

The Moon and the Star (song)

By : SashaStorm97

See, this is the first time when I don't mind that the summary is required. I guess, this song is about how this person is so different than me, and I like them for it, but I'm afraid if I allow myself to get close to them, it will all blow up in my face and I'll get sucked in. I compare this person to a star, and me the moon. This is a song I wrote with a tune and stuff.

The Moon and the Star (song)

You're practically perfect, you're really sweet

Everyone likes you and you like everybody

And you like to read, and you're a grammar nazi

And you like Mario and skateboarding

But your biggest flaw makes me uncomfortable

And I know that you don't think it's a flaw

And I know we haven't talked about it

'Cause I've been just pretending it doesn't exist

And the earth is spinning and we're sitting here

And the gods are waiting and we're sitting here

And the stars are shining and we're sitting here

But I've heard the stars only appear to shine because of the atmosphere

And you see the problem with me is that I trust too easily

So to compensate I don't talk to anybody

And I don't believe in second chances

I believe in 3rd, in 4th, in 5th, in 6th, in 7th chances

Which could only lead to the end of me

And the earth is spinning and we're sitting here

And the gods are waiting and we're sitting here

And the stars are shining and we're sitting here

But I've heard the stars only appear to shine because of the atmosphere

The Moon and the Star (song)

And if you peer beyond this atmosphere and you come across a star

You'll find that stars don't shine, and stars don't twinkle

They burn, they're huge, they're dangerous

And sometimes they explode and leave a big black hole

Which sucks matter in, and no one really knows what it is

But I bet it would hurt

I bet it would hurt

I bet it would hurt

And the earth is breathing and we're sitting here

And the gods are dreaming and we're sitting here

And the moon is shining, but that's only a reflection from the sun

Otherwise it's just a rock

And the earth is withering and we're sitting here

And the gods are dying and we're sitting here

And the stars are wondering what the hell I'm going to tell you

But I don't know how to say yes, but no

I don't know how to say yes

But no
