Precious in Your Sight

Lord please help me, change my heart

Everything I used to know is falling apart

I stare into a crowd with misty eyes

Cause no one in this room seems to hear me cry

Can you hear me? Are you with me?

I feel like your nowhere around

Do you still love me? Am i still your child?

I feel like you've left me when I'm falling down

I feel so alone tonight

And then you show me my name on the palm of your hand

You show me your powerful might

Everything that happens is a part of your plan

But most importantly, I'm precious in your sight

Everything's so perfect haven't had downs in a while

Everything in your word says I'm your precious child

I try to do the right thing, to do just what you say

But even when I mess up, forgiveness makes a way

Because my name is written on the palm of your hand

You have such powerful might

Everything that happens is a part of your plan

But most importantly, I'm precious in your sight
