Love Story

YOU always pray that your heart will never be broken be proud as the sun

be smooth as the snow

be cool as the moon

if you are happy, send me your smile if you are sad, send me your tears if you can't send a love letter, send me your heart avoid darkness, bring brightness avoid troubles, bring freedom avoid sadness, bring happiness avoid war, be shiny like a star

If you want to know to whom I'm thinking, look at the first word in the first sentence of that poem.
