The real Power of lov,

The real power of love,

The real power of love is a kind of understanding, its giving of yourself, body mind and soul,its sharing, careing, and dearing.

to do anything, for love, to have faith, respect, loyalty,honor,and trust. To be apart of a dream, true love comes from the heart, its unconditional.

The real power of love is a conquering of love and desires, pleasing, and teasing, its a connection, a chemistry, a real bond, with each other, to laugh and play, when u just, can't wait for the next day to begain, again to see that glowing smile on her face yet again and agin, to caress her tenderly, love is a beautful thing, its a support system, a deep, feeling of belongin, The real power of love is a warm tingling electrical feeling like no other feeling, though out ur body, that gives u the strength of ten men..

u can dream with delight, and smile with passion, again the real power of love is special, to touch, feel and squeeze.

love is a togetherness, we fail when we'er apart, thatsthe power of love. The real power of love is withing our souls we are nothing without it.

love is when our hearts beat as one,
