacing back and forth, thinking about what to do to get Elizabeth back. He just couldn't believe that Raven had taken her and hidden her again. But where has he hidden her this time? He thought to himself. As Isaac thought, he just got madder and madder. So, he walked over to the recliner chair, picked it up, and threw the chair across the room and the chair slammed into the wall, knocking some of the wall to the floor as the chair fell with a big thud. 'Now that won't work,' said Ryan as he was leaning up against the doorway with his arms crossed.

'What do you want?' asked Isaac angrily as he went and plopped down in the chair behind his desk.

'I just want to come and talk to you to see what you were thinking,' said Ryan when he walked into the room.

'I'm thinking about how I let Elizabeth down, twice,' said Isaac disappointly when he put his hand to his forehead and scratched it.

'You didn't let her down,' said Ryan.

'How do you figure?' asked Isaac.

'Well, is she hurt?' asked Ryan.

'No, not that I'm aware of,' said Isaac. Everytime that Elizabeth gets hurt, Isaac feels her pain, and knows exactly where she is.

'Is she dead?' asked Ryan.

'No,' said Isaac.

'Well then, you didn't let her down,' said Ryan.

'I just don't know what to do. I don't know where she is or how to get to her,' said Isaac.

'Don't worry, we'll find her like the last time,' said Ryan.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'But dad helped us the last time, and he can't help us this time,' said Isaac angrily.

'We'll do it on our own. We can show everyone that we can this ourselves,' explained Ryan.

'Ryan, I don't know where to start. I don't even know where Raven is,' said Isaac. Ryan leaned on the desk before speaking as his wings fluttered.

'Who knows more about Raven than dad?' asked Ryan. Isaac just looked at him confused. 'Who did dad say that Elizabeth came in contact with to make her think that she doesn't love you?' asked Ryan. Isaac thought for a couple of minutes till it hit him.

'Raven's fairy,' replied Isaac.

'And where do fairies live?' asked Ryan.

'In the woods, underground, in hills, or in the mounds of rock,' replied Isaac.

'That's who we need to look for and that's where we need to start looking,' said Ryan.

'I don't know, this might take forever,' said Isaac.

'Isaac, if you want Elizabeth back, then this is what we have to do! We can't be afraid!' yelled Isaac as he slammed his fist down on the desk as he broke it, and stood up when his wings began to flutter.

'Then help us get Elizabeth back! Help us get the one person that you said you couldn't live without back!' yelled Ryan.

'Alright, I'll go,' said Isaac. 'We'll have to search every woods, and every inch of the globe!'

'It doesn't matter to me, I'm in,' said Ryan.

'But what about the others? Fairies don't like too many people around,' said Isaac.

'We'll just tell them what's going on. Michelle should understand,' said Ryan.

'Alright, let's go and tell them,' said Isaac. He quickly walked out of the room, followed by Ryan.

Chapter 16

Chapter 16

'But why do I get to miss all the action?' asked Michelle angrily, before pounding a fist down on the picnic table and breaking it in two.

'Michelle, you have to stay here to protect John and Michael. You don't want anything to happen to them, do you?' asked Ryan. Michelle took a deep breath and let it out, before answering.

'No, I don't,' said Michelle.

'Michelle, you stay home this time, and I promise the big fight at the end, you can be there,' said Isaac.

'You better let me be there,' said Michelle.

'Don't worry, you will,' smiled Isaac.

'Alright, I guess I'll stay here,' said Michelle a little happier.

'Yes and try not to wreck anything else,' said Ryan. Michelle looked at the picnic table, now in half.

'Oh, sorry,' said Michelle before rushing over to John and hugging him.

'Alright, hopefully this shouldn't take long and we'll be back, but in the mean time, you guys just relax here and don't get into trouble,' ordered Isaac to the three of them.

'Okay, Isaac, don't worry about us, we'll be fine,' said Michelle.

'We better get going while there's still light,' said Ryan.

'Okay, I'm ready to go,' said Isaac. Ryan and Isaac's wings started to flap and then they took off into the sky.

'Now, what are we going to do?' asked Michael after the three of them couldn't see Isaac and Ryan anymore.

'I know what we are going to do,' smiled John as Michelle smiled up at him and they kissed.

'Please get a room,' said Michael as he rolled his eyes and looked away.

'Not a bad idea,' smiled John as he took Michelle's hand and led her inside the cabin. Michael watched them hold each other, and smiling and laughing as he thought to himself. 'When am I going to find happiness like that,' he said before walking into the cabin, thinking about what he could do.

2

'I love you,' smiled Michelle as she looked up at John. Michelle was lying under the covers, but she wasn't wearing any clothes. John's chest was showing, but he was also naked, lying underneath the covers. Michelle was lying on John's chest. John had one arm around Michelle, looking up at the ceiling.

'I love you to,' said John and he really meant every word.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'John, I know this thing between Raven, Isaac, and Elizabeth is probably going to end in blood shed and some people might die,' said Michelle.

'I know, but I'm not going anywhere,' said John.

'No, I know that you're not going anywhere, but I just want to warn you ahead of time, what might happen,' said Michelle. She was worried, because John was only human, and he could die without him knowing how she really feels.

'Michelle, no one is ever going to tear us apart,' said John.

'I just want you to know how I really feel about you,' said Michelle as she leaned up to look at John in his eyes. 'I love you John....I have always loved you from the very first moment that we laid eyes on each other. And I know that I want to be with you forever,' she explained as tears filled her eyes and she smiled.

There was silence, until John leaned up and opened the drawer of the night stand beside the bed, and pulled out a little black box. 'I was waiting for the perfect time to do this, but now seems like a perfect time,' smiled John.

'What?' asked Michelle surprised.

Before John spoke; he opened the box and Michelle's eyes grew wide with surprise and the tears fell from her eyes, and a smile appeared on her face. The diamond ring was the biggest one that Michelle had ever seen. It was ten carats and the band was silver. 'Michelle Black, I know now how much you love me,' John began. 'I love you with all my heart. It doesn't matter that you are an angel and have wings; I would still love you the same if you were human like me. The first time we meant, I felt the same way as you. I knew that we would spend the rest of our lives together and that we would have amazing children. So, with that said, Michelle Black, will you do me the honors of making me the happiest guy in the world, and would you marry me?' he asked a little nervously.

