Singing our song

I can't find the words to say,
Fearing that each one may ruin my way,
Deep into her heart I search for her love,
Try to boost it with a little shove,
But Love is so fragile,
Like the petals of a daffodil,
If you dare touch it,
It won't ever quit,
For It can make you so happy,
Or leave you unhappy,
Its life in the making,
Don't spend your time wastefully hating,
Just Love and you'll never go wrong,
Just find that one and sing your song.
