You loved me?!

You loved me?!

You've taken me under you wing.

Loved me through thick and thin.

From the time I broke your various stoves,

To the time I broke your walls,

You never stopped loving me.

It never mattered how much I despised you,

Or how many times my tempur got the best of me.

You always showed me you cared.

Out of all these years there's only one thing I want to change.

The fact that I never told you enough,

How much I really love you.

Thank You!

You loved me?!

You loved me?!