Michelle closed her eyes and opened them, 'yes, I will marry you,' smiled Michelle as she stuck out her hand, so John could slip on the ring. John smiled and kissed her passionately.

Elizabeth thought it felt like forever, since she started walking down the dark tunnel. She was starting to give up, when she seen a light at the end of the tunnel. 'Oh, thank god,' said Elizabeth. Her feet were hurting her from walking so much. 'Hello? Is there anyone there? I have been trapped in this cabin for a day now, but it feels like forever, can anyone help me?' yelled Elizabeth when she reached the room. There was no answer.

When Elizabeth walked in and looked around; she noticed that the room was like back in the old days. The room didn't have electricity, but it was lit by candles and the fireplace. The walls were made out of rocks, and there was a table in the center of the room, already set for three people.

Elizabeth's hand was almost on the cup of water, when she seen some lady rushing in with something in her hands. The something looked like plates of food, and the woman was wearing a maids outfit, so she must be the servant. 'Oh, excuse me, could you help me, I've seem to be a little lost,' said Elizabeth when the maid rushed out like Elizabeth didn't say anything. 'Why didn't she say anything, back?' asked Elizabeth confusedly.

Just then, Isaac, Raven, and Michelle walked in to sit down and as the maid walked into give Raven his meal, they began to eat. 'Isaac!' yelled Elizabeth. Before she ran over to him, she noticed that he didn't hear her.

'What's going on here? Why doesn't anyone hear me?' she asked out loud.

She didn't know what else to do, when Isaac began to talk. 'So, you and Elizabeth have been getting along well,' said Isaac as he finished his last bite and laid the fork down. Elizabeth was intrigued now, because she heard her name.

'Yeah, in fact, she should be on her way now, because I invited her to walk with us in the park later,' replied Raven as he finished eating.

'Is everything okay?' asked the maid when she returned to the room.

'Uh yes, everything's wonderful,' smiled Isaac.

'That's good,' said the servant. She then turned to Raven. 'Raven, could I see you in the kitchen, please?' asked the servant.

'Yeah sure,' replied Raven before getting up and following the servant out. Elizabeth just watched the two walk out of the room as she followed them.

Isaac and Raven landed in the forest with a thud, as they made the trees shake and birds flew out of them. 'Alright, we need to split up, that way it won't take us that long to search the whole woods,' ordered Isaac.

'Okay, we'll meet right back here,' said Ryan. Isaac shook his head in agreement as they broke off in their separate ways.

Ryan walked to the left. He had to keep his eyes open and searching because the fairies were really hard to see, since they were tiny. When Ryan was walking, he'd seen a mound in the hillside. The mound had an opening for the entrance, but it was too dark for him to see, so he had to walk up to the mound. As Ryan leaned on the mound, and peeked through, he didn't notice anything flying around. 'This is ridiculous; I can't find a fairy,' said Ryan angrily.

'What are you doing?' asked a little voice from behind him. The voice scared Ryan, and he jumped as he turned around. When he turned around, he noticed a little green fairy flying in front of him.

'I'm looking for a fairy,' said Ryan a little jumpy. The fairy gave a little laugh.

'You would have to be more specific than that...there are a few different kinds of fairies out there,' said the little green fairy.

'How many fairies are actually out there?' asked Ryan.

'Well, why don't you sit down, because this may take a while,' replied the green fairy.

'I don't have that much time,' said Ryan.

'Believe me, this would help you in your journey,' said the green fairy.

'Alright then,' said Ryan as he sat down on the green grass with his wings fluttering behind him.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Okay, there are five different kinds of fairies. The first fairy is the green fairy, which is me. We live all throughout the forest and we care for the forest. The second type of fairy is the love fairy. This fairy is red and it brings two people together, who really love each other. They usually come around where there's people. The third fairy is called the water fairy. This fairy is blue and protects the oceans, and anything that has to deal with water. They also protect the animals in the ocean and the rivers and so on. These fairies live near the waters. The fourth fairy is the fire fairy. This fairy controls fire. They are usually red and black. These fairies are bad fairies and we try to keep them away from the forests, because they always try to burn them down. The fifth fairy is the worst of them all. These fairies are all black and usually work with the bad guys. These fairies usually try to tear people apart, or help the bad people to kill the good ones. These fairies are called Destroyers and they come around wherever they want,' explained the green fairy. Ryan took a moment to gather up all the information that was just given to him. The last fairy is the one that him and Isaac needed, but where to find them?

'Where do we find the last fairy that you talked about?' asked Ryan.

'Hmm, the destroyer? She usually floats around in the forests sometimes, but I couldn't tell you where to find her. She is always on the move, and is hard to keep up with,' replied the green fairy.

'But we need to get her, so we can get Elizabeth,' said Ryan.

'I'm sorry, but I can't help you with that,' said the green fairy.

'Then why are you here?' asked Ryan.

'Because you are at my home,' said the green fairy.

'Well, I'm trying to look for the destroyer,' said Ryan angrily.

'Why is that?' asked the green fairy.

'Why what?' asked Ryan.

'Why do you want to find this girl so bad?' asked the green fairy.

'Because, she is my best friend,' said Ryan.

'I think there's something more to that,' said the green fairy.

'There is nothing else to that,' said Ryan. The green fairy stared deep into his eyes. Ryan wanted to look away, but couldn't. It was like the fairy was reading his mind.

'You love this girl. But you are such a nice guy that you won't say anything, like she already has to,' explained the fairy. Ryan didn't say a word, but just stared at the fairy.

Chapter 17

'I'm right,' smiled the green fairy.

'Alright, fine,' said Ryan. 'I love her, but I know that she doesn't love me,' she said.

'You are a good man, and for that, I know that love will find your way soon enough,' said the green fairy.

