maybe intime

we can be more than just friends,we will walk in the park,alittle after dark,and share a kiss of passion, you'l be my love intrest,my love princess,maybe intime we can feel the intimacy beat of sweet tender love hot wet,and unforgettable, uncontrollable,u andme,i care for u in a very special way,this is my promise to always love u hopelessly,and endlessly, my love for u will never go away,cuz my heart beat for u like an acoustic,sound,a melody like the sounds of ten thousands angelic,voices, maybe intime we can sit on a bench in central park,in the beautiful garden of love,just you and i,maybe intimes we can experience the real feeling, and compassion of love,some say it tase like ice cream,some say it feels like paradise,some say it looks like a tender rose, but i think its the real beating, of our hearts and the butterflys turning in ours belly each time we touch,oooh and the feeling is so much,its heaven,its a everlasting joy deep inside,so precious, its more than priceless i cantcontain or hide it,but maybe intime u will be mines.
