in over our heads

i was in my own;
element.
not too far off from;
reality.
blindness and sublime;
he feels.
dissapointed and shot down;
ive become.
when will it be restored?
my peace.
devious and demenished;
security.
loss of infinite
stance.
thrown into questions without answers;
he is,
trying to hold it all underway;
i may,
just be alittle in over my head

in over our heads