'But will you help us find the destroyer?' asked Ryan.

'I will spread the word to my friends,' said the green fairy.

'Thank you,' said Ryan before the fairy flew away, and Ryan went to meet Isaac to tell him what had happened.

2

'Why did you call me in here?' asked Raven as he walked slowly towards the servant.

'I just wanted to see if you were going to tell Elizabeth or if you already told her,' said the servant, as she gently touched Raven's bicep.

'I'm going to tell her. When we are in the park tonight,' said Raven.

'Okay, I just can't wait to be with you forever,' smiled the servant.

'Me neither,' said Raven as he pushed the servant up against the wall, and began kissing her neck.

'Oh Raven,' said the servant when she wrapped her arms around him. 'I don't know if we can do this here,' said the servant as she moaned.

'Oh come on baby,' said Raven as he sucked her neck.

'Okay, let's go in the closet though,' she moaned. Raven picked her up, and the servant wrapped her legs around him as he carried her to the closet, and Raven closed the door behind him.

'You jerk!' yelled Elizabeth. She was so mad that she ran out of the room, trying to get Isaac's attention. 'Isaac, please hear me! I love you and I love only you!' she yelled as tears ran down her cheeks. 'Please...someone hear me!' she yelled. No one heard her. She didn't like this at all. She didn't like the fact that no one couldn't hear her and no one could see her. She felt utterly alone, and she never wanted to be alone. She wanted to be with Isaac, and now she knew that she wanted to be with Isaac for the rest of her life. It didn't matter what she had to do; she was going to get back to Isaac and her friends, even if she has to die to reach them.

'Where's Raven?' asked the other Elizabeth when she walked in and seen that Raven was nowhere in sight.

'Oh, he's in the kitchen,' said Michelle.

'Yes, I can go and get him if you want,' said Isaac as he couldn't keep her eyes off of her.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'No, that's fine; I'll go and get him,' said the other Elizabeth before walking into the kitchen, followed by the real Elizabeth.

'Raven,' said the other Elizabeth when she reached the kitchen, but didn't see anyone. It was quiet, until she heard some rustling coming from the pantry. So, Elizabeth rushed over to see if it was Raven or someone she knew. But when she opened the door, she couldn't believe her eyes. 'What are you two doing?' yelled the other Elizabeth angrily.

'Elizabeth, it's not what it looks like,' said Raven quickly when he pulled up his pants, and went to go after her. Elizabeth turned around, and stormed out, before Raven could touch her. The real Elizabeth was furious, and she ran after the other Elizabeth. When the other Elizabeth ran passed Isaac and Michelle in tears, Isaac watched as she ran, then got up and ran after her.

'Elizabeth, wait!' yelled Isaac as the other Elizabeth reached the park, and stopped and sat down at the angel fountain and cried. Isaac seen Elizabeth crying on the fountain, and slowly walked over to her. He sat down next to her, and gently touched her hand. The other Elizabeth looked up at him through tears.

'How could he do this to me?' How could he cheat on me?' she cried.

'Because, he's a bad man that doesn't deserve you, I deserve you, not him,' said Isaac.

'What?' cried the other Elizabeth.

'Elizabeth, I love you. Ever since I laid eyes on you, I loved you,' said Isaac.

'Oh Isaac,' cried Elizabeth as she hugged him.

'I knew it!' yelled Raven. The other Elizabeth and Isaac stood up quickly.

'Raven, what did you think was going to happen? You can't have two women at once!' yelled Isaac.

'Elizabeth is mine! She will always be mine!' yelled Raven as he ran towards Isaac and tackled him into the angel statue, shattering it to pieces.

'Stop!' screamed Elizabeth, but Raven didn't stop. Instead, Raven grabbed Isaac, and began punching him repeatedly in the face. 'Stop it!' she yelled once more, but he still didn't hear.

'I love her Raven, and I will go to the ends of the world for her,' said Isaac with a bloody face.

'You will never have her!' yelled Raven. Raven went to punch Isaac again, when a male voice rang the park, shaking the ground, making Elizabeth and Raven fall to the floor.

'Stop it now! There is no fighting here!' said the male voice.

'He started it dad!' yelled Raven.

'I don't care; you are kicked out! You will never enter here again,' the voice yelled.

'But dad?' said Raven.

'No, this is enough!' yelled the male voice.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Fine, I will find her mark my words,' yelled Raven. Just then, the ground below Raven disappeared, and he fell down and down, until the ground reappeared.

'Thank you, dad,' said Isaac as the wounds on his face began to heal and the other Elizabeth ran towards him.

'Are you alright?' asked Elizabeth scaredly.

'Yes, I'm fine,' said Isaac as he smiled at her.

'She can not stay here,' said the male voice.

'Why not? She hasn't done anything wrong?' Isaac said.

'But Raven will try and get in here, and I can not do any harm to anyone, and can't have anymore fighting. She will go until all this is settled, and you can stay here and watch over her, till she needs your help,' explained the voice.

'Alright,' said Isaac.

'You two can say your goodbyes,' said the voice.

'I don't want to leave you,' said Elizabeth as she cried.

'It's okay, we will meet again,' said Isaac. Elizabeth cried and Isaac kissed her, as the ground disappeared, and Elizabeth fell, leaving Isaac by himself.

'The real Elizabeth couldn't believe what she had just witnessed. She just witnessed her being thrown out of Heaven, Raven being also thrown out, and she falling in love with Isaac. Elizabeth already knew that she loved Isaac, but didn't know how much, and now she knows. Now she can tell Raven how much she loves Isaac, and how much she hates Raven, and maybe this will get her out, and she can see Isaac again. So, Elizabeth quickly ran to the door, and down the tunnel, and back to the cabin to tell Raven.

Michelle and John told Michael the news of them getting married. 'We are going to wait until all this is over with Isaac and Elizabeth; that way no one will interfere,' said Michelle as Michael oohed and awed over her ring.

'That's a good idea,' said Michael. 'Oooh, now I have something to do as we wait for them to come back,' said Michael happily.

