Always here with me

I love so much,
When i near you,
My heart beats faster,
The strong beats rattling me to my soul,
I've never wanted to be noticed before,
But with you,
I feel as if though i could face the world,
As long as i can have you stand by my side,
Knowing I'm never alone,
I can face the days,
That had made me cry,
No more do I cry these tears,
I cry the tears now of happiness,
Because I know I'm never alone,
And I'm always with the person I love so greatly,
You.
