When i Cried

The heavens cry,tears like river,i tremble and quiver,i died inside,my lips get dry from talking,my feet get weary from walking, when i cried, oh so much midnight blues, my poor heart is battered,bleeding, and bruised,from the pressure,of failure,my love is gone,.

when i cried,my spirit gets dull,i feel weak and broken,the pain from my feet to my skull,oh i wish i can see her again,my heart beats like a drum,happiness took so long, to come,i feel drunken on rum,when i cried, i cried for you,maybe its because of the little things u do,oh i miss you so,the rain falls,the sun refuse to shine,no more shadows or silhouette on the wall, now she won't hear me when i call,when i cried, i hurt inside,i covered my pride,i can't hide,i cried for love,and joy to return,to my parched and burned,soul.cuz i surrender, but to the death i will defend her, i love her so,When i cried, i cried for the lack of passion,i get shortness of breath,and confuse, i wish we never met,cuz i cant forget,but i regret, not holding on just a little longer, if only i was stronger,now its inner pain and anger,so many memories,like precious,treasures,in hopes of things getting better,my head spins like a top,oh how i wish this pain would,cease and stop,cuz when i cried i cried for your touch,ur loving arms around me,

When i cried i feel like a new born,helplessly,uncontrollably,oh i wish love could rescue me, surprisingly.cuz when i cried, it seems like time stood still, im at ur mercy, ur will,my body gets slow its hard to climb that hill,but its necessary if its true love my destiny i must fulfill, i can;t stand still,my soul i sacrifice,my devotions and torched emotions,my will,to live,and love.one chance at happiness,maybe my last chance for love.cuz i am love struck by cupids arrow,even though my heart is full with pain and sorrow, i cried for compassion, cuz i miss her so,oh let me lay my body down im so tied, my heart weep and moan,in great agony, when i cried, i cried for love, i cried for you.