'You can't start planning it now,' said John.

'Oh yes, a good wedding taked a long time to plan,' said Michael as he grabbed Michelle away and into the kitchen to talke about the wedding plans. John just laughed to himself, when he turned and walked outside on the deck for some fresh air.

When John leaned on the railing to watch the waves, he noticed something very odd. When he looked at the waves, they where frozed. 'What's going on?' he asked to himself, when he turned around to see Michelle and Michael, but they where frozen to talking about the wedding at the kitchen table.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'I have frozen time,' said a voice from behind him. John turned around, and seen Raven standing there, with his wings out.

'Why are you here?' asked John angrily.

'Now calm down. I am here to get you on my side and to help me get Elizabeth back,' said Raven.

'And why would I want to do that?' John asked angrily.

'Aww, now that's a good question,' said Raven as he waved his hand, and Michelle appeared beside him. 'I take it this is the woman that you love with all your heart. I can leave her to know you or make her forget you, all you have to do si choose,' said Raven. John loved Michelle with all his heart, and he would die, then let anything to happen to her. John took a breath, then let it out, before answering.

'What do I have to do?' asked John.

'All you have to do is convince Elizabeth that she doesn't love Isaac, that she loves me. All I need is one kiss from her and she'll be mine forever,' said Raven.

'But we will seize to exist,' said John.

'If you help me do this, then you can live forever, like Elizabeth and I will,' said Raven. 'But if you don't, then everything you will know will be lost forever.'

How do I get her to love you when she isn't here?' asked John.

'You will go to the cabin that she is in. Don't worry, I will fly you there, and Michelle and Michael will still be frozen in time, until the job is done do we have a deal?' asked Raven as he held out his hand for John to shake. John looked at Michelle, then to Raven's hand. John walked in closer, then shook his hand.

'Alright,' said John.

'Good man,' said Raven. With nothing else said, Raven took John's hand, and flew him to where Elizabeth was.

4

'So the fairy didn't tell you anything then,' said Isaac.

'No, not really,' said Ryan. 'Did you find anything?'

'No, we have to continue our search elsewhere. We'll have to hurry, because it'll be getting dark soon,' said Isaac.

'This sucks, we're never going to find her,' said Ryan angrily.

'We will, don't worry, I have faith,' said Isaac.

'Isaac, what if Raven has won? What if she loves him and not you?' asked Ryan.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'We're still here, so that's proof enough to me, so we keep hunting until she makes up her mind,' said Isaac. Ryan remembered what the green fairy had said to him about he loving Elizabeth, and he couldn't keep it in any longer.

'Isaac, I have something to tell you, and ti's very important, so I ask you please not to spaz out until I'm done,' said Ryan calmly.

'Okay,' said Isaac confusedly.

'Alright, remember when I told you that I liked Elizabeth, well that was a lie. I love Elizabeth like the way you love Elizabeth,' said Ryan. Isaac's jaw dropped, and he grew instantly mad the second that Ryan told him this.

'What?!' Isaac yelled.

'Yes, it's true,' replied Ryan. Isaac couldn't talk, because he was so mad. Instead, he ran towards Ryan, smashing through a couple trees, and finally landing on the ground.

'How could you love her liek I do?!' You know that she belongs to me!' yelled Isaac as he held Ryan down.

'I don't know how it happened, it just did,' said Ryan.

'Then you can't help me! I don't want you helping me, because you ar not on my side!' yelled Isaac.

'Yes, I am on your side. I still want to get her back,' said Ryan.

'Just for yourself, well, you can't help her and I don't want you helping me! From now on, you are on your own!' yelled Isaac.

'But we can't do this by ourselves,' said Ryan as Isaac got off of him.

'I will show you and everyone else that I can and I will get her back!' said Isaac angrily.

'Isaac please, we're brothers,' begged Ryan.

'We where brothers, now I have no brothers!' yelled Isaac as he began to flap his wings furiously, and flew up into the sky, leaving Ryan standing there alone.

Chapter 18

Chapter 18

'Raven I have to talk to you!' yelled Elizabeth as she screamed at the top of her lungs. There was no answer back, until there was a pounding on the door. The pounding echoed the room, scaring Elizabeth making her jump. 'Uh..who is there?' she asked.

'Elizabeth, it's me John,' he replied.

'John?' Elizabeth asked feeling a little confused. 'How'd you find me?'

'Don't worry about that, can I come in?' asked John. There was silence as Elizabeth thought about how John could have found her. No one was suppose to find her here, and why wasn't Isaac or anyone else with him?

'No, where are the others?' asked Elizabeth.

'There looking for you,' replied John.

'What about Michelle? Why isn't she with you?'

'Because, she was oredered to stay at the house, just in case you where to show up,' replied John.

'No, this sounds too sketchy,' said Elizabeth.

Just then, the door busted open, with Raven holding John by the neck. 'Raven no, please let him down!' yelled Elizabeth.

'You should have listened to him,' said Raven when he walked in to the livingroom.

'Raven, if you love me and want to hear my answer, then you have to let John go,' begged Elizabeth quickly.

'No, your answer is no good! You are going to have to show me! If you want to save John, then you must show me,' said Raven, still holding John by the neck. Elizabeth took one look at John and seen the scared look on his face. She didn't love Raven, but she didn't want to see John die, and be the one to hurt Michelle. She also didn't want to lose one of her best friends, neither. But what to do? What if she kisses Raven, what happens then? Even though she didn't love him. She would have to try it, so she could save John.

'Alright, I'll show you, but you have to let John go first,' ordered Elizabeth.

'You come here first, then I'll let him go,' said Raven.

'Fine,' said Elizabeth. She took one last look at John's scared face, then began to walk slowly towards them.

