Devil May Care Smile On My Face

DEVIL MAY CARE SMILE ON MY FACE

Whoever said you only get what you deserve
Whoever said only the good die young whilst the old get to live with all their mistakes
Each sign post on the road down through this country reminds me how someone else always seems to pay

Riding alone in the middle of the long barren road
Dark skies surround me and a dying sun far behind me
I swear nobody can stop me when I do not care enough about anything or anyone to weigh me down
I go headlong into any travesty with a "devil may care" smile on my face
I am riding alone through all the cities ablaze without no guarantee of ever reaching heavens gate

So now I am being hunted by the loan sharks who want me to pay
Gangs aplenty after my scalp for not signing onto a corrupt bank
As government assassins on my tail eager to make me an example of the waywardness of misguided man who never took to their global plan

What does a boy do when no priest will hear his sins
What is there to do when no God will redeem him for all the wrongs they say he did

So this world is too blame for all the spite and the bitterness of making an innocent boy turn into someone who runs into the night
I have no sorrow or apology for any of the deeds I did
Even if I made the devil turn away and the meek crawl into the pit of despair
I swear I will outlive them all and I will be around on judgement day standing on high and saying "THIS DEVIL DOES NOT CARE"

I got to get out of this place
I got to get out of this place

So take your holy book and say your prayers, even if the saved will take a chance and all the damned begin to dance
I will be outside of any heaven making my way down the road without sanctuary on my horizon just the future showdown with all the nightmares I live with every day

NOW I do not want redemption
HEaven is not my kind of place
So let those Angels sing as I ride down heading somewhere where Devils hide and young girls with golden hearts sing blinding songs to take away the eyesight of riders of men before they crash and all what has been goes up in smoke so that cruel fate has her cruel way with a boy whose bones are broken but whose soul is open

NOW I DONT CARE IF YOU DO NOT WANT ME TO FIND PEACE
I GUESS I WILL CELEBRATE WITH CHAOS ON THE PLAINS OF THE DECEASED
I SWEAR I WILL BE OUT THERE SOMEHWERE STANDIGN UP ON THE HIGHEST MOUNT
SAYING ALOUD THIS DEVIL MAY CARE SMILES NO MATTER WHAT IS IN HIS WAY
