Natural Beauty.

You are a natural beauty

I look more than twice when you pass when you smile you're such a cutie and you dress with such class you speak with such a soft tone and move with such grace just you're beauty on its own lights up the whole place they say its such a pitty i think its much more that you dont believe you're pretty although you have heard it all before

you are a natural beauty

I hope you trust its true

Just look at you.