2

'Why did I have to tell him that I loved Elizabeth,' said Ryan angrily as he paced back and forth, not knowing what to do. 'Ugh!' he yelled as he punched a tree, smashing half of the tree, making it fall to the ground. When the tree fell to the ground, Ryan noticed something odd about the tree. As he looked at the tree lying down on the ground, he seen that the middle of the tree was hollow. 'That's odd,' Ryan said to himself when he knelt down and looked at the tree. 'I wonder why this tree is hollow?' he asked himself when he stood up.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

When Ryan stood up; he happened to look in the trunk of the tree. Like the other half of the tree, this part was hollow to. But as Ryan looked down the trunk, he noticed that it seemed to be leading to somewhere. But where? Should he go in or should he stay? 'Why not? I have nothing else to lose,' he said to himself before jumping into the tree stump and falling down the tunnel.

'Why would he tell me that! Why would he risk our friendship!' yelled Isaac when he landed in the forests of Ireland. 'He knows how much I love her!' he yelled.

Just then, Isaac fell to the ground, holding his head and screaming. 'Elizabeth, I can feel you,' said Isaac, still on the ground. He then felt a sharp pain in his back, as he fell on his stomach, yelling. 'Nooo! Elizabeth!' he yelled. he was holding on to the ground in pain. If he was in pain, that means that Elizabeth was in pain, but he couldn't see where she was yet. Isaac then, grabbed hold of his leg and yelled again. 'Come on, tell me where you are!' he yelled.

As he said this; Isaac had a vision of a cabin in the forest, not far from where he was. He then, got a glimpse at the inside of the cabin, and seen Elizabeth lying on the floor with a bloody head and leg. Isaac was so furious, that he managed to get up, and fly to where Elizabeth was.

'Isaac, please help me,' cried Elizabeth as she lay there bleeding from her head and leg.

'Isaac can't help you now, because he doesn't know where you are!' yelled Raven. John was lying on the floor unconscious, because Raven hit him up against the wall, knocking him out. Raven went over and knelt beside Elizabeth.

'Raven, you love me,' said Elizabeth.

'That was before you betrayed me! Before you tried to trick me and tried to make me believe that you loved me,' said Raven angrily.

'Raven I'm sorry, but you were going to try and kill one of my best friends,' said Elizabeth. Blood was running from her head down her cheek, and dripping on the floor.

'He was getting in the way of us and our relationship,' said Raven.

'We don't have a relationship. I have seen what happened, and you were the one who cheated on me,' said Elizabeth.

'I told you that that was the servants fault,' said Raven.

'No Raven,' Elizabeth begged as she had to take a breath. 'I seen you two and it was you that started everything, and you were going to tell me that night in the park anyway,' she explained. Raven closed his eyes, because he knew what Elizabeth was right, but if he couldn't have her, then no one would have her.

'Your right, but I can't bear to see you with anyone else, especially my brother, Isaac,' said Raven. Elizabeth seen Raven's eye expression change from happy to angry.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'What are you saying?' asked Elizabeth in pain.

Raven went to speak, but the door busted open, showing Isaac. 'Get away from her!' yelled Isaac. Raven smiled evilly at Elizabeth.

'I'm glad that you are here,' began Raven as he slowly stood up. 'But I have to ask; how did you know that we were here, and she was here?' he asked when he turned to Isaac.

'That's a little secret,' said Isaac, still standing in the doorway.

'Well, since we're telling secrets now,' began Raven. 'I'm going to tell you what happened here. Your lovely girlfriend, tried to trick me into loving her, so I would leave John alone, but I saw right through her,' he said when he pointed to where John was lying and Isaac looked over and saw John unconscious.

'I'm glad that she tricked you into loving her, because she doesn't. She loves me,' said Isaac.

'I know that now, and that's why I declare a war,' said Raven.

'What?' asked Isaac.

'You heard me, a war! And I'm not going to stop until you, her, and everyone is dead! Because if I can't have her than no one will!' yelled Raven.

'Raven, if you do this, then you can hurt not only us, but all the humans living on Earth,' Isaac tried to explain to him. Raven just shook his head from side to side, because he didn't want to hear any of this.

'I don't care! The only thing I cared about in this world and Heaven, is Elizabeth,' he began when he pointed to her lying on the floor in a puddle of blood from her head. 'And she doesn't love me, or care about me, so I don't care about you or anyone else!' yelled Raven.

'Then why don't you try to end it here and right now? Why do you need to bring everyone else in to this, while we're right here?' asked Raven angrily.

'Alright, if that's what you want,' said Raven. He slowly began to walk over towards Elizabeth. Her eyes were half closed, but she could still see Raven walking towards her. Raven bent down and picked Elizabeth up by the back of her dress. Isaac went to run to her, but Raven stopped him. 'No! You stay there!' yelled Raven.

'Raven please, take me and leave her alone!' begged Isaac.

'No! This is war and I'm starting with her!' yelled Raven.

'Please Raven, I will do whatever you want,' cried and begged Elizabeth.

'I have fallen for this before, and I'm not falling for it again,' said Raven angrily. He went to break Elizabeth's neck, but thankfully, Isaac slammed into Raven, knocking them to the floor, giving Elizabeth a chance to crawl away, and see if John was okay.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

Ryan had entered the tree trunk and fell about a foot into blackness. 'Ouch!' he said when he got up off the ground. He tried to adjust his eyes in the darkness, but he still couldn't see. 'How am I suppose to see?' he asked himself as he felt around.

'I will help you,' said a female voice from behind him. The voice scared Ryan and he jumped as he turned around to see a bright light. Ryan had to shield his eyes to see, because she was so bright. 'Oh, I'm sorry. Am I too bright? I will dim the light down for you,' said the woman. When the woman dimmed the light, Ryan could see her, and she was the prettiest woman that he ever seen. She was about five for five, had short brown hair, and wore a white dress with white high heels.

'Who are you?' asked Ryan in awe.

'I am the fairy of light,' smiled the woman.

'Huh? The green fairy didn't mention anything about you,' said Ryan confusedly.

'Well, I am the only one like this, and I don't get out much,' she replied. Ryan looked more closely, and he seen her white wings fluttering behind her.

'How did you find me?' asked Ryan.

'Well, I actually heard you knocking down this tree, and I came to see what you where doing,' replied the fairy.

