

Hypocritical Savior

By : Serenity In Silence

This is a song that makes no sense until you read the story. But I think it's kind of awesome anyway. I will be making a novel (yeesh!) with the lyrics to this songs, so enjoy, love :)

Hypocritical Savior

Sitting here, going slowly insane
Dreaming about dying because Iâ€™m in pain
Wondering and hoping that things will change,
But I know they wonâ€™t, and I guess Iâ€™m to blame
Crying, dying slowly inside
Putting on a brave face, saying Iâ€™m fine
Just canâ€™t wait until I die
Thinking Iâ€™m crazy, that I lost my mind
And yet, here I am
Persuading you from using that knife,
Telling you everythingâ€™s going to be alright
Thereâ€™s more than one scar on my wrist,
And baby believe me I didnâ€™t miss
Ended in a hospital multiple times
Because apparently suicide is really a crime
Wouldâ€™ve been dead if nobody came
But I guess a suicide puts a family to shame
So there I was in a hospital bed,
Laying there, wishing that I was dead
So now, here I am
Persuading you from using that knife
Lying that everythingâ€™s going to be alright
And I canâ€™t tell you the future, because thereâ€™s no proof
Probably would be dead if I told you the truth

Hypocritical Savior

But itâs my job as a friend to sit there and lie

Got to get through this together, itâs not our time

But yet, here I am

Persuading you from using that knife

Lying that every little thingâs going to be all right

Yes, here I am

Persuading you from using that knife

Lying that every little thingâs going to be all right
