Love Spell

i think you cast a spell upon me the moment we first met you drew me in with your great personality and charm and from that day you never left my head and quickly my heart succeeded into the thought of falling for you and not very long out of nowhere i realized that i was in love with you like abracadabra and da ja vo all them magical words they say it happened that quickly in my heart as quick as casting a love spell