'I am an angel, and I just fought with my brother, Isaac, because I told him that I loved his girlfriend, Elizabeth, who is a human and our other brother Raven, is after her to, because he loves her,' explained Ryan.

'Wow, so much drama for one little girl,' said the white fairy.

'Yeah,' smiled Ryan. 'So, do you know where this tunnel leads?'

'Nope, I am as lost as you,' said the white fairy.

'Well, do you want to come with me and see what happens?' asked Ryan.

'Sure,' smiled the white fairy.

Ryan and the white fairy had been walking for a few miles, before the fairy talked. 'So, since you and your are angels, what are you doing here?' she asked.

Oh it's a long story,' said Ryan.

6

'John!John, come on wake up,' said Elizabeth as she quickly shook John. John slowly woke up, in pain.

'Ugh, my back,' he said.

'Come on, we need to get out of here quickly!' said Elizabeth as she helped John sit up.

'What's going on?' John asked.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Isaac's come to save us, and we need to leave right now,' said Elizabeth quickly as she pulled John slowly to his feet. They heard a big thud, and looked over. Raven had threw Isaac through a wooden pole that was keeping the house up, and flund him threw another wall, as Isaac landed in the kitchen. Elizabeth had tears in her eyes as she watched this happen, but they had to get out of there. Isaac would of wanted them to get out. She quickly grabbed John by the arm, and drug him to the door, and outside, when they both began to run through the woods.

Chapter 19

Chapter 19

'You are foolish, Isaac,' said Raven as he walked through the livingroom wall and into the kitchen, where Isaac was sitting on the floor, barely moving and bleeding from the wounds on his face.

'Why am I foolish?' asked Isaac as he slowly sat up, with blood all over his face.

'Because, do you think Elizabeth really loves you? You ae an angel and she is a human, what if one day she gets jealous of you, because you have winds and she does not? Or what if one day you tell her that she will soon age, and get old, and die, but you will still live on and stay young, what are you going to do if she doesn't stay with you?' asked Raven with bruises all over his face.

'I'm not worried, because Elizabeth loves me, and we will always be together,' said Isaac as blood ran from his mouth.

'How are you sure? How are you sure that she won't fine someone else?' asked Raven as he knelt down beside Isaac.

'Raven, you will never have her. You already had her once, and you ruined that, because you are selfish,' said Isaac.

'Why am I selfish?' asked Raven.

'Because, you wanted to have two girls at once, and look what it got you. You are alone, kicked out of your home, and no friends, and look what I have,' smiled Isaac. Raven grew angry when Isaac told him this, and grabbed Isaac by the shirt with his hands.

'I did have everything, and now have nothing, because of you! If you wouldn't have ran after her that day in the park, and tell her that you loved her; I would be with her right now, so all of this is your fault. I have nothing because you and now her! When I'm done killing you; I'm going to kill her!' said Raven angrily. 'Better yet, since you love her so much, I'm going to kill her first and make you watch!' he yelled as he sat Isaac back down on his feet, but held on to him with one hand.

'You are not going to kill her! She has too many body guards looking over her!' yelled Isaac.

'Believe me, if I want her I will get her, because I always get what I want, sooner or later,' said Raven angrily, before dragging Isaac to the front perch of the cabin, and flying off with Isaac.

2

'It feels liek we've been walking forever,' said the white fairy tiredly.

'I know, I think we need to take a break for a while,' said Ryan as he sat down against the stone wall. The white fairy sat down against the wall in front of Ryan. 'So, why aren't you small like the other fairies?' he asked her.

'My mother was a fairy and my father was an angel. That's how I get my glow,' said the white fairy.

Falling in Love with an Angel (completed)

'Wait, your mother was a little fairy and your father was an angel, like me? How'd that happen?' asked Ryan as he gave a little chuckle, followed by the white fairy.

'It's not like you think. My mother and father loved each other, but they couldn't be intimate like humans do maybe angels, so they took a piece of themselves and mended them together, and I am a version of their love,' smiled the white fairy.

'Hmmm, so have you ever mended with anyone?' asked Ryan. The white fairy smiled and gave a little laugh. Ryan thought that her laugh was so heavenly.

'No, I have not mended with anyone, yet,' replied the white fairy. Ryan smiled at the thought of this.

'So, I take that you get your tallness from your father?' asked Ryan.

'Yes, I'm glad, because I couldn't handle being that small,' smiled the white fairy. Ryan gave a little chuckle.

'No, I wouldn't be able to either,' smiled Ryan as he yawned.

'Oh your sleepy, I will turn the light off so you can get some sleep,' said the white fairy.

'Okay,' said Ryan as he closed his eyes and fell asleep, and the white fairy turned her light off, so it was pitch black again.

3

'Stop! I cant go no more,' said Elizabeth when she found a tree trunk and sat down on it, trying to catch her breath, as tears ran from her eyes. John stopped, and seen the tears, and walked over to kneel down in front of her. 'I know that he would of wanted us to get out safe, but I feel guilty, because I should have helped him,' she cried.

'There was nothing you could have done,' said John reassuringly.

'This is all my fault! If I wouldn't have been with Raven and he wouldn't have cheated on me, and Isaac didn't follow me to the park, then we wouldn't be in this situation,' cried Elizabeth.

'Don't do that. Don't blame yourself,' said John.

'But what are we suppose to do? How are we suppose to get back to the cabin?' cried Elizabeth.

'We will find away. There is always a way out,' said John.

'We could be stuck here together John,' said Elizabeth.

'We are not stuck here. We got out from Raven's cabin, and we can get out of this,' said John. Just then, a drop of blood fell onto Elizabeth's hand. From all the rushing around, she had forgotten about her head bleeding, and her leg. She touched her head, with her hand. When she lowered her hand, she seen blood on her hand.

'I forgot about my head and leg,' said Elizabeth little scaredly.

'Don't worry, we'll find you help, now come on,' said John as he helped Elizabeth up and put one of Elizabeth's arms around his neck, and held her with one of his arms, as they began to walk again.

