Lies you told.

Lies you told.

You are my everything my top and only girl in my eyes you're perfect you're out of this world and i think about you twenty four seven my little dream come true who managed to escape from heaven
These are lies told by you I would wish upon anything to make these lies true no other girl not now not ever I promise you this and this is forever you're my number one girl that i know one day i will marry you are my only girl and my child i want you to carry
these are lies told by you I wished upon anything and everything to make these lies true.

Lies you told.

Lies you told.