They walked for a few minutes, until Elizabeth cried out, and John stopped, sitting her down on the ground. 'I'm sorry John, but I can't go anymore. My head and leg are burning,' said Elizabeth with tears in her eyes.

'Come on, we still can make it,' urged John.

'John your not listening to me,' cried Elizabeth. 'I want you to go, go and be with Michelle!' John sighed and looked down at the ground, before looking back up at her. 'What's the matter?'

'The reason why I came to the cabin, and kenw that you were there, is because Raven got to me. He frozen Michelle and told me that I had to make you try to love him in order to get MIChelle back. So like you, we are both on our own at the moment. Whether you like it or not, we are stuck with each other, until we find a way out of here,' explained John.

'Poor Michelle,' said Elizabeth.

'No, you say poor us, because since Michelle is frozne, she doesn't have to deal with all of this like we do,' said John.

'John, there is nowhere for us to go,' said Elizabeth.

'We just have to find a way,' said John.

'Okay, I will try and go as far as I can,' said Elizabeth as she grabbed her leg, because it was burning.

'Alright, we better get started again, before we lose daylight,' said John when he helped Elizabeth up.

'I'm going to need a big vacation when this is done,' said Elizabeth.

'You,' laughed John. They continued to walk to find a way out.

When Isaac and Raven landed; Isaac had seen that they where back in Raven's 'layer.' 'Not back here,' said Isaac. Raven drug Isaac by the arm and down to the bottom pits, where he flung Elizabeth and Ryan.

'Yes, back here. And you're going to stay here until I find Elizabeth,' said Raven.

'Your never going to find her,' said Isaac.

'Yes I am!' yelled Raven, before he stomped his foot on the cement floor, making a little square door slide open. 'You are going to stay down there until I find her!' he yelled as he threw Isaac down the hole. 'My litte monsters!' Isaac heard Raven yelling. 'Bring me Elizabeth, but I want her unharmed, and if any of you break that rule, I will have you killed!' Raven ordered. Isaac heard a lot of little mummbing and scurring off, before it was quiet. isaac sat in the corner, feeling defeated, and feeling like he let Elizabeth down.

'Elizabeth, I am so sorry for letting you down,' he said to the darkness.

down at her as she slept. In this moment, he never felt happier. The white fairy started to stretch and sat up, when she noticed Ryan was awake.

'Oh, I'm sorry, but I heard some noise in the tunnel, so I came over here,' she explained.

'No, tha's okay,' said Ryan. 'What kind of noise was it?'

'Sounded like a lot of feet scurrying about. I thought they where coming closer to me, so I waited to see something, but nothing never came,' she replied.

'Okay, they must be gone by now. we should get a move on,' said Ryan when he stood up.

'But what if we see them?' asked the white fairy.

'Don't worry, I'm here and I won't let anything happen to you; all you need to do is trust me,' said Ryan as he held out his hand for her to take. The white fairy looked at Ryan's smiling face, then down at his hand, and slowly took his in hers. Ryan couldn't help but smile, and feel happy that she took his hand. 'You ready?' he asked.

The white fairy swallowed before answering, 'yes,' she said.

'Okay, let's go,' said Ryan when he wrapped her arm around his and continued to walk.

Chapter 20

Chapter 2

'I don't think this tunnel is ever going to end,' said Ryan. The white fairy heard a noise from the distance and it was the same noise that she heard last night. Ryan went to speak again, but the white fairy shhh'd him. 'What?' he asked.

'I hear that scurrying noise again,' said the white fairy. Ryan listened for a few minutes, but didn't hear anything.

'I don't hear anything,' said Ryan.

'Just be quiet,' ordered the white fairy. They both were silent, and Ryan finally heard the noise that she was talking about. As they listened, Ryan heard them coming closer to them. 'I think they're coming this way,' said the white fairy scaredly, as she clinged to Ryan's arm.

They where too petrified to move, as the nosie came closer. Ryan looked closer and started to see little red eyes. 'Wh...what are they?' asked the white fairy scaredly.

'I think they are Raven's little monsters, and we better get out of here,' said Ryan quickly, as he grabbed the white fairy by the arm, and began to run back towards the opening.

'How are we going to get away from them?' asked the white fairy as they ran.

'I don't know, but there are too many for me to take on at once,' said Ryan. When they reached the opening to head out, one of Raven's little monsters jumped on Ryan's back. The little monster showed his long, sharp, scary teeth, and bit into Ryan, making him scream, which made the white fary scream. Ryan took the little monster, and threw him, knocking the monster to the wall, making some of the stone break and fall to the floor with him. Ryan couldn't get away quick enough, and the rest of the monsters jumped on Ryan, making him fall to the floor, as they bit him, and Ryan screaming.

'Stop it!' yelled the white fairy. She ran over to the little monsters, and began picking them up, and throwing them off one by one. When she flung the last little monster off of Ryan; she quickly knelt down and laid over top of him, to protect him, but the monster's where coming closer to her. 'Go away!' she yelled. The monsters where still coming closer.

'Light,' Ryan said quietly.

'What?' asked the white fairy.

'Use your light to blind them,' Ryan said sloly. The white fairy looked over, and the little monsters were approaching them. So; the white fairy laid over top of Ryan and shown her light the brightest she could. The light was so bright, that it scared the little monsters, and they scurried away. The white fairy dimmed her light when all the monsters where gone.

'I think they're gone for now,' said the white fairy when her light dimmed. Ryan still had the marks all over his body, from the little monsters biting him.

'The wounds should be healing by now,' said Ryan slowly as he laid there, barely breathing.

'What? you can heal yourself?' asked the white fairy.

'Yes, all angels can,' he said slowly. Just then, Ryan let out a painful scream.

'Wh...what's the matter?' asked the fairy not knowing what to do.

'Their burning!' yelled Ryan when he screamed again. The tears began to fall from the fairy's eyes, and falling on Ryan. Ryan felt her tears and looked up. 'Don't be sad; I'll be alright,' he told her.

'I just met you, and I don't want to lose you,' she said sadly.

'Don't worry, everything will be okay,' said Ryan slowly.

'Why are you not sad because you might die,' she said.

'Because, I already know that there is a heaven, and that's where I'm going to go,' said Ryan.

'But I don't want you to go. I really like you,' she cried, as she put her head down. Ryan slowly reached his hand up and touched her cheek.

'I really like you to. Don't be sad because everything will work out in the end,' smiled Ryan. The white fairy's tears fell on Ryan. She touched his hand that was on her cheek, as Ryan took his last breath. the white fairy had noticed, and began to cry hysterically.

'No! No, no, no!' she cried as she lifted Ryan up to hold him in her lap.

'I love you, please don't leave me,' she cried. Her tears streamed down her cheeks, and on to Ryan's wounds.

When John and Elizabeth were walking through the woods; the sun was setting and it was getting dark. Elizabeth had to sit down, because her leg was hurting her too bad to walk anymore. 'John, I just can't go anymore,' said Elizabeth in pain.

'Okay, we'll stop here for the night,' said John, sitting down beside her.

'I hope this ends soon; I really missed my normal life,' said John watching the sun set through the trees.

'I don't know what a normal life feels like anymore,' said Elizabeth as she held her leg. 'I just hope that Isaac is alright.'

'Don't worry, nothing can hurt him,' said John. There was silence for a few minutes, as they watched the sun set. Elizabeth yawned, and leaned on John's shoulder to fall asleep.

When Elizabeth went to doze off; she heard some rustling from in the woods beside them. She jumped up, and looked through the woods. 'What?' asked John, watching her eagerly.

'I heard something in the woods,' said Elizabeth looking from left to right.

'What do you think it is?' asked John.

'Don't know,' said Elizabeth, still looking. Just then, one of Raven's little black monsters jumped out of the woods, with red eyes, and very ugly, sharp, teeth, smiling back at them. John quickly jumped up, and tried to help Elizabeth up, but it was too late.

Raven's little monster, was so fast, that he was a blur to Elizabeth and John. The little monster already had John on the ground on top of him. 'Get off of him!' screamed Elizabeth trying to get up, but couldn't.

'What ever happens to me,' he turned to Elizabeth. 'Tell Michelle that I love her, and always will love her,' he finished before turning back to the little monster. 'You will never keep her, and Raven will never have her,' he told the little monster before the monster bit John in the neck, ripping a piece off and making blood squirt from John's neck, killing him. Elizabeth screamed at the sight of this.

'Nooooo!' she squealed. The little monster turned to Elizabeth, with blood on his teeth. The monster threw John down, leaving his lifeless body lying there. Elizabeth tried to crawl away from the monster, but the monster was too fast. He flew in front of her, so Elizabeth could see him. 'Please leave me alone,' she begged.

'My boss wantsss you,' hissed the little monster, before grabbing Elizabeth by her hair and dragging her through the woods, as she yelled.

'Boss I got her,' said the monster as he walked through the wooden door, and Raven getting up from his chair. The monster flung Elizabeth on the floor.

'Good, what about the other one?' asked Raven as he stood in front of Elizabeth.

'He is dead,' said the little monster.

'Good, you can go now,' said Raven when he walked over to Elizabeth and knelt down in front of her. 'I see that you made it back to me.'

'You killed John! You are a murderer!' cried Elizabeth, as she laid on the floor, looking up at Raven.

'Awe, but I didn't kill anyone. My servants killed John, which makes them the murderers,' explained Raven.

'Please, just leave me alone,' pleaded Elizabeth.

'No, not to you are dead,' said Raven.

'You wouldn't kill me,' said Elizabeth.

'Oh yes; you have betrayed me, and I can't have that,' said Raven.

'What did you do with Isaac?' asked Elizabeth. Raven snapped his fingers, and one of his monster's walked over.

'Yesss,' he hissed.

'Bring me Isaac,' Raven ordered. The little monster didn't say anything just walked away. 'I haven't killed him yet; I was waiting for you.'

'Why?' asked Elizabeth sadly.

'Oh you'll see, I don't want to give away the surprise,' said Raven when the little monster arrived with Isaac.

'Elizabeth!' said Isaac trying to get free, but couldn't.

'Um no, you can't get to her,' said Raven walking over to Isaac. 'I have a special plan, planned for you two.'

'And what is that?' asked Isaac. Raven snapped his fingers again, and another little monster walked over.

'Yesss,' hissed the little monster.

'Could you take Elizabeth to the table and starp her down,' said Raven.

'Yess,' hissed the little monster. He walked over to Elizabeth, grabbed her by the hair, and drug her to the table. The table was metal and only a couple of feet away. Isaac watched as the little monsters strapped Elizabeth down. She ws trying to get free, but couldn't. The little monsters might be little, but they where strong.

After the monsters where done; Raven walked Isaac over to Elizabeth's table. Raven leaned over and picked up a sword that was leaning on the table. He held up the sword, and looked at it. 'This is going to end it all. This weapon that I have in my hand, is going to end this whole thing,' said Raven, as he handed the sword to Isaac to take.

'What am I suppose to do with that?' asked Isaac.

'You are going to take this weapon, and kill Elizabeth. You kill Elizabeth tongiht, and I will leave you go,' explained Raven.

'No, I'm not going to do that,' said Isaac angrily. Raven shoved the sword into Isaac's hand, making him take the weapon.

'Yes, you are going to do this,' said Raven.

'And, if I don't?' asked Isaac, looking at Raven.

'Then I will kill her and then you, so either way; someone is going to die tonight,' said Raven angrily. 'What's it going to be?'

Isaac looked at the sword. The room was quiet, and you could hear a pin drop. He looked around the room, then finally to Elizabeth laying on the table, staring back at him. The look in her eyes where a look of scaredness and not wanting to die. How could he kill the person that he loves for his freedom? She was only sixteen and her life hasn't even started yet, but what was he going to do? So, he looked at the sword one more time, and back up at Elizabeth, and moving in towards her.
